

Premier Showing Of 'South Pacific' Set For August 29

The Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs, with which two clubs in Farmington are affiliated, will take over Melody Circus on Monday evening, August 29, as sponsors for a premier showing of the stage play "South Pacific."

The two Farmington clubs in the Federation are the Town Club and the Chiropactic Auxiliary, District No. 1.

Profits from the sale of tickets will go to the Women's Club to be used for charitable projects. Reserved seat tickets are now on sale at the Phil Thomas Jewelry Shop or may be obtained by calling Farmington 0123-W after 6 p.m. They also may be picked up at the Talent Unlimited shop in Birmingham or by calling MIdwest 64474. Tickets will be mailed upon request.

This is an opportunity for everyone to see the smash stage play which ran for years on Broadway and at the same time help in supporting charitable projects.

Mrs. Helen Huber and her infant daughter, Priscilla, who are visiting relatives in Detroit, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Zehner on Springbrook Drive last week. Mrs. Huber is from Pine Grove, Pennsylvania.

Remembering that "vacationing was wonderful but it's good to be home," were Mr. and Mrs. Romero, who, with their daughter, have recently returned from a two week tour of New York City. The Empire State Building, Coney Island and other points of interest were visited, but they discussed their most impressive experience was a visit to Gettysburg and Independence Hall in Philadelphia.

Probably displaying another ribbon won by his pulper dog, "Mike," in a show last week end, Carl Johnston is still busy trying for more points in the "championship" class. On their way home from the dog meet, the Johnstons stopped in Lansing for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Heikler.

A group of Springbrook Drive ladies enjoyed a Stanley breakfast party at the home of Mrs. Margaret Klimes on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George DeVroy, accompanied by a party of friends, celebrated Mr. DeVroy's birthday last week by attending the show "Cinema Holiday" in Detroit.

Camping at Frederick, Michigan, near Gaylord, are Mrs. Grace Burns and sons, Richard and Robert, of Springbrook Drive.

Enjoying a visit with her children in Michigan is Mrs. Beatrice from Oklahoma. She is presently visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ellier on Springbrook Drive and plans to be here for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor of 2345 Springbrook Drive are visiting relatives in Williamsburg, Kentucky. They made the trip especially to visit Mr. Taylor's father, who recently underwent major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kendrick celebrated their 16th wedding anniversary last week.

Among the over 500 taking the summer recreation program trip to Bob-Lo last Friday were the Johnston boys of Springbrook Drive. Their mother, Mrs. Mielke Johnston, went along and gave supervisory help. She reported that she had an enjoyable but tiring time.

The model home of Middlebelt Road at Briarcliff has now been sold. Purchasers are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Meyers of Detroit. Mr. Meyers is employed with the Burroughs Corporation.

An interesting committee, known as the weed committee, was formed recently in Subdivision No. 2. Headed by C. Great, the purpose of the committee will be to come up with a method for having weeds cut down in adjacent lots, ditches and yards and thus preventing them from going to seed and harming nearby lawns.

On Friday earth moving operations were started for the new Brown's Super Market and Shopping Center on Northwestern Highway near Orchard Lake Road. Even a barber shop is being planned for the center.

Last school year fear was expressed that the school bus turning around by means of using Chuck Clark's drive at Middlebelt and Gilchrist might tip over. All fears should now be done away with. More culvert has been added to the present culvert and the tree nearby trimmed to give an unobstructed view to the driver.

Those who have missed the school bus which houses the field office for Franklin Construction Company need wonder no more. It has not been done away with and moved to a spot by the pump house in Subdivision No. 3.

A reception was held on Sunday, August 14, at the Shurebush home of the Harry Greenburgs honoring their son, Joel, and his Bar Mitzva. Approximately 150 attended.

George Schreiber has been appointed chairman of the FKIA (Franklin Knolls Improvement Association) Election Committee. Members are Bill Tilder, Norm Nann, Charlotte Rubin, Lee Saperstein, Dorothy Lauer, M. Fishman, Ray Morrison, Irving Smith and Joe Karner. The committee is preparing a list of nominees for officers in the association to be presented at the next general meeting of the association on September 7.

Jerry Youngblood celebrated his twelfth birthday at his Fourteen Mile Road home last Sunday, August 14. Among the gifts he received was a nice new bike.

The speed limit in Franklin Knolls is 25 miles per hour. According to law, it need not be posted to be legal and mandatory.

Republicans would think twice before jeopardizing his chances against a Democrat.

Best bet here is that the turnpike authority, with Higgins at the helm, will be told to go ahead. Ziegler will be told to take it a little easy and maybe change the route of his free road a bit.

WATER WONDERLAND may be junked as the license plate slogan in 1956.

It became a hot weather issue for Secretary of State James M. Hare, with touches of legal trouble and with visual acuity of motorists.

Hare said that dozens of motorists had written, complaining that the "Water Wonderland" slogan at the bottom of the plates offended the numbers into hazardous-identifying proportions.

So, Hare asked a special committee to look into the problem, among others.

Then came the legal questions. An unidentified attorney in Detroit asked whether the state was violating its own law against advertising of any kind on the license plates. Hare answered: "You've got me, but I'll find out."

Hare is still checking with Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh. The law plainly states that there shall be no advertising of any kind on a license plate.

Hare, mourning the state of affairs which has the 1956 plates rolling off the lines 30,000 a day at Jackson State Prison, figured the question would be answered

Looking Ahead
By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON

game Moscow is playing with the false pose of peacefulness.

"Communism, as a system," reports the "U. S. News and World Report" on the basis of authentic information, "is not working as Communists expected. Farmers are resisting, so that food is short. Industry is failing to keep up with the expansion of industry in the non-Communist West. Living standards of people in Communist countries have failed to rise in a way comparable to those in non-Communist countries. People, as a result, are restive, discontented."

With food short, and industry lagging, the balance of military power — both potential and in being — is starting to tilt against the Communists.

"The Soviet Union of today . . . is groggy and playing for time, as well as for help. A good, stiff shove, and the whole structure — now overstrained — might collapse." The Soviet empire quite obviously needs time to recover from Communist mistakes in policy. . . . The Western world thus can expect not words and soothing gestures from the Communists.

In a companion article the U. S. News interviews Nikolai E. Kholobov, who served 13 years in the Soviet Intelligence Service and escaping Russia in 1954. He correctly predicted the downfall of the USSR, and is considered a reliable source of information being relayed secretly to him by anti-Communists within Russia. "It is now in the Soviet interest, at least for the next few years," he said, "to persuade the West to accept the idea of coexistence."

"You mean the Soviets have given up their idea of overthrowing capitalism, or conquering the world?" "No, not at all," he said, "this is simply a new tactic, but still a part of the same old long-time strategy." [Another point in the interview, Kholobov says: "The first and most dangerous enemy of the Soviet system is the oppressed, enslaved people themselves. . . . But don't think that Soviet internal problems can make the rulers change from Communism to democracy. That's impossible. The West can help, he said, not by aggrandizing Soviet leaders and aiding them out of their troubles, but by remaining strong and aiding the anti-Communist forces inside Russia. The best authorities on Communist Russia echo this belief.
