Bits Of News From Clarenceville Area

"Serving the Area Between 8 and 9 Mile From Tuck to Inkster Road"

Lorna Rice Phone GR. 4-6152

It is nice to be back on the job again after a two-week vacation. We travelled through the eastern states, stopping at Niagara Falls, and then went on to Boston to the National V. F. W. Convention. Farmington post was represented by Commander James Rice and by Mrs. Rice. Commander Kenny Roberts. Delegate for the Auxiliary was the Senior Vice President, Lorna Rice.

Some of the highlights of the convention were the five hour parade, the Million Dollar Pageant of Drums, and a Michigan banquet which was attended by over 100 delegates. On the way home we travelled through Massachusetts over the Mohawk Trail and the New York Thruway, then into Canada and home. We picked up our son, Bobbie, who had been staying with his uncle and

Local Church To Host Conservative Baptist Meeting

The Farmington First Baptist Church has been selected as host church for the organizational meeting of the Greater Detroit Conservative Baptist Association to be held Tuesday, September 27, at 7:30 p.m., according to Dr. Gordon D. Northrop, local pastor.

The fellowship, composed of some forty churches in the area, will convene to hear Dr. William Colman of Highland Park Baptist Church, Dr. H. H. Savage of the First Baptist Church, Pontiac, and Dr. Eric Frykberg, veteran Conservative Baptist missionary to India, known as the modern "Praying Hyde" of Christendom.

The business meeting will be moderated by Pastor Northrop, moderator pro tem, who also stated that it comes at a crucial era in Baptist history and will doubtlessly be determinative in many area issues.

Music will be under the direction of Kyle Wilson, Pontiac, Mrs. Bryce Augsburger, Livernois Avenue Baptist, Detroit, and Mr. Sheldon Knowles, Mrs. William Hollar, and Mrs. Joseph Wilson of the Farmington church.

The church social committee, composed of Mrs. Roy Rich, Mrs. Richard Erickson, Mrs. John Stachurski, and Mrs. Joseph Hamilton, will serve light refreshments at the conclusion of the evening's program.

Weathermen in Oklahoma City report that the office roof sprang a leak during a recent thunderstorm. Fellow's nearby out of his mind. No one he can call up to blame for lack of information about the storm.

Visitors To Cranbrook Will Find Park In Color

Early autumn visitors to the Gardens of Cranbrook House will find formal plantings and carefully trimmed boxed shrubs still at their peak and 40 acres of landscaped park just donning fall colors.

The Gardens, which are located on Lone Pine Road in Bloomfield Hills, surround the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth, founders of the six Cranbrook institutions. Gardens open hours are from 2 to 6 p.m. every Saturday and Sunday through October.

FAIR TRIAL

If you have never given the Bible a fair trial in your life, why not listen to its message with us this Sunday? Its pages contain the answer to life's perplexities. The Word of God . . . liveth and abideth forever. I Peter 1:23

Local Church To Host Conservative Baptist Meeting

Attending the dedication services of the new St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Plymouth last Sunday were Mrs. Louise Reniff, Mrs. Minnie Dietle and Mrs. Augusta Howe of Hancock Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spies of Rensselaer Street recently returned from a two-week vacation in northern Michigan. They visited Miners Castle and many interesting places. They also visited Mrs. Spies's brother and sister, who are employed at Mackinac Island.

The Builders Class of Clarenceville Methodist Church held a winter roast Friday evening at the Leon Newman home on St. Francis Street. Plans were made for a pancake supper, which will be held very soon, and for a hayride. The Builders Class has had carpeting installed in the pastor's study.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waldstrom of Calumet, Michigan, returned to their home Friday after spending a week at the Marvin Burkman home on Alloué.

Mrs. Louise Reniff, Mrs. Minnie Dietle and Mrs. August Howe of Hancock Street attended a toy party at the home of Mrs. Shirley Donner of Kinlock Friday afternoon.

Ricky Kelm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kelm of Purdue Street, celebrated his sixth birthday Monday afternoon with a party for his little friends. Games were played and ice cream and cake were served to Johnnie Schweizer, Stevie and Tommie Walsh, Scott and Karen Prentiss, Dennis and Penny Schmidt, Percy and Billie Pratt, Carol Kelm, Bobbie Turner, Stevie Olive, Bobbie Rice, Mark Ringwood, Jerry Derry, and Diane Hoppe.
