WE DID IT AGIN:

We moved the stuff all around so now you can't find anything. It's confozoin' - but amozoin'! Anything you can't find when you drop by we will be glad to help you hunt for it. We really aren't all settled yet - but you know when you move that takes time and we hope by this week end we will be pretty well set up - but believe you me - we're tired - so this little hunk of stuff is gonna be short and to the point cause we aint thinkin' too straight either. First off in the pork department is some rib cut pork loin roasts fer 29c a lb. Then there's some pork sausage rolls fer yer breakfast eatin' at 29c a lb. If yer puttin' this around a pancake you'll need a lb. of Land O Lakes fer 67c. There's Pet and Carnation milk 2/25c too. Fer you people that have a locker or a home freezer we have a special on pork loins. If you buy the whole thing you can get it fer 45c a lb. This price includes the cutting and wrapping of it, too. Another thing we are sorry as heck about is that we let ourselves run out of our own hickory smoked bacon but if things go right it will be out of the smoke-house by this week end - you'll be able to tell cause you can smell the smoke. Now if you like lamb around your house and haven't had any for quite a spell this would be a good time to have it cause you can get a leg of lamb fer just 69c a lb. this week end. When you drop around don't forget to ask for your calendar if you haven't got it, will you?

School Committee Sets First Session

The first full meeting of the newly organized Citizens Advisory Committee of the Farmington Public Schools will be held Monday, December 12, at 8:00 p.m. at the high school building. School officials stated that seven civic and service organizations in the district have appointed representatives to the Committee. Letters have been mailed to all responding organizations advising them of the date and place of the meeting. It is expected that the meeting of the groups contacted will have representatives appointed by December 12.

In a letter to the various organizations, officials stated that the first meeting is being called to discuss preliminary items regarding the proposed construction of a new Farmington high school building. It is also hoped that definite plans can be made for a study of the proposed building needs.

Officials emphasized that the District can not afford to delay action on this problem for long. They added that unless new facilities can be provided by 1957, half-day sessions will probably be required. The new committee is being formed to assist the School Board with the preliminary study and planning of a new high school building to be constructed on the west side of Middlebelt, across from the present high school.
