Anyone registered to bowl in the Bel-Air Hills bowling leagues this fall who has not paid the registration fee is asked to do so as soon as possible. Anyone who has signed up and has decided not to bowl in the league is asked to notify the secretary, Betty Powe, as others are waiting and the teams are being made up.

A baby girl, Terry Lynn, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Denny Taylor of Morbidehead. The baby was born June 20 at Sinal Hospital in Detroit, and weighed seven pounds eight ounces. The Taylors have another daughter, Kendall.

Maureen O'Connor celebrated her seventh birthday on Saturday, July 7, with a party. Games were played and cake and ice cream were served. Guests included Maureen's sister, Karen, Mary and Freddie Phillips, Judy, Johnny and Billy Vinson, and Pamela Nelson. Maureen's grandmother, Mrs. Rita O'Connor, of Detroit, also attended. Later in the evening Maureen's cousins, George and Jimmie Ferranti, and her godparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Corona, visited her.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. Klopstein of Folkestone spent two weeks at Jolly Roger Hotel in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Mrs. Schekora and three children, Kathy, Chris and Bernice, of Ellis Court, left by train last Sunday to visit Mrs. Schekora's mother in Pennsylvania. They will be away for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Theisen held a pizza party at their home last Saturday evening. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. John Lynott, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hamann.

A large house-warming party was given Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hill last Saturday night by Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. W. Hill. About 60 guests attended.

Mrs. William Cogswill entertained seven members of her bridge club Tuesday evening. Among those present were Mrs. Stanley Thorpe and Mrs. Charles Brown. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown honored Mrs. Brown's brother, William Cogswill, on his birthday Wednesday with a family dinner at their home.

Gerry Preiner had a birthday get-together Wednesday. Mrs. Preiner gave him a party and invited near neighbors Jim Hampton and George Habicht over to help him celebrate.

On Sunday the Hampton family and McCane family split together for a potluck barbecue on the Hampton's back patio. Dinner guests at the Hampton home Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Franklin Village.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nyland spent last week vacationing with Mrs. Nyland's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Dreydahl, at their cottage near Manistique in the Upper Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redwood entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wadsten, at a dinner out last Wednesday.

Helen Johnstone and two little friends, former neighbors of the Redwoods, called at their home recently. The Redwoods treated them by taking them to ride their ponies.

The beaver is the largest rodent in North America and second largest in the world. An adult beaver weighs 40 to 70 pounds with a few on record of nearly 100 pounds.

On the Fourth of July Mr. and Mrs. Allen Heyn of Green Willow Road entertained with an outdoor barbecue. Their guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Magrath of Dearborn, Dr. Elaine Hacker and Milan Petrovich.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Doetsch of Flint were week end guests at the Heyn home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Morley and their son, Ritcher, are spending two weeks touring through upper Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rystand of Green Willow Road spent a week in Mansfield, Ohio, visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hartman. On their return the Rystands stopped off at Columbus, Ohio, where they picked up their nephew, Jay Henry Mathew, and brought him back for a month's visit here. Jay is eight years old.

Mrs. Leo Timma of Green Willow Road entertained Mrs. H. E. Strand, Mrs. Fred Nawlund and Mrs. Douglas Atton at the box-lunch bridge held at the Farmington County Club on Wednesday afternoon, July 11.

Dr. Harold Vernon will preach each Sunday during the summer months at 9:00 a.m. in the Chapel at Boys Republic. His text for Sunday, July 22, will be "The Ministry of Man's Word to Man." Dr. Vernon will be out of the city for a few days of each week, but can be reached for emergencies by calling UN. 2-5139 or TE. 1-6167.

BLUEBERRIES

Half of the nation's total supply of blueberries comes to market in July, with the Michigan crop starting about the 15th of July and lasting through the first two weeks in September. The best time to freeze or can blueberries is during the four-week period between July 20 and August 20. Supplies will be best then, and prices most reasonable.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 258 HOLDS CAMP-OUT

Several members of Girl Scout Troop 258, along with Mrs. Reagan and Mrs. Leach, held an overnight camp-out at Kensington Park last Friday and Saturday. Some girls worked on their five-point program. They put up their tents and went swimming.

Some parents and families came out for supper. The early evening was spent playing ball. Activities were closed Friday evening with singing around a large camp fire.

Sharon Hanson, Mary Hultz and Lois Leach of Troop 258 left Sunday for Camp Narrin for a two-week stay. Returning home from the Senior Round-Up last week was Margo McClocklin. Among the adult workers helping at the Round-Up were Mrs. Reagan, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Barnum, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. McClocklin, Mrs. Fellows and Mrs. Leach.

Economy is half the battle of life; it is not so hard to earn money as to spend it wisely.

JOHN M. CLAPPISON

this question:

A fellow came around trying to buy my house . . . and the price he offered made me aware how my home has gone up in value, but my insurance has stood still. How can I estimate how much fire and extended coverage insurance to carry today?
