A group of short plays was presented on Sunday, January 22, by the Mercy College Children's Theatre Workshop at Mercy's McAuley Auditorium under the direction of Barbara Brien of 450 Golden Gate.

Among the student directors for the plays was Marilyn Walker of 33801 State Street in Farmington. The plays presented included "The Selfish Giant," "Bliss Samba," "The Bird Court," and "A New Home for Mice." All were original adaptations for the stage made by student directors. The staging, scenery and costumes were projects of the workshop.

Suburban Nitters
Hear Talk On CD

The Suburban Nitters met last week at the home of Mrs. Sue Gatter on Middlebelt Road and heard a talk by Mrs. Mary Hershey of Southfield, Civilian Defense Director for that area.

A meeting with another extension group is now being planned to see a film presented by Civilian Defense in the community. It is hoped by the Suburban Nitters that more interest can be instilled in Civilian Defense work.

Those in attendance at the last meeting of the Suburban Nitters were: Mrs. Verla Reynolds, Mrs. Mary Paul, Mrs. Marion Bloom, Mrs. Mary Bryant, Mrs. Marion Lee, Mrs. Evelyn Durham, Mrs. Frances Ship, Mrs. Lou Norton and Mrs. Betty William. Next meeting of the group will be held on February 13, at the home of Mrs. Mary Paul on Nine Mile Road.

Friends Of Library
Meet January 24

The Farmington Friends of the Library organization held its annual meeting on January 24 in the library of the senior high school.

After President S. H. Kosmieski introduced the board members of the membership, each board member reported on a specific phase of the past year's activities and accomplishments.

Wendell Brown and Howard Warner were re-elected to the board for another term.

The program committee was particularly complimented for the fine speakers brought to Farmington during the past year. The forthcoming meeting on February 8, with Dr. Louis A. Warren, Lincoln authority, as speaker, was also discussed.

Election of officers will be held at the next regular meeting.

Measurements of a pan, as given in recipes, are for the top inside dimensions of the pan. Depth is the vertical depth — not the length of a sloping side.

Shiawassee School
Open House Draws
Approximately 350

Open house and dedication ceremonies were held at the Shiawassee School Wednesday evening, January 25. During the course of the evening, approximately 350 parents attended the program.

School Principal Ronald Jackson was chairman of the program which was entitled "A Building Becomes an Educational Institution."

The elementary school band opened the program, offering several selections under the direction of Lloyd Smith. Greetings were extended by Douglas Hamill, Board of Education trustee and O. E. Dunkel, superintendent of schools.

"Boys and Girls Make a Better School," was discussed by Gary Blome, Safety Patrol Captain. Introduction of the sixteen teachers of the Shiawassee School were made by Miss Doris Lachmann. The student enrollment of the school is 557.

Miss Minnie Ziekle, elementary coordinator, spoke on "Meeting the Needs of a Well-Rounded Program," and Mr. James Read, assistant superintendent, spoke on "Our Building Serves Many Purposes."

Thomas Westerlin, president of the Parent Teachers Association, gave a short address on "Parents Are Important."

The newly-formed P. T. A., which meets on the first Wednesday of the month, now has a total of 114 members, reported Mrs. DeForest Walton, membership chairman.

The Shiawassee P. T. A. will combine with the Middlebelt, Noble, and William Grace groups for a joint Founders' Day celebration on Monday, February 5, at the Farmington Senior High School cafeteria. Reservations may be obtained by calling GR. 4-6069.

Keep meals simple. Too many dishes and a great choice among vegetables and relishes when served with several desserts often result in over-eating. MSU food specialists say a huge variety at any one meal is in poor taste in these modern times.

A total of 33 members were installed in the choir. The ceremony opened in the regular manner with the presentation of the American flag to the East, followed by the reciting of the pledge of allegiance. The altar, after which the invocation was given by Reverend Russell Sursaw of the Methodist Church.

Eagle School Brownies
Make Gift For Hospital

Brownie Group No. 3 of Eagle School, under the direction of Mrs. Wade Brown, recently made a gift and presented it to the Children's Hospital in Farmington. The gift was a clown filled with popcorn, with life savers making up the eyes, nose and mouth.

The group is now busy making feeding strings for wild birds, who probably appreciate the efforts with the extreme cold and hard winter in this area.

Justice has nothing to do with expediency. Justice has nothing to do with any temporary standard whatsoever. It is rooted and grounded in the fundamental instincts of humanity.

BETHEL BAPTIST
WOMEN TO HEAR
MISSIONARIES

The Women's Missionary Society of the Bethel Baptist Church will meet Thursday, February 2, at 8:00 p.m. at the Bethel Church at 21405 Farmington Road.

A special speaker, Mrs. Arthur Saunders, will be heard. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders were missionaries in China for 25 years. Mrs. Saunders is now a teacher of Chinese students at the University of Michigan.

Devotions for the evening will be given by Mrs. M. Larry. An invitation is extended to all ladies who wish to attend.
