

Along The Creek In Woodcreek

The Phillips of Millbrook Drive have returned from an eventful week in the East. The main event was the marriage of Mr. Phillips' daughter, Dorothy, in Boothbay, Maine. En-route, they stopped at Contoocook, New Hampshire, and had breakfast with Mrs. Phillips' son. From there they went to Pepperell, Massachusetts, where they had dinner with her mother at the Gorton Inn. They spent the night with her aunt in Pepperell. Due to a bronchial infection, the bride-to-be landed in the hospital and the wedding had to be postponed until Monday. A day of visiting in Shrewsbury, Massachusetts, with Mrs. Phillips' daughter and family was thus possible.

The wedding ceremony took place on Monday at 4:00 p.m. in the Congregational Church. The Phillips started on their return trip the same night.

Margaret Lam of Westbrook had a slumber party to celebrate her thirteenth birthday last Friday. An old-fashioned taffy pull was a highlight of the evening. Fun and feasting into the wee small hours followed. A very novel birthday celebration took place Saturday morning at breakfast with candles blazing in a warm, home-made coffee cake.

Two families moved into new homes in Woodcreek recently. The Richards, Jack and Florence, of 29021 Wellington, moved in on August 15. Mr. Richards is a manufacturer's representative for a heavy sanitation equipment company. Life in Woodcreek promises to be very active as they have already enjoyed three groups of house guests who came to lead a helping hand.

The Tyghems, Morris and Mary, moved into their new home at 22225 Millbrook Road on September 8. Their two children, Morris, Lady in Brandon, Mississippi, is suing the county for alleged injuries suffered when a riding party, chasing a bootlegger, knocked her out of her rocking chair. We once tasted some legally bottled stuff that would set you rocking in a straight chair.

At the close of the meeting, the congregation expressed their sincere thanks and appreciation to the following committees for their fine accomplishments thus far: Executive Building Committee: Chairman, Charles J. There is no mortal truly wise and restless at once; wisdom is the repose of minds.

Mrs. P. C. Wright of California and her small daughter, Ruth Ann, were house guests of the Lloyd Nelsons on Millbrook Drive for several days. The occasion was the wedding of Elaine Nelson and Parvin Wright, Jr., of California, who were married on Saturday, September 10.

The meeting of the Detroit Wesley College Club was held last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Phillips on Millbrook Road. An outdoor cook-out luncheon was the feature event. Mrs. E. A. Murphy, librarian at Farmington High School, was in charge of the luncheon.

The Ross Pieuses of Millbrook spent a week in Chicago combining business and pleasure. They attended the big G. M. Power Show, "Powerama." Mr. Ross, who was in charge of several exhibits, was able to find time to enjoy the windy city with Florence.

Eric and Dotty Janson have returned from their recent fishing trip which lasted almost two weeks. They spent two days in South Branch, a couple days in Traverse City and then went on north to the Canadian Soo. They particularly enjoyed the Manitoulin Islands. They didn't get many big ones, but they had a relaxing, enjoyable time.

The Missals also combined business with pleasure while they spent a week at Greenbriar in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. Fred attended the Tax Executive convention.

John Meng, member of the Glen Orchard Civic Association School bus transportation committee, disclosed this week that every consideration is being given by the Farmington School Board to provide more adequate school bus service. He further disclosed that action has been taken by the Glen Orchard group to form a car pool whereby the smallest youngsters will be transported to and from school where bus service can not be provided.

The Norman Raupps are just about the busiest family in Glen Orchard these days. Miss June Joseph was a guest at their Lywood home over the week end. A daughter, Jean, is busy with preparations for her twentieth birthday and has invited several friends to help her celebrate the event on Thursday, September 22. Biggest excitement, though, is over the fact that Corporal Nor-

Fifteenth anniversary celebrating was still not over this week for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ohrman, 23227 Lila Street, Floral Park. Following publication of a story on their anniversary in last week's Enterprise, the Ohrmans received a telephone call from an oldtime Detroit friend who also lives in Farmington now.

For '56, Ford brings you the greatest safety news in a generation. It's new Lifeguard Design. In cooperation with universities, medical associations and safety experts, Ford learned that most serious injuries in accidents were caused by drivers being thrown against steering post, occupants being thrown forward against hard interior surfaces, or thrown out of the car. To provide extra protection against these hazards Ford developed the new Lifeguard features described at right.

But there is still more wonderful news! Ford brings you Thunderbird power in a modern deep-block Y-8... Thunderbird beauty, too... rich new interiors... quality workmanship throughout.

See it... try it... you'll agree the '56 Ford is the fine car at half the fine car price.
