A January wedding is planned.

A.A.U.W. Women To Meet Sept. 22

The Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its September meeting Thursday evening, September 22, at the home of Mrs. L. M. Sowers, 26605 Farmington Road.

Theme for the meeting will be "Know Your Community." Preceding the meeting, a pot luck dinner will be served, featuring Latin-American recipes furnished by the "housekeeper" members of the group.

Guests for the dinner will be the "teacher" members of the group. All members of the A. A. U. W. are urged to attend the meeting, which promises to provide an interesting evening.

Low pork prices are predicted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture during the coming fall and winter due to the big pig crop last spring. Michigan State nutritionists remind you to cook pork slowly and thoroughly. You may want your beef served rare, but never serve pork any other way but well done.

Clarenceville Couple United

Irene Lamb of 20128 Park and Alexander Allen of 19420 Parkville were joined in marriage Saturday morning, September 10, at St. Agatha Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Father O'Hara.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, William.

Both Allan and the former Miss Lamb attended Clarenceville High School. She has been employed at Burroughs in Livonia and he has worked as a carpenter in this area since his return from the Army and service in Korea.

The bride was lovely in a nylon tulle floor length gown with chantilly lace and sequined bodice, sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. Her headpiece was heart-shaped and of lace and sequins, and she wore a fingertip veil. A white orchid surrounded by forget-me-nots formed her bouquet.

Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth McBrath, and Mrs. Catherine Courtney. Both wore ballerina length nylon tulle gowns of pink and blue respectively. Their headresses, with veils, matched their gowns.

Charles Veatch, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man and Thomas Allan served as usher.

Mrs. Catherine Lamb, the bride's mother, wore a blue satin champagne dress with an orchid corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. Thomas Allan, donned a blue lace gown with an orchid corsage.

A wedding breakfast was served for the immediate families at noon at the V. F. W. Hall and a reception was held at the same location in the evening. A buffet supper was served to over 200 guests, including relatives from Canada.

A frosted edge on drinking glasses can make its contents a fruit punch just that much more inviting. To frost the rim, turn the glass upside-down in about 1-inch of fruit juice, and then dip the edge in sugar.

Couple Honored At Open Houses On Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ohrman of 23227 Lilac Street, Floral Park, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Monday, September 5.

The couple, who spoke their wedding vows in Jamestown, New York, made their home in Detroit for many years. They were among the first families to move into the Floral Park development.

On Labor Day the couple were honored at an open house held at the Augustana Lutheran Church from 5 to 7 p.m. The pastor of the church, Reverend Norling, offered several short readings from the Bible regarding marriage vows: "To Promise Me" and "Through the Years" were sung by Mrs. William Johnson.

After a few remarks by both Mr. and Mrs. Ohrman, refreshments were served by the Ladies Society of the church. A wedding cake with a golden bell was cut and served. The couple received a golden clock and a sum of money in gifts.

The bride walked down the aisle in a white antique silk gown with scoop neckline, princess waist and full skirt. A Juliet cap held a fingertip cascade of pink and white roses.

Organ selections played during the ceremony included "At Dawning," "The Lord's Prayer," and "Because." Mary Hedgecough, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a rose taffeta ballerina length gown and carried white carnations. Mrs. Gayle Frazer, wearing a deep turquoise taffeta gown and carrying white carnations, was bridesmaid.

George Hayes, a friend of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman was William Packard. Jimmie Mosbach and Howard Packard ushered guests to their seats.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a black taffeta cyclor over rose dress with black accessories, and the groom's mother chose a beige dress with brown accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

Following the church ceremony a reception was held at the American Legion Hall. Immediately following the reception the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Chicago.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Packard attended Farmington High School. The bride was formerly employed with the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. The groom is employed with the Southfield Water Department.

Central School P. T. A. To Meet September 20

The Central School P. T. A. will meet on Tuesday, September 20, at 8 p.m. at the Central School. The meeting is designed as a special get-together so that parents of children attending the school may become better acquainted with one another.

Mr. Louis Schmidt, superintendent of the Clarenceville Schools, will speak on the special election in the School District, to be held October 3.

Everyone with youngsters attending the school is urged to attend the P. T. A. meeting.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Colvin of 28035 Gilmart, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Jean, to William Varber, whose parents reside in West Virginia.

Joan Rozenboom, Edward Strye Wed At Our Lady Of Sorrows September 3

Wedding vows were exchanged between Joan Marie Rozenboom of 22136 Springbrook Drive and Edward Joseph Strye of 28630 Shilawsee Road on Saturday, September 3. The double ring ceremony was performed by Father John Dunn.

The bride's gown, of chantilly lace with a lace tiered train, featured long sleeves, scoop neckline with tulle insert, tiny Peter Pan lace collar and full skirt. A sequin and rhinestone studded tiara held a lace trimmed illusion veil in place. She carried an S-shaped bouquet of Amazon lilies and stephanotis.

Charles Strye, the groom's brother, served as best man. James Dickinson, Louis Nolan and William Godwau were ushers.

Susan Meyers, wearing a pink, floor length dress, was flower girl and James McGowan was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother, Mrs. Robert Rozenboom, chose a turquoise taffeta suit dress with pink gloves and hat and a pink carnation corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. Frank Strye, wore a peacock blue taffeta dress with shell pink gloves and hat and a pink carnation.

A reception was held for the newlyweds at the I. O. O. F. Hall on Inkster Road. A buffet lunch was served to over 400 guests.

On returning from a honeymoon trip to Chicago, the couple will reside at 29021 Roycroft Street in Livonia. They will be at home to friends after October 1.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Strye graduated from Farmington High School. The bride received advanced training at the University of Michigan and the groom attended Lawrence Institute of Technology. The former, Miss Rozenboom has been employed at the Farmington State Bank. The groom is employed with the Ford Motor Company.

Westbrook P. T. A. Plans Pot Luck Supper Sept. 19

The Westbrook P. T. A. will hold a potluck supper on Monday, September 19, at 7 p.m. All parents and other adults interested in the school are cordially invited to attend and join in an evening of community activities.

The school administrators and teachers will be introduced at the supper. Community singing and various other activities will be enjoyed.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Norman Raupp of Ivywood Drive announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Noreen, to James Murray Dickinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Dickinson of Livonia.

The bride-elect graduated from Farmington High School in 1954 and her fiancé is a graduate of the Shrine of the Little Flower in Roy, Ok. class of 1953. The couple will be married on October 22.

Garden Club Benefit Party Set For October 1

The annual Farmington Garden Club benefit card party will be held Saturday, October 1, at the Farmington Junior High School gymnasium on Thomas Street.

Desserts will be served at 12:30 p.m. followed by an afternoon of cards.

Proceeds from the benefit party will be used to help finance the conservation teaching program, the horticultural therapy program, the junior gardeners' program and other civic projects.

Due to the quality of prizes to be awarded this year, a greater attendance than last year is anticipated by the Garden Club.

GUESTS FROM WISCONSIN

Mr. and Mrs. William Ashley and Hazel Johnson and daughter, Mrs. P. A. Dickinson, Wisconsin, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stamper, 20221 Angling Road.
