Students Picked For League Band

Clarenceville students participating in the Wayne - Oakland County League Band consist of the following: Dan Vargo, clarinet; Barbara Schmidt, flute; Don Melton, baritone saxophone; Charles Meyer, French horn; Tom Wilson, trumpet; Mike Keller, trumpet; and Roger Hapelle, tuba.

Several Clarenceville High School members went to Milford, January 7 and tried out for the band. The number in the W. O. C. L. Band was set lower this year than last, so the competition was much greater. As a result, there should be an even finer band. Two more rehearsals of the all-league band will be held.

Concerts by the band will be given on February 1 in Milford, February 9 at Holly, and February 13 at Northville. Everyone is invited to attend. The nine band directors of the league will each conduct one number in the program. The highlight of the evening will be the playing of the selection "Victory at Sea," arranged by Bennett.

DEBATE SEASON ENDS: FORENSIC PROGRAM TO START

The last league debate of the season was held at Holly on January 10. The Clarenceville negative had a very close contest with the Clarkston affirmative in the first round, but Clarkston took the home in the end. Now that the league debate season is over, speech students are concentrating their efforts on the Spring Forensics program.

The five categories in which they can enter are: Declamation, a memorization and the oral interpretation of speech written and delivered by someone else; Interpretive Reading, reading a cutting from a one-act or full length play or a dramatic scene from a novel or a dramatic declamation; Humorous Reading, reading and interpretation of humorous selections; Extemporaneous Speaking, speaking from a given topic of current interest with an hour's preparation time; and Original Declamation, original speech not more than 1500 words in length.

The local finals will be held sometime around February 25 and the league finals on March 24. Any students interested in joining this activity should see Miss Anderson.

Along The Creek In Woodcreek

RETTE MERESHAK MA. 6-3135

The Woodcreek Men's Association will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, January 26, at the home of Robert Bieker, 28509 Eastbrook Court, corner of Wellington Road. The new officers, who were elected by the board of directors, will take over their duties for the year 1956. They are as follows: Harry Lang, president; Mel Bieker, vice-president; Andy Dynda, secretary; Alex Kennedy, treasurer. The board is comprised of the officers plus three additional members, who are: Alvin Clark, M. E. Iltis and Leon Taylor.

Besides our neighbor, Verne Fisher, who is now a member of the Farmington School Board, four junior Woodcreekers took part in the Open House at Eagle School on Thursday, January 12. They were Dennis Seay, Henri Horton, Karen Johnson and Brian McCarthy, who played in the school band under the direction of Lloyd Smith.

Shirley Collier of Beech Hill Road had a wonderful respite from diapers and formulas recently when hubby Elson spirited her away to a downtown hotel for a "little vacation." They went to see several shows and visited the Artists' Market and saw the Ice Show at the Stadler Hotel as well as just having fun in general.

The Colliers recommend it highly as a mid-winter moral-builder. Of course, a vote of thanks goes to the competent "grandma," babysitter, who makes a jaunt like this possible.

The John Mereshaks of Eastbrook Court and the Amy Langs of Old Colony Road enjoyed a chicken dinner and dancing at the George F. Monaghan K. of C. Hall on Leisure at Grand River. The dinner was sponsored by the Sorrows Parish, Credit Union.

The Biekers of Eastbrook Court also enjoyed a dancing week end. They attended the Rotary Club dinner dance at the Detroit Country Club.

The Overmeyers, former Woodcreek residents, entertained the poker club at their beautiful inside home on Lower Straits Lake last Thursday. Seven Woodcreek couples braved the icy roads to attend.

"Pirates and Hidden Treasure" was the theme for the Cub Scout meeting this month under the direction of Den Mother Emily Dynda. The boys of Pack 11, Den 8, enjoyed a movie last Saturday entitled "Strange Voyage," at the Dynda home. The Cubs also proved quite competent at carving pirate pistols out of wood.

The Harry Langs returned last Sunday from an enjoyable week end spent at the Boyne Mountain Ski Club near Boyne City, Michigan.

The Little Sewing group which held its last meeting at the home of Ed Syron is happy to announce that one of its members, has presented "pappa" Harry with a bouncing baby girl. Gayle Ann.

Cub Scout Pack 109 Plans Banquet

Cub Pack 109 will hold its annual Blue and Gold Pot Luck Banquet on February 2 at the high school cafeteria. Merit awards will be presented on this special occasion which commemorates the founding of the Scout movement. All members of the Pack and their families are invited to attend. A "Surprise Program" is in store for those present. Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller will lead the group in community singing.

A group of Cubs from Pack 109 made and painted wooden blocks which they took to the children at the Mayburg Sanatorium in Northville during the month of December.

Den 8 of Cub Pack 109 enjoyed a visit to the National Guard Armory on January 2. Mr. Trudeau and Mr. and Mrs. Stephan Santo accompanied the boys on their outing.

A Den Mother training course will begin on February 1. Details will be revealed shortly.
