Dancers To Entertain Town Club December 1

The Farmington Town Club will meet on Thursday, December 1, at 8 p.m. at the Universalist Church.

Christmas and winter scenes will be depicted in dances by 25 children from the "Minuet Dance Studio." The children performing will be from various age groups.

Hostess for the meeting will be Mrs. Robert Clarke. She will be assisted by Mrs. James Tennant, Mrs. Albert Herzog, Mrs. George Isley and Mrs. Roy Erdmann.

Lions Club Plans Children's Party

The Farmington Lions Club is making plans for a Christmas benefit party for children of this area. The help and cooperation of all Farmington area residents is asked to help make the party a highly successful one for the children.

Members of the local Lions Club will be taking donations at the Farmington State Bank and at the Bel-Aire Shopping Center to help raise funds to finance the party. Donations will be solicited on the week ends of December 2 and 3 and December 9 and 10.

On December 2 and 9 Lions will be on hand at both locations to accept donations from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. On December 3 and 10 donations will be solicited from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

All are asked to give generously to help make Christmas the happiest of all times for youngsters of Farmington.

ONE OF THE BUSIEST displays at the Our Lady of Sorrows Christmas Fair last week end was the Hammond Organ booth. Mrs. Kathleen A. Rogerson, 32211 Shawwassee, pictured at the extreme right in the background, was in charge of the display. Persons attending the Fair were invited to play both the Hammond Spinnet and Hammond Clerical organs on display. Mrs. Rogerson is employed by Grinnell Brothers, sponsors of the booth, as a teacher of piano and organ.

James Magon and his wife, Virginia, of Dearborn, will present a specialty dance. Mr. Morgan is known around Detroit and the suburban areas as Mr. Jim. He is an instructor with Mrs. Florence Young's School of Ballroom Dancing. He will bring from the Morgan Dances Studio a dance team to do a Parkian hi-kick number.

Town Club Plans French Program For Annual Buffet

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris of Drake Road will open their pink-colored recreation room to the Farmington Town Club members and their husbands on Saturday, December 3, for their annual Christmas Buffet.

This year the affair will take on a foreign air with the theme of the program to be "A Night in Paris." The walls will feature the "Eiffel Tower," "Dior's Fashion Shop," sidewalk bookstalls and the typical French sidewalk cafe. Background music of "Echos of Paris" will be played.

Food, following a French menu will be served on tables covered with typical checkered table cloths and candle light.

Entertainment will be provided by the Evelyn Kraszon Dance Studio. Judy Lathan, Judy Clappison and Meri Jo Marks will do the "can-can." From Royal Oak will come "Vi Vie," a French poedle which is noted as quite a personality and does a vaudeville act all her own. Her owner is Mrs. T. P. Summers. "Vi Vie" will give a Santa Claus act along with other entertaining numbers.

Chairman for the program is Mrs. Robert Cassell. Committee members are Mrs. Robert Clarke, Mrs. Floyd Cogswell, Mrs. John Perry, Mrs. Albert Herzog and Mrs. Duncan Carter.

Garden Club To Honor Past Presidents December 5

Former presidents of the Farmington Garden Club will be honored guests at the club's annual Christmas Tea on Monday, December 5, at the home of Mrs. W. J. Gardener.

Mrs. James Robertson will preside at the annual meeting of the group, which will start at 1 p.m. Following activity reports and the election of officers for the coming year, carols will be sung and the Christmas program and tea will follow.

Assisting the hostess, Mrs. Gardener, will be Mrs. Roger Walker and committee members Mrs. Paul Calkins, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Schaldenbrand, Mrs. G. F. Weaver and Mrs. Harley Walters.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Farmington Woman's Club will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. George Chocketts, 33306 Oakland, on Wednesday, December 7, at 2 p.m.

Postal Drivers Receive Awards

Safe driving award pins were presented this week to members of the Farmington Post Office driving on rural routes in the Farmington Postal area. The pins were presented by Postmaster Henry Trembley in recognition of the driver-carriers' successful and safe operation of motor vehicles while delivering mail.

Pins were presented to the following carriers: F. Hansen, one-year pin; Maurice Dever, two-year pin; Frank Forsey, five-year pin; and Rudolph Johnson, 16-year pin. Several other pins are to be awarded to other carriers as soon as they become available.

The total accident-free period represented by the entire force of the Farmington Post Office has now reached 94 years. Drivers presently employed have traveled about three-quarters of a million miles on their routes without an accident.
