FARC Plans Adult Basketball League

Plans are now being made for the organization of a men's adult basketball league under the sponsorship of the Farmington Area Recreation Commission, Warren Piche, director, announced this week.

The league will consist of four teams composed of men 20 years of age and over. All games will be played on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. in the district High School gymnasium on Thomas Street. According to Piche, this is the first attempt by the Commission to develop an adult league during the winter months.

There will be an entry fee of $10.00 per team, as a forfeit fee. Teams without forfeits will receive half of the fee back. Game balls, jerseys and registered officials will be provided by the Recreation Commission.

Anyone interested in forming a team should contact Warren Piche at K14000-47256 or direct letter to the Farmington Junior High School, 33000 Thomas Street, Farmington, Michigan.

School Board

(Continued from Page 1A) closed that it is becoming extremely difficult to locate desirable sites in areas of development where schools will be needed in the future.

Authorization was granted by the School Board to proceed with efforts to obtain an option on a site, approximately six acres in size, northwest of Kendallwood Subdivision No. 1. Negotiations for other sites will continue.

Bids were opened from contractors for the laying of sewer and drain tile for the new high school athletic field at the site of the new school on Shiawassee. After discrepancies were found between the specifications and blue prints for the project, all bids were rejected.

New bids will be accepted for the project as soon as the discrepancies have been rectified.

The next regular meeting of the School Board will be held on Tuesday, December 6, instead of on the regularly scheduled date of Monday, December 12. It was indicated that the regular meeting of the Board on the fourth Monday of the month would also be moved up or cancelled due to the approaching Christmas holiday season.

Students To Fill

On Tuesday, December 6, at 6:00 p.m. the student officers will join officials as guests of the Farmington Kiwanis Club at its regular dinner meeting in the Salem Evangelical Church.

Widows linger on, but widowers are soon spoken for.

PRICE CYCLES RISE, FALL IN RELATION TO COUNTRY'S WARS

Today's prices are higher than they used to be. Our fathers said the same thing — so did their fathers. Prices have increased about fourfold during the past century.

Yet it would be a mistake to conclude that there is a natural and continuous tendency for prices to rise and that it is "contrary to nature" to hope for stable or falling prices in the future.

Actually all of the increase in price levels since 1820 occurred during four brief periods overlapping our major wars: 1861 to 1865; 1915 to 1920; 1940 to 1948; and 1950 to 1952. These periods represent only 14 out of the 124 years between 1820 and 1954. During the remaining 110 years, price trends either declined, were steady, or recovering from previous declines.

The Civil War was preceded by a 40 year period with no pronounced trend in the general price level. There were some fluctuations connected with speculative episodes and their aftermath, but in 1860 the price level was about where it had been in 1820.

The Civil War was followed by 30 years during which prices gradually declined from the peak reached at its close. The low point was reached in 1890. Thereafter prices began to rise, and by 1915 they had recovered to their 1865 level. Here is an example of 50 years with no net change either way in the general level of prices.

During World War I, and immediately following, the price level doubled. An abrupt drop occurred between 1920 and 1922. Thereafter prices remained relatively stable during the remainder of the 1920's. A further substantial decline occurred during the depression, followed by some recovery. The net change in price level between 1920 and 1940 was a decline of about 30 per cent.

Baptist Women Plan Yule Meeting

Officers of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church are busy with plans for their Christmas meeting which will be held Thursday, December 8, at 8:00 p.m.

Plans to present a special Christmas film, along with appropriate holiday music, were revealed by Mrs. Dietrich McFarland, program chairman.

The traditional exchanging of gifts and revealing of secret prayer partners will be one of the highlights of the evening of fellowship.

Following the program, refreshments will be served. An open invitation is extended to all interested women in the community to enjoy this holiday fellowship.

Township Board

(Continued from Page 1A) covering one-fourth of the property. A plat for the development of the property in the vicinity of Tack Road north of Shiawassee was referred to the Planning Commission for recommendations. The subdivision will consist of 469 lots on approximately 100 acres of land.

A request for the proposed rezoning of a parcel of land on the northwest corner of Northwestern Highway and Middlebelt Road was referred to the Planning Commission for study. The Township Board is expected to take action on the request following receipt of the report from the Planning Commission.

The Board authorized the hiring of an additional clerk to assist the Building Department. The Township Clerk was directed to advertise for applicants. Action was also taken allocating funds for the purchase of copies of the recently approved building code from the Building Officials Conference of America.

WE'RE LUCKY TOO--

We finally got the deer all put into the locker plant. It seems as tho this year it was a tough struggle. Could it be we are all gettin' older and it's jest a little harder to get things done? But I'm awful happy about one thing. Something new has been added. This week end we will have Land O Lakes butter fer 67c a lb. Now don't that make different readin'? Course there's nothin' different about our beef — it's all U. S. choice grade and you can get yerself a pot roast fer 39c a lb. If you'd rather have some sirloin steak we have that too fer 89c a lb. Now if the weather stays down where it is this Tuesday A.M. can you think of anything that would be gooder than a pot of stew with some dump-lin's? This boneless stew beef is 69c a lb. and a large box of bisquick will be 39c. Then yuh can use the rest of the package fer pancakes some mornin' with a package of Mickleberry's breakfast sausage what will be 59c a lb. — or if you'd rather there's some Morrell sliced bacon fer 43c a lb. If yer interested we have our same old calendars in agin this year and we will be givin' them out this week end. Wanna tell you somethin' else too. We had a very glowing experience this mornin'. We saw some people park their cars in the lot across the street and go uptown. It's like we said — why park on gravel when there's nice hard top so close by — aint it?
