Bethel Baptist Women Active

The ladies of the Bethel Baptist Church on Farmington Road conducted services every Tuesday at the Novi and Whitehall at 20836 Whitlock, and on Tuesday, October 18, a special meeting was planned. It was the one-hundredth birthday of Grandma Richards of the Novi home, and a surprise and a happy time was provided for the group there.

Seven of the ladies met Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Nellie Dickerson at 57650 Howard Road and made corsages and bouquets and a birthday cake for the party. They had lunch together before leaving for the home where they were joined by more of the ladies, including the pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Smith.

Mrs. Smith sang the twenty-third Psalm and Mr. Smith spoke from the same text.

The bouquets were presented to fifteen women and five men, and they were served ice cream and cake.

The day circle of the Women's Mission Society of the Bethel Baptist Church met on Thursday, October 20, at the home of Mrs. Stanley Smith on Seven Mile Road for noon lunch with eleven present. A program, devotions and white cross work was the order of the afternoon.

The evening circle met at the home of Mrs. Jacqueline Taggart of 21317 Colgate with eleven present. White cross work and devotions were a part of their program, after which lunch was served. There were visitors at both meetings.

Trinity Church Tea Set Nov. 10

The Trinity Episcopal Church's annual Tea will be held at Adams Hall of the Universalist Church on Thursday, November 10. From 2 to 5 p. m. the women of the church will be hostesses to neighbors and friends from Farmington and Episcopal churches in the Detroit area.

The Rev. Raymond Jalbert of Thornbrook Drive, general chairman, announced that this year it will be a "Basket" Tea, with New England baskets of all kinds available, in which to carry home the delicacies to be found there.

An invitation is extended to all women of the community to attend the affair.

DORM OFFICER

Dorothy Downing, a graduate of Farmington High School, was recently elected secretary - treasurer of East Hall, upperclass women's dormitory, at Hillsdale College.

MR. and MRS. DONALD JAMES BANDELOW
Donna Posner Weds Donald Bandelow
At Presbyrian Church October 1

At a ceremony on October 1 at the St. Paul's Presbyterian Church at 4 p. m., Donna Shirley Posner, 20340 Farmington Road, Livonia, was united in marriage to Donald James Bandelow of Willoughby, Ohio.

The doubling ceremony was performed by Reverend John G. Davis before an altar decorated with baskets of white flowers. Mrs. Marcella Hall, soloist from the Livonia Methodist Church, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride was lovely in a white satin gown trimmed in lace with a floor length skirt, long lace sleeves, a pleated front and a scoop neckline. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations surrounding a white orchid.

The bride's sister, Leona Ruth Posner, was maid of honor. She wore a flamingo red taffeta gown with a corsage of small flowers arranged on a white velvet muff.

Mrs. Bill Fulton, Miss Francis Ann Posner and Miss Marie Bandelow were bridesmaids. All wore emerald green taffeta gowns with small flamingo red fur hats and carried muffs decorated with flowers.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Richard, as best man. Ushers were J. Bandelow, Bob Bandelow and Larry Phillips.

For the wedding the bride's mother, Mrs. Frank Posner, wore a twilight blue dress with matching jacket and pink accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Albert Bandelow, wore a pink dress with black velvet trim and black accessories.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at Gramer's Hall on Eleven Mile Road. Over 200 guests were present, including friends and relatives from New York, Maryland, Indiana, Illinois, Connecticut and Ohio.

A dinner of roast turkey and baked ham was served by friends of the bride's mother. An orchestra provided music for round and square dancing.

Following a honeymoon to Wisconsin, the couple moved into their home at 809 Englewood, Willoughby, Ohio.

Marilyn Sharpe Represents State At 4-H Congress

Miss Marilyn Sharpe of Novi has been chosen to represent Michigan at the National 4-H Club Congress to be held in Chicago in December. It was disclosed this week. She was selected to represent the state by the Michigan State University Awards Committee.

After winning the Oakland County Home Improvement award, Marilyn went on to win the district conference at Ann Arbor. She then went to the State 4-H Club Show at East Lansing where she was selected to represent the state at the national meeting. The trip to Chicago will be sponsored by Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

Marilyn is a member of the Novi Country Slicks 4-H Club, which is under the leadership of Mrs. James Wimmer of Farmington.

Rebekahs To Sponsor Combined Activities

The Edgewood Rebekah Lodge will sponsor a combination of activities on Thursday, November 3, at the I. O. O. F. Hall on Inkster Road, one block north of Eight Mile.

There will be a card party and luncheon, bazaar, bake sale and rummage sale. Everyone is welcome. Further information may be obtained by contacting Lillian Drow, EL. 6-4549.

Mrs. W. Brown Takes State Post

The appointment of Mrs. Wendell Brown as chairman of the Status of Women Committee was disclosed this week by the Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women.

To occupy this State position, Mrs. Brown has resigned as president of the local A. A. U. W. Branch. Mrs. Douglas Hamill has moved up from the office of vice-president to president, and Mrs. Paul Kalkins has been appointed to fill the vacated vice-president post.

New officers will preside at a meeting of the group on Thursday, October 27, at the home of Pauline Vasutinsky, 29200 Belfast, the first street south of Grand River and west of Middlebelt. The meeting will start at 8 p. m.

Speaker at the meeting will be Mrs. Max Williams, member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Detroit Chapter, American Association for the United Nations, and national president of the Federation of Motion Picture Councils, Inc. of Motion Pictures. Topic of her talk will be "How the Local A. A. U. W. Can Help the United Nations."

Speak Vows At Beside Of Bride's Father

On Saturday, October 15, at 2 p. m., Elaine Marsh and Donald Lamoreaux were united in marriage at the bedside of Elaine's father in the Pontiac General Hospital. Mr. Marsh is an invalid.

The bride wore a white satin and lace gown with a three-quarter length veil and carried a bouquet of white mums and yellow tea roses.

The maid of honor, Lydia Birr, wore an orchid colored satin and lace gown and carried yellow mums. Raymond Birr was best man. Bonnie Heagen was bridesmaid and wore a blue satin and lace gown with a yellow veil.

Donald Marsh, the bride's brother, accompanied Miss Heagen.

A green satin and lace gown, complimented with a pink carnation, was worn by the bride's mother.

Performing the marriage ceremony was Reverend Tell of the Lutheran Church. Mrs. Gould rendered appropriate vocal selections.

CATHERINE JEAN KEATING
Catherine Keating
Weds Don Carrier

Catherine Jean Keating, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Keating of 32725 Cloverdale, became the bride of Donald Joseph Carrier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Carrier of Coyle Avenue, Detroit, at a Nuptial Mass at Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Farmington, on Saturday, October 22.

The bride's gown was of chintilly lace with a fingertip veil. She wore a matching lace cap and carried white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. John Burgess, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Ann Carrier, the groom's sister, was bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in rust velvet and carried yellow mums.

The groom chose his brother, Paul, as best man. Ushers were Gordon Keating, brother of the bride, William Leahy and Humbert Mularoni, Jr.

A reception at Devon Gables followed immediately after the church ceremony.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Keating of Milwaukee, Ke. and Mrs. S. H. Sutton of Cleveland, and Miss Gloria Jean Pearson of Walkerton, Ontario.

The bride's mother wore a dark blue street length dress with sequin hat. The groom's mother chose a dark green dress with brown accessories. Both wore white orchid corsages.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrier are motoring to New York for their honeymoon. After their return they will reside in Detroit.
