

POST SETTING was the order of the day for members of the Springfield Civic Association a week ago last Sunday, August 7. Signs were erected in both Springfield and LeMura Subdivisions as part of a project now being conducted by the association to slow speeders on the streets in the subdivisions. Getting ready to put up another sign are (left to right): John Letto, James Vairo, Ray Malton, Larry Evans, H. Slicks, young Jim Evans, who came along to supervise, and Wesley Mitchell, president of the association.

State's New Election Law Combines Ballots

Many important changes in the state election laws will be in effect when Michigan voters go to the polls next year.

There no longer will be a separate ballot for President of the United States. The presidential ballot will be combined with the state ballot for the first time since made available to the press and other interested persons.

Paper ballot precincts are limited in size to 800 registered voters and machine precincts to 1,400, with one machine provided for each 600 registered voters.

Township caucuses must be held on the same day as primary elections.

State party conventions can be held as late as September 1, 1956.

Anyone circulating election petitions must state his full address, including street and number or rural route.

Absent voter ballots must be voted on voting machines immediately after the polls close and the last voter has cast his ballot.

Votes cast for a deceased candidate shall not be counted.

Among other major new provisions of the new election code are the following:

All communities now must write applications from a voter for a ballot. Previously, communities of less than 5,000 voters were not required to use written applications.

A majority of the members of the election board must be present at all times, compared with the previous requirement that three be present.

Election inspectors must submit a written application before appointment, stating political affiliation, education, experience, and other information.

Challengers must now be registered electors of the city or township in which they act, and candidates cannot act as challengers.

Ballots no longer will be initiated by election inspectors.

County clerks must have their offices open for election purposes all day on election day and to remain open until all returns are in. Copies of all returns must be posted.

WISH YOU WERE HERE! NOW PLAYING AT MELODY CIRCUS

Now being staged at the Melody Circus Theatre, Bolfoford Inn, the Broadway hit "Wish You Were Here." This is the seventh in the summer series of plays being presented by the Melody Circus players, and will continue through August 28.

The play is based on a book by Arthur Kober and Joshua Logan, with music and lyrics by Harold Rome. The play, put to music, tells of a summer resort romance in the Catskills. "Song hits include "Wish You Were Here," "Summer Afternoon," "Shopping Around," "Tripping The Light Fantastic," and "Where Did the Night Go?"

An especially interesting feature of the play is the on-stage swimming pool.

Marion Kargetta Given In Marriage To Herluf Iverson Saturday, August 13

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday morning between Marion Kargetta of 21803 Albion Street and Herluf Iverson of Gram, Denmark, at Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church. Father Thomas Deahan officiated at the 10:00 a.m. Nuptial Mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, William Kargetta, wore a gown with a mandarin style collar, long sleeves, a bodice of chantilly lace and a skirt of gathered net over satin which formed a train. A band of lace held in place a fingerly veil of illusion trimmed with pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade of white gladioli.

Music for the wedding service was played by Mrs. Schaefer with the Mass and wedding ceremony being performed before an altar decorated with traditional baskets of white gladioli.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Edith Kargetta, who wore a blue gown with an embroidered bodice and a net over laffeta skirt. Bridesmaids Mrs. Dorothy Young and Mrs. Tove Jansson wore pink gowns of the same style as that of the maid of honor. Their headresses were caps covered with pearls and a small veil.

G. Gerard McLean, Jr., a friend from Romeo, Michigan, whom the groom met in service, acted as best man. Ushers were William J. Kargetta, Jr. and Willy Jensen.

A reception was held at the Bolfoford Inn from 12 noon until 3 p.m. with approximately 175 guests, including relatives of the groom from Windsor, Canada, and Chicago, Illinois. An especially baked cake made by Mr. Knudsen, owner of the Knudsen Bakery, whose Iverson is employed, was served.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a blue formal of tulle with a feathered headpiece and an orchid. The groom's parents were unable to attend.

The bride, who graduated from Farmington High School in 1942, has been employed at the Riverworth Insurance Agency. The groom, who attended school in Denmark, will work for two years in the U. S. Marine Corps.

The newlyweds will make their home in Detroit upon returning from their honeymoon.
