Local Girl Begins Stay At WYCO Camp Cavell

Dianne Perrin of 24000 Inkster Road was among a group of 97 girls arriving Saturday, July 14, at the WYCO's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron for the second two-week camping period to be conducted there this summer.

On hand to greet them were 71 girls remaining from among those who had attended the first camping session.

Horseback riding continues to be the most popular sport among the campers, with archery, tennis, fencing and swimming as close

Club Breakfast Held At Kent Lake

Members of the Botsford Garden Club and their friends enjoyed a breakfast at Kensington Park on July 8.

Following breakfast, a walk was taken along a "nature trail." Mrs. Martin named flowers and foliage along the way. On the trip home a stop was made at the home of Mrs. Day Tucker in Novi where a tour of her garden was made. Coffee and cookies were served by Mrs. Tucker.

The newly-organized club, under the leadership of Mrs. Anna Keller of Eight Mile Road, now boasts a membership of 22. Many projects are being planned by the group.

The garden tour to Fairlane was so much enjoyed that another is being planned for September 19. The August 13 meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Kay Tucker, 42390 Grand River, at 1 p.m. Dorothea Waack, Agatha Confield and Vivian Pound will act as co-hostesses.

Stamper, Petrosky Exchange Vows

Irene Stamper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stamper of 20221 Angling Road, and John Petrosky, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Petrosky, Sr., of 26723 Hemlock Street, were united in marriage on June 30.

The ceremony was performed at 2 p.m. in the Farmington Assembly of God Church with Rev. M. E. Hodgson of Birmingham officiating.

Mrs. Hodgson sang "The Lord's Prayer" while the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. He gave her in marriage while the "Wedding March" was played. The bride chose a snow-white ball gown with a full-length train and a lace cascading down the front and back, giving a painted effect of face. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls and sequined flowers scattered throughout.

The bride's sister, Alma Bowman, was maid of honor. She wore an ice-blue ball gown with a matching veiled hat. The groom was attended by Henry Stamper, Jr., brother of the bride. Both mothers chose light blue dresses decorated with pink carnations.

A reception was held at 8 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents for 88 guests. The newlyweds are now at home to their friends and relatives at 21811 Albion Street in Farmington.

Joan Chambers, J. Edgar Wed At Franklin Church

At a noon ceremony at the Franklin Community Church on Saturday, July 7, wedding vows were exchanged by Joan Chambers, daughter of 24536 Westmoreland Drive and James Beaufort Edgar, Jr., of Meadow Sweet Farms, Cortland, New York.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Robert J. Searls of the Franklin Church. The bride gown was fashioned of white, embroidered organza with a square neck, short sleeves and a bouffant ball gown length skirt. A fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a tangle of tiny seed pearls. White orchids and stephanotis adorned a white satin bag carried by the bride.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Linda Chambers. She wore a mint green dotted Swiss gown with a square neck and a bustle bow. She carried pink roses and pink-eyed daisies. Her headress was of matching flowers. Six-year-old Wendy Chambers, another sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a pink dotted Swiss dress and a headress of roses and daisies in pink.

Manfred Bernhard of Hermits Hill, New Hampshire, brother-in-law of the groom, served as best man.

A lawn reception, attended by 125 guests, was held at the home of the bride's parents. Among the out-of-town guests were friends and relatives from Pekskill, New York; Gillett, Wisconsin; Flint, Pontiac and Detroit, Michigan. A buffet supper was served on a patio gaily decorated in pink and white.

The bride's mother chose a light blue voile dress with white accessories, complimented by a pink rose corsage. The groom's mother wore a white dress.

Writers Invited To Conferences By Area Woman

Mrs. W. E. James of 20909 Onondaga Street, Farmington, is the Michigan area representative for two Writers' Conferences to be held in August of this year, both of which are open to any Michigan amateur or professional writer.

The first conference, a two-day affair, will be held in downtown Detroit at the Crowl-Miller store, August 24 and 25, with sessions from 10:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and a Friday session at 8:00 p.m.

Speakers will be editors, critics and agents, all tops in their respective fields. One speaker will be Leonard Turner, a well-known literary agent and a talent scout for several major publishers. After each lecture a period for discussion will follow.

The deadline for registration and for entering manuscripts in either the fiction or non-fiction categories will be July 25. For more information, interested persons are requested to call Mrs. James at GR. 4-0998. Sponsor is Orv. Lieberman, 1555 Luxor Road, Cleveland 18, Ohio.

The other conference for writers for which Mrs. James is Michigan chairman is the week-long Ohio Valley Writers' Conference in Marietta, Ohio, beginning on August 27. One may attend any number of days, but full-time conference receive priority in room reservations and personal conferences with professional writers.

There will be daytime classes, evening lectures and social hours, and writers will live in Fayerweather Hall. The deadline for registration and entry of manuscripts in the fiction and non-fiction contests is August 1. For further information about this conference writers should write to Staff Director, Ohio Valley Writers' Conference, Marietta, Ohio, or telephone Mrs. James.

Jean's Bel-Aire Beauty Salon To Open July 21

The new and ultra-modern Jean's Bel-Aire Beauty Salon at 24109 Orchard-Lake Road in the Bel-Aire Shopping Center will be open for business this Saturday, July 21.

Owner and manager of the new beauty establishment is Mrs. Jean Herron. Mrs. Herron is well known in the Farmington community, as she owned and operated a beauty parlor here for the past ten years. For the last five years she has operated from a shop at the corner of Grand River and Farmington Road in the main business district of Farmington.

The new and modern Bel-Aire shop will offer complete beauty and hair styling services. Mrs. Herron stated, "Five booths will be staffed by trained and qualified operators under her personal supervision. Mrs. Herron stated that she will continue to operate both shops, but will spend the major portion of her time in the new shop until everything is well organized and in smooth running order."

During the opening celebration at the new Bel-Aire Salon, free gifts will be given to all ladies stopping in for beauty and hair treatments. Jean stated:

Buxom Belles Club Forming Locally

The formation of a "Buxom Belles" Club branch in Farmington was disclosed this week. The club, appropriately named, is for overweight women who wish to reduce their weight and improve their beauty as a heavier group of people. The state-wide organization has offices in Detroit.

Seven members now belong to the local branch. It was revealed by Betty Peterson, and more members are being sought. Anyone wishing to join or obtain more information about the club is requested to call GR. 4-4850 or GR. 4-6818. Club meetings will be held in private homes until such time as the membership is large enough to warrant contracting for a public meeting place.

Speeches on fixing hair, grooming and other means by which larger ladies can improve their beauty will be given, Mrs. Peterson indicated. Appropriate movies will also be shown from time to time, she said.

Starting next week the club will be featured on the "Lady of Charm" show. The club is now making plans to have their own TV show in the Fall.
