The father of Mrs. Res Plewes of Millbrook Drive, Mr. Harry Wilson of Windsor, Ontario, died recently.
 The Roy Nelsons returned last Monday from a vacation in Camp Charlevoix. Together with five other couples, they were guests of Ken and Ruby Smith, owners of the camp.
 A midnight smelt fishing party was one of the highlights of their trip. The little stream running through the camp is fed by Lake Charlevoix and provided the party with an abundant catch.

Obituary
 Alice S. Smith
 Mrs. Alice Scott Smith died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donald B. Sutherland of 23072 Floral Avenue, Farmington, on Friday, May 4, following an extended illness.
 Mrs. Smith was born November 6, 1870, in Greenup, Kentucky; the daughter of Henry K. and Elizabeth Wingate Smith. She had resided in Farmington for the past eight years.
 Mrs. Smith rested at the Thayer Funeral Home until Saturday morning when her remains were shipped to Owenton, Kentucky, where funeral services took place at 2 p.m. Sunday from the Redding-Spither-Kemper Funeral Home with interment in the Owenton Cemetery.
 Surviving besides her daughter are four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
