

2 year around group camps) than any other county in Michigan, offering fine facilities for the development of youth, according to the Oakland County Planning Commission.