Bits Of News From Franklin Knolls

EARL TEEPLES MA. 6-6533

A FORD Thunderbird, Junior, was taken home last week by A. T. McGuire and his son, William McGuire II, from the Berling - McHugh Ford agency here. The miniature auto, a replica of the real Ford Thunderbird, was one of 50 awarded by Ford auto dealerships across the nation during the recent three-day showing of the new 1956 model Fords. Mike Berling, left, presents keys to the miniature auto to young William and his father while Ray McHugh, extreme right, looks on.

The Thunderbird is powered by a 120 ampere, 6 volt battery.

A meeting of the Franklin Knolls Improvement Association for Subdivisions 1 and -2 was held Wednesday, October 26, at the Farmington High school cafeteria. Officers for the association were elected and installed at the meeting.

The Eagle School P. T. A. will meet at the Eagle School on November 3 at 9 p.m. Nominations for officers will be accepted at the meeting. Separate ballots will be used for electing each officer. Offices to be filled include president, father and mother vice-presidents, secretary, treasurer, and historian. Everyone in the Subdivision is urged to attend this big and important meeting.

The roads in Subdivision No. 3 were graded by the road commission this week. They were left smooth but awfully muddy.

Irene Shuster has returned home from the hospital with a new addition to the family, a nine pound baby girl.

Chuck Bergeson of Queensboro Street returned home from Boston a day later than he had expected. There to announce the

NEW OFFICERS PRESIDE AT EXTENSION MEETING

'Players' Ready Second Running

The current Farmington Players production, "Ramsheadle Inn," will be staged for the second two performances this Friday and Saturday, October 28 and 29, at the Farmington Junior High School gymnasium. Curtain time will be at 8:30 p.m. Ticket reservations may be obtained by calling GR. 4-4466 or Northville 584-R11.

The first two stagings of the production last Friday and Saturday evening were termed as highly successful. The fast-moving three-act mystery farce was well acted, it is reported.

Betty Lord, playing the lead as Delinda, made her debut with the Players group and her acting was superb. Her portrayal of the part, taken in the original play by Zaza Pitts, was called excellent. Joe Blanton as Constable Small; Betty Richardson as Gail; Duncan Carter as Dr. Russell and Norma Keen as Alice all experienced their first appearances on the local stage and performed their respective roles exceptionally well.

Other members of the cast are Farley Thomson, James Cavanagh, Fred Harrison, Jean Anderson, Mary Ann Perry, Ernie Hickman, Leonard Stone, Harry Farmer, Jane Quisenberry, Lawrence Mayer and George Nasholt.

If you can't think of any other way to flatter a woman, tell her she's the kind of woman who can't be flattered.

More American girls are named Mary than anything else - 6,000,000 of them. Elizabeth is the next most prevalent moniker.
