Top Department Awards Presented

Fourteen F.H.S. students were awarded medals of merit for their outstanding work at the annual Honors Assembly held Thursday in the high school.

The American Legion senior citizenship awards were given to Lois Ayres and Bill Landacre.

The English Department award was given to Bill Fulton for his original writings.

Alice Langford and Gerald Wheeler were recipients of the art award for their ability and originality in that field.

The math award was presented to Louis Desmetik for his high scholastic average.

Nick Spicer and Barbara Place received the foreign language awards for their interest and work in that department.

Alice Langford was recipient of the Social Science award. Alice's work was climaxed during the student government campaign.

Music awards were given for both vocal achievement and instrumental application. Carlene Daniels and Frank Hilder were recipients of these awards respectively.

The girls' athletic award was given to Mary Ann Ohman for her application in athletics.

Marty Wallace received the shop award for his fine work in industrial arts.

The Home Ec. award was given to Mary Lowe for her work in the home economics department.

STUDENT WINNERS IN FRENCH, SPANISH EXAMS ANNOUNCED

Barbara Place, junior, won the plaque for the best score on the National French Exam at Farmington Senior High, and "Christy" Abelen took second place.

The exam, given nationally April 18 and 19, consisted of two parts, written and oral.

The Spanish classes took a state sponsored exam May 2 and 3. Judy Cook had the best score in Spanish 11, and George Carter topped all Spanish 1 students.

This was the first year the Spanish exams were given in Michigan.

The best papers have been submitted to a state committee for comparison with papers from all parts of Michigan. The results of the state competition will be announced the latter part of this month.

Miss Bastionelli was pleased with the results, but commented, "The French test was a much better composed test."

Biology Students Take Field Trip To Kent Lake

Last Monday, May 7, the Biology I. class took a field trip to Kent Lake.

The students, supervised by Mr. Donald Howell, studied some animal life.

The May 7 trip was the third one taken this year. The fourth and final one was taken Tuesday, May 15.

F.H.S. GIRLS' STATE DELEGATES BOTH ACTIVE IN SCHOOL

Jane Boyce and Judy Hoofnagle were the two junior girls selected to represent F. H. S. at Wolverine Girls' State.

Both girls have participated extensively in school activities and both hold a high scholastic average.

Jane Boyce, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, was a freshman cheerleader and S. C. representative for two years. She is a member of the Language Club, secretary for G. A. A., and member of the Y-Teens, besides taking an active part in class committees.

Judy Hoofnagle, sponsored by the Junior and Senior High P. T. A., is active in Y-Teens and Language Club. She was a cheerleader in her freshman and junior years.

The girls will take part in the student government organization at the University of Michigan.

The alternates are Alice Lancaster and Barbara Place.

G.A.A. Concludes Spring Softball Game Play

Softball games played this week will be the last of the G.A.A. spring season.

At next week's G. A. A. meeting a competitive track meet will be held against the junior high school.

At the meeting on Wednesday, May 9, Landacre downed Martin 14-3 in softball. Lois Leach, who is recovering from being hit by a baseball at one of the varsity games, scored three homers for Landacre's team.

The second game was won, 3-2 by Spicer over Scully.

Both Lancaster and Dunn had to forfeit in the third game.

Melanie Elm hit two runs for Droz's team to help defeat White 5-3.

Legion Essay Winners Honored

F. H. S. students who received top honors in the American Legion Auxiliary Essay contest, conducted by the various English classes, were Bill Fulton, senior; Sue Ellen Hynes, Pam Chapman and Mary Duffee, sophomores; Sibyl-Lange, Nan Williams and John McCamy, freshmen.

Along with winning the local contest, Sibyl Lange, Nan Williams and John McCamy, contestants in the Junior Division, also won honors in the district contest.

Sue Ellen Hynes was the only entry in the Senior Division from Farmington to win in the district contest.

The district winners will now go on to state competition.

1. The dress policy set up by the student and teacher committee was approved and will go into effect next September.

2. The students who are not going on the senior trip will be excused from school Friday, June 1. There will be no school for seniors June 11, the day following Baccalaureate.

3. The faculty decided there will be no exams for seniors.

4. Next year's homecoming meetings will be held each Wednesday morning, first hour. First, second, and third hours will be short ended each Wednesday.

5. Five and a half million small fry were enrolled in kindergartens this year, a 40% increase over 1950.

Journalism Meeting Scheduled May 24

The F. H. S. Journalism class will visit the Ann Arbor News on Monday, May 21.

The group will leave the Senior High at 11:45 and return at 3:00 p.m.

A complete tour through the building will be conducted as in the past.

Highlight of the visit will be the witnessing of the regular press run of the News.

Mr. Lee S. Peel, journalism instructor, will accompany the group.

Seventy out of Michigan's 83 counties are now served by full-time local health departments, and over nine out of ten Michigan people live in areas which support the year-round public health and safety campaigns.

Journalism Class To Visit Ann Arbor News

All sophomores and juniors who have signed up for next year's Journalism class will meet Thursday, May 24, in Room 201-B at 3 p.m.

A written exercise will be given to help determine which students qualify for the class. Other determining factors to be considered are academic record, attendance record, and school citizenship reputation.

LINEN CARE

Take good care of those summer linen suits and dresses. Linen is 20 per cent stronger when wet than dry, so it is machine washable using soap or syndet in water that is 160 degrees for white and 120 to 140 degrees for colored. Use no bleach. Iron lines on the wrong side with a hot iron.
