Sunday afternoon and evening, October 2, 23. The service will start at 11 a.m.
 Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clark Avenue has been confined to her home this past week with an eye infection, believed to have been caused by an insect bite.
 Mrs. Cecil Willet of Mayfield Avenue has been suffering with a painful eye infection.
 The Robert Laughman family, formerly of Mayfield Avenue but now of Lathers Avenue, Livonia, who received a painful and severe bruise and bruises when their car was involved in a traffic accident a few weeks ago, have fairly well completed their convalescence. Four year old Danny had his tonsils removed last week.

The Adult Bible Class of the Livonia Methodist Church enjoyed a social meeting at the home of their pastor, Rev. Andrew Michelson, on Flamingo Avenue Wednesday evening. Picture slides provided entertainment.
 A toy party held in the Livonia Methodist Church last Wednesday evening proved a nice little social affair. Plenty of delicious homemade cake, with coffee or tea, added to the enjoyment of the affair.

A Stanley party, arranged as a benefit for the Neighborhood Bible School and held in the Neighborhood Church Thursday evening, became a friendly get-together of women neighbors. In a guessing contest Mrs. James Schult received a prize, and in a word-building game Mrs. Robert Laughman and Mrs. Ault received gifts. Mrs. Irene Tallman and Mrs. James Rhone were tendered remembrances because of having October birthdays. Mrs. William Morris was awarded a don't prize. Following a demonstration of products, refreshments were served.

The Square Dance Club held its opening dance of the season in the Livonia Methodist Church Friday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jennings and their three children of Norfolk Avenue, spent last week end at their summer cottage near Stanton, Michigan. They were joined by a group of relatives from Livonia and on Sunday, October 2, a celebration honored the tenth birthday of Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roberts of Mayfield Avenue were in Inkster Saturday, October 8, attending a celebration honoring the seventh birthday of their grandson, Eddie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kuchanek.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Grattop of Mayfield Avenue are now grandparents. Wednesday, October 5, in St. Sinai Hospital, Detroit, an eight pound one ounce girl, Susan Kay, was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Pitts of Redford Township. Mrs. Pitts is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grattop.
 After a two-week visit with the Eckmans on Farmington Road, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Merril have returned to their home in Grand Rapids.
 Richard Shupe of Detroit has, for the past week, been a guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Helton of Mayfield Avenue.
 Mrs. Clarence Roberts and her younger children, of Mayfield Avenue, were overnight guests one day this past week of Mrs. Roberts' mother in Wayne.
 Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon of Bretton Road have returned home from a most enjoyable vacation visit with relatives and friends near Vincennes, Indiana.
 Mr. and Mrs. Roy Helton of Mayfield Avenue are spending the next two weeks with the latter's mother, Mrs. Shupe, in Detroit.
 Mrs. Frank Posner and Mrs. B. H. Schotten of Farmington Road left Friday evening to spend the week end with friends in Grand Rapids.
 Mrs. Mable Ault, a driver for the local Red Cross, delivered a large quantity of roses, donated by the J. L. Hudson Company, to the Northville State Hospital and to the Children's Convalescent Home Wednesday. Hudsons had been conducting a Rose Show and at the close had Red Cross workers from the various communities in this area carry floral offerings to hospitals. Each driver received a box of roses for herself. Mrs. Ault has two and a half dozen salmon colored beauties in her home. Patients at the hospitals mentioned were delighted with their roses.
 Accompanied by Mrs. Ethel Schroeder of Farmington, Mrs. M. E. Ault of Mayfield Avenue visited at the Tom Roberts home in Monroe Sunday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Funk have now moved their belongings to their new home in Hamilton, Ohio.
 Rally Day will be observed in the Neighborhood Bible School on

Postmaster, Wife Attent National Meet In Detroit

Postmaster Henry Trombley and Mrs. Trombley have been in attendance since last Saturday at the National Postmasters Convention in Detroit. Postmasters elected in Detroit for the annual meeting.
 Convention activities will be concluded this Thursday evening with the Postmaster General's Ball, to be held at the new University of Detroit auditorium.

Grouse, Deer Openings Sprayed In North Woods

Chemical sprays killed scrub growth on large areas of northern wild lands this year, openings being developed as sharp-tailed grouse and deer habitat.
 Hunters will find 300 acres of people sprayed out on Drummond Island, 200 acres in Dickinson County north of Sagola, 400 acres in Kalkaska County about ten miles west of Grayling, 200 acres north of Watersmeet and 335 acres northeast of Newberry.
 Conservation Department workers sprayed the areas this summer.
