Falcon Gridders Down Rochester

The Farmington Falcons spotted a strong Rochester team six points in a game last Friday night under the arcs and then came back to score twice, pushing ahead to win 14 - 13 for their first gridiron win in 17 games.

First blood in the contest was drawn by Rochester when La-Berry caught a pass and ran 30 yards for a touchdown. The try for the extra point failed.

With determination the Farmington team drove back and on a sustained push drove inside Rochester's 20 yard line midway in the first period. A pass from quarterback Brewbaker complete to halfback Kosty gave the Falcons a first down and goal to go on the six. On the next play, Jerry Plautz, Farmington's driving fullback, lunged across the goal line to knot the score 6 - 6. Porter booted the extra point to give the Falcons a 7 - 6 edge.

Farmington scored again toward the end of the second quarter when Brewbaker pushed across from about the one on a quarterback sneak. Porter again converted to give the Falcons a 14 - 6 lead at half time.

The Rochester team showed life in the early part of the third period. After a succession of first downs, McDaniels plunged over from the two for another six points. The try for the extra point was good and Rochester trailed by only one point.

Farmington succeeded in hanging on to their slim margin during the fourth period. Rochester drove to the Farmington 25 yard line late in the period but the final gun prevented any further action.

The starting lineup for Farmington was: Brewbaker at quarterback; Robinson and Kosty, halfbacks; and Plautz at fullback. In the line were Tulp at center; Miller and McBride, guards; Arrington and Beech, tackles; and Roberts and Jones at ends.

The Farmington Falcons will give an all-out try to keep on the victory trail when they oppose Van Dyke this Friday evening on the Van Dyke gridiron.

FATHERS AND SONS, seated together in the new high school gymnasium, looked on the Farmington Baseball for Boys Banquet last week after enjoying a delicious dinner served by the local Jaces. Following the dinner, awards were presented to sponsors and players of the championship teams in the various baseball leagues, and recognition was given to all who helped in making this year's program a success. Banquet guest J. W. Porter, of the Detroit Tigers, is shown in the photo at the right presenting an individual trophy to a member of one of the championship teams.

Farmington Baseball for Boys Banquet Attracts Large Crowd

An excellent turnout of fathers and sons, as well as officials, sponsors, managers and others interested in the Farmington Baseball for Boys organization, attended the banquet Tuesday evening, September 20, at the new gymnasium, concluding this year's activities of the group.

Following a dinner served by the Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce, awards were presented and recognition paid to those who helped in making this year's program a success. Banquet Club baseball programs in Farmington the success they were this year.

The championship trophy in the Little League was presented to the Cardinals, sponsored by the Curt Hall Auto Agency. The championship award in the Babe Ruth League was awarded to the Arrowsmith Tool and Die Indians, sponsored by L. B. Greenbury.

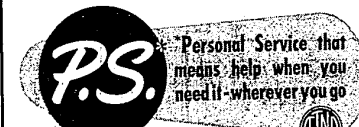

Trophies were presented to members of the two championship team and pins were awarded to others players in the farm system. Special recognition was also paid to the leading hitters and pitchers in both leagues. Leading batter in the Little League was Derryl Allen with a .500 average and leading pitcher Harvey Chapman with a record of six wins against no losses. In the Babe Ruth League Jim Rogerson was the leading stickman with a .459 batting average. Bob Uley, Jr., was the top hurler in the league with a 7 - 0 pitching record for the season.

Guests at the banquet was J. W. Porter of the Detroit Tigers, who gave a short talk to the group commending the Baseball for Boys program. He also assisted in the presentation of trophies and awards.

At the conclusion of the program motion pictures of activities in the local baseball program during the past year were shown.

Trojans Wallop Milford 26 - 0 In First Contest On New Lighted Athletic Field

The Clarencetown Trojans made an impressive showing before a crowd of approximately 1500 fans in their first game under the lights on their new football field last Friday evening and downed a strong Milford eleven with ease, 26 - 0.

The Trojan offensive machine got rolling early in the game and showed no signs of the weaknesses which were evident in their first game. The defensive team was equally superb, holding Milford two first downs throughout the game.

The win was victory number two for the Trojans this year and their fifth straight win for the past two years.

Taking the opening kick-off of the game, the Trojans marched 62 yards to pay dirt with Bob Soop capping the drive on a 20-yard jump on a reverse play. The Clarencetown team tallied twice more in the first period. The second tally came on a 68-yard drive with Soop plunging over for the last 15 yards. Jim Jones hauled in a pass from Dave Hanford for 18 yards and another score. End Dale Devitt added the extra point on touchdown number three and on the field with a comfortable 19 - 0 margin.

The final Trojan touchdown came early in the third period when Harold Dorman hauled in a stray Milford pass and rambled 45 yards to pay dirt. Devitt added the extra point, making it 26 - 0. Coach Nick Ianni used substitutes freely throughout the remainder of the game. The Trojans

Store To Give Defense Stamps

A new stamp saving program is being inaugurated this week by a local merchant, Farmington Meats, at 33419 Grand River Avenue.

Stamps with real monetary value, United States Savings Stamps, will be given to customers purchasing at the store. Different than any merchandising stamp saving program offered, no books need be filled before real value is realized.

The program works like this. With each purchase at the local store, a cash receipt is presented. When receipts total $5 or more they can be redeemed and a 10 cent saving stamp will be given. Stamps may be kept and added to at any time until enough have been obtained for the purchase of a bond or may be cashed in at any time.

The store will begin giving stamps on Thursday, September 29.

WOMEN'S CLUB The Farmington Women's Club will hold its first meeting of the season on Wednesday, October 5, at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ralph Noble, 24055 Nine Mile Road. Mrs. Alice Warner Brown will show pictures of her recent European trip. A good attendance is desired for the opening meeting.
