

Along The Creek In Woodcreek

Kyle McCarthy celebrated her sixth birthday with a Halloween party on October 30. Her guests included Linda Lang, Terry and Laurel Lang, Charles Dynda, Craig Smith, Pam and Nancy Weedon and Vera Blanchfield. All the children came in Halloween costumes and bobbed for apples, played "Button, Button," and other Halloween games.

Kyle's two brothers, Brian and Danny, assisted with the party and enjoyed refreshments with the guests.

On Monday after school Charles Dynda had a Halloween dinner for the same group of children with exciting games and prizes. After the dinner and play, Dick Norwall took Charles Dynda, Dan and Brian McCarthy and Dennis Eynon to the Alfred Smith's children's Halloween party in Royal Oak.

Den 7 of the Cub Scouts held its first November meeting under a new Den Mother, Ruth McCarthy, on Saturday, November 5. Because Den 7 is going into the Webelos rank, they have been assigned charge of the B-11 Pack flag and the Pack's American flag by Cubmaster John Lockner. They have also been assigned the duty of building and painting a standard for the Pack flag and getting a pole and standard for the American flag. After the business meeting on the Den was completed, the boys left for a tour of Mr. McCarthy's plant and to work on their monthly Pack project of "America the Beautiful" at the art studio. Den 7 Cubs, who consist of Dennis Eynon, Ken Kreider, Gil Preuss, Larry LeSage and Brian McCarthy, are working on montage posters of America.

Terry and Linda Lang celebrated their seventh and sixth birthdays, respectively, on Sunday, November 6. Their father, Harry, planned and supervised a regular Marine Camp-Out for the two children and their guests at the Lang, Sr.'s, farm in Rochester. Back in the woods behind the farm itself Harry built a log cabin when he was in high school, and he took Terry and Linda, Charlie Dynda, Pam and Nancy Weedon, Brian, Dan and Kyle McCarthy, and David Seay to the cabin for the afternoon and cooked hamburgers out in the woods for them — a la-Marine.

Sympathy is extended to the Robert Bieker family. Their infant daughter passed away in the William Beaumont Hospital. Mrs. Bieker, now at home, especially wants to thank all the friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness. Betty Mereshak cared for the home and the Biekers' three school children until their mother returned home.

Dinner guests of the Eric Janos last Sunday were Mr. Clyde Thompson and Mr. Jack Smith of Highland Park.

The Fred Missals of Valley Road were hosts to the Poker Club of Woodcreek on November 3.

Den 9 Cub Scouts from the Woodcreek area, under the direction of Barbara Reader, are working on the "America the Beautiful" project for November.

On October 29 Mrs. Reader took the Cubs on a trip to the Northwest fire station. They learned about the fire engine and fire protection by talking to Chief Bell.

On November 2 the boys visited the Farmington Township offices. They were interested in the maps of the township and located points of interest on it. Supervisor Ernest Blanchard told them about the duties of township officers. Then they went to the police station. The officers there explained their duties and about the F-B-I.

To complete the long tour, Mrs. Reader took the Cubs to the Children's Hospital. The staff showed them through the rooms there. Mrs. Reader and Den 9, consisting of Roy Steyskal, Zar Reader, Charles Dynda and Dan McCarthy and Richard Fellrath wish to thank all for the courtesy shown to them on the visits.
