

PVT. WILLIAM PARK MEMBER OF CHAMP ARMY CAGE TEAM

Army Pvt. William H. Park, son of Harry Park of 11405 Ingram Livonia, is a member of the company-level basketball champions at Camp Pieri, Germany. It was disclosed this week by the Army public relations office.

Private Park's team represents the 68th Chemical Smoke Generator Company.

Park, a smoke generator operator, entered the Army in September, 1954, and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. He was stationed at Fort McClellan, Alabama, before arriving in Europe in November, 1955.

The twenty-year-old soldier attended Michigan State Normal College before entering the Army.

LEAGUE PLAY DAY HELD BY G. A. A. AT FARMINGTON

An inter-Lakes G. A. A. Play Day was held at Farmington High school on Saturday, January 21. The schools that were invited were: Walled Lake, Waterford, Southfield, Van Dyke, Berkley and Farmington.

They arrived about 1:30 p.m., all set to play four games of volleyball.

F. H. S.'s name tag committee presented each girl with a colored pennant bearing the girl's name, school, and which team they were to play on.

Refreshments were served following the games.

Later in the year another Inter-Lakes Play Day will be held at one of the other schools.

Along The Creek In Woodcreek
BETTY MERESHAK MA. 6-3135

The Woodcreek Men's Civic Association met Thursday at the home of Robert Bieker. More than thirty members attended. The main topic of discussion was incorporation. It was decided that a joint meeting of the men and women be held sometime in February to make definite decisions on the matter. The date of the meeting will be announced later. Delicious refreshments were served by hostess June Bieker, with Jimmy Swift and Alleyne Kinney assisting.

Elizabeth Ann Mereshak of Eastbrook Court was hostess to two of her classmates from Madonna College for a three-day between-semester vacation.

The guests were Dolores Pepera of Manistac and Agnes Witkowski of Niagara Falls, New York. Shopping, skating, dancing and tobogganing helped to erase the strain of final exams.

Calling all Woodcreekers who have a yen to swing their partners and 1954-55, country style. This is your chance to learn. A new class for beginners in square dancing is starting at the Eagle School. The first session will be held on Saturday, February 9, at 8:30 p.m. in Room 13-14. Call Miss Jackie Irvin at MA. 6-1259 for further information. Norman and Angela Sney of Village Lane will help teach the class.

Sarah Horton of Wellington Road was queen for a day last Saturday when 12 of her little friends helped her celebrate her ninth birthday. The guests included Linda Davenport, Elise Johnson, Susie Horton, Jeanne Renfrew, Candy Hanfield and Janet Lam. The children were delighted by the Valentine theme. After lunch, all played Bingo. Mrs. Bobbie Davenport helped Dottie with the preparations.

The next regular meeting of the Woodcreek Women's Association will be held on Tuesday, February 7, at the home of Job Thureson, 2786 Old Colony Road. All are asked to make a special effort to attend as an extra-large supply of pads are to be seen.

The Harry Eymans of Wellington Road, who left for Florida on December 26, are now back home in Woodcreek. They dropped down and spent two weeks with Harry's folks in St. Petersburg. The senior Eymans are planning to make St. Petersburg their permanent home. They spent the rest of the time in Miami. Denis accompanied his parents on the trip.

Dop Horton enjoyed a stag ski party last week end in Cadillac.

Mrs. John Mereshak of Eastbrook Court was hostess to eight ladies last Thursday night. They were planning the decorations for a Valentine card party, sponsored by the Altar Society, on February 10 at Our Lady of Sorrows Parish Hall.

Mrs. Arthur Thureson entertained six couples, old friends (from Detroit) at a dinner party Saturday night.

Retired folk and younger ones who have so much more leisure time after work, make a $19,000-000 business for just one American playing card company, with the number of bridge, canasta and poker fans growing all the time.

Nursery School To Start Second Session Shortly

The Mayfair Cooperative Nursery, operating at the Forest Hills United Missionary Church, Twelve Mile east of Orchard Lake Road, will begin a second session of classes soon, it was disclosed this week.

The session will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays each week from 9:15 to 11:45 a.m. The first session of nursery school children is now meeting on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays during the same hours.

Parents desiring their children to attend a nursery school two days of the week may now enroll for the second session of the nursery school. Registrations are being accepted by Mrs. Ruth Clark, registration chairman, at EL. 6-2936.

Recently children in the three- to five-year age group in the first nursery class visited a nearby turkey farm and drug store. Future plans call for visits to a fire station and to a nearby airfield to watch planes take off and land.

Last week children in the nursery school were visited by a real Alaskan sled dog, brought to the school by teacher Anne Wehner. All children have been promised a dog sled ride.

In connection with the nursery school, an adult education series will be offered. Participating parents will have an opportunity to hear a talk on present school children by Mrs. N. Norquise on February 27. Future plans call for lectures to be given and discussions conducted on child psychology.

Obituary

Mrs. Cornelia Piron
Mrs. Cornelia Piron of 33205 Orchard Street, Farmington, died suddenly on Tuesday, January 24, 1956, in Trenton, Illinois, the daughter of Fred and Barbara Whitmore Krause. She attended school in Trenton and on June 17, 1925, was united in marriage to Ferdinand Piron in O'Fallon, Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. Piron had lived in Farmington for the past twenty years.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, January 28, at 1:00 p.m. from the Thayer Funeral Home with Dr. Alfred P. Fendon of Redford Calvary Methodist Church officiating. Interment took place in Glen Eden Memorial Cemetery.

Surviving besides Mr. Piron are a son, Milford E. and a daughter, Rita, both of Farmington. She also leaves her father, Fred Krause of Shilo; two sisters, Mrs. Viola Kiecker of Shilo and Mrs. Olivia Pezzio of Redford, and one grandson.

Memoracy is a small hard core of common agreement, surrounded by a rich variety of individual differences.
