MR. and MRS. CHARLES WALKER

W. Coolman, D. Walker
Exchange Wedding Vows

Bouquets of white gladioli and carnations formed a beautiful background at the altar of the Farmington Methodist Church late in April when Wanda Mae Coolman exchanged marriage vows with Richard Charles Walker.

Wanda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Coolman of 20418 Shadyside, Livonia, and Richard the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker of 9432 American, Detroit.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chintilly lace with a fingertip veil held in place by a tiara of seeded pearls. Her only jewelry, a single strand of pearls, was a gift of the groom. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and streamers of ivy and stephanotis.

Attending her sister as maid of honor, Ruth Ann Coolman wore a light pink tiered net gown with a matching picture hat and carried a fan bouquet of pink sweethearts roses. Bridesmaids were Gweneth Schmidt, niece of the bride, and Virginia Schmidt, sister of the bride. Their gowns were of the same style as the maid of honor in yellow and light blue, respectively, with hats and fan bouquets of sweethearts roses to match.

James Walker assisted his brother as best man. Ushering the guests to their seats were Larry Walker, brother of the groom, and Hugh Hammerstrom. Assisting their aunt as flower girls, Deane Sue and Paula Lee Roberts wore gowns of white nylon over light orchid and mint green tulle respectively and carried nosegays of yellow baby sweethearts roses. Eddie Roberts, nephew of the bride, and dressed identically to the groom, acted as ringbearer completing the wedding party.

Clarence Juhnke sang "Allways," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Edith Stone, during the wedding ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Coolman wore a floor length gown of rose lace with iridescent brown accessories. Mrs. Walker wore a floor length gown of light blue tulle and lace with light blue accessories. Each mother wore a purple orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement for the 400 guests present. A beautiful four-tiered cake flanked by candelabras centered the serving table.

Following the reception a buffet dinner was served to 200 close friends and relatives at the home of the bride's parents.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Aland on May 25. The new baby weighed eight pounds one ounce at birth and was named Sheila Mae. Her sister, Cheryl Lyn Aland, celebrated her second birthday on Friday, June 1.

Children need love, especially when they do not deserve it.

Tour Of Local Gardens
Planned For June 12

A special free tour of several gardens in the Farmington area has been planned for Tuesday, June 12 by the Farmington Garden Club. The homes and gardens selected for the tour will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Each home and garden selected is reported as having numerous interesting features and will be open for neighborly visits. Persons may visit any or all residences during the hours mentioned. Garden Club officials pointed out.

The gardens which are to be open are as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hickey, 38020 Nine Mile Road. The home is a remodeled farm house over 100 years old. The gardens have approximately 200 varieties of the tall bearded iris, and also a pool enclosed by a stone wall. The house will also be open.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eichler, 34703 Nine Mile Road. This is also a beautifully landscaped yard and perennial garden, featuring iris and roses.

Mrs. Elmer Dohany, 28425 Eight Mile Road. Mrs. Dohany's yard features flowering trees and shrubs, also iris and other perennials.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. Holman, 27590 Spring Valley Drive. The Holman garden is a new one which has only been in a year. It is a great inspiration to new gardeners, especially people who have new homes. The house is designed for modern country living and has a new living kitchen and family room. The home, as well as the garden, will be open the day of the tour.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Spicer, 24915 Farmington Road. This is a beautiful English house, not a ranch type, with beautiful natural landscaping and perennial beds, and a gorgeous view. The house will also be open.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mills, 24300 Locust Drive. This is a French Provincial house built in 1924 by Marcus Burrows, an architect of some renown. The home features beautiful trees and a lovely view.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, 7395 Drake Road. This is a most interesting place to spend hours browsing through the greenhouses, viewing the lovely house plants and many varieties of rare tropical plants as well as the beautiful garden plants and shrubs.

It is hoped that a large crowd will take advantage of the free tour and enjoy a neighborly visit with the proud gardeners. Garden Club officials stated.

IT'S A GIRL

A baby girl, named Cynthia Jane, was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stillman of San Francisco, California. Mrs. Stillman is the former Jane Leach of Farmington.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Mary Ellen Wilson, a teacher at the Farmington Senior High School, to Ronald W. Farrow, Farmington Policeman, was disclosed last week. Miss Wilson, a graduate of Michigan State Normal College, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Wilcox of Romeo, Michigan. Mr. Farrow, a graduate of Pontiac High School, is the son of William J. Farrow of Whitestone, New York.

Open House To Be Held
For Retiring Teacher

An open house will be held on Thursday, June 14, for Mabel Harrison, who will retire at the end of this year from her teaching duties as a first grade instructor at the Bond Elementary School.

The open house will be held at the home of Mrs. Alfred Benson at 30725 Twelve Mile Road between the hours of 3 and 5 p.m. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

Mabel Harrison began as an instructor at the Bond School in 1944 and has rendered continuous service there since that time. She will leave shortly after school is out for her home in Cortland, New York.

The American Red Cross last year issued over 1,000,000 certificates to persons who successfully completed its water safety course, and nearly 700,000 certificates to those who completed the Red Cross First Aid training course.
