SPECIAL MILK PROGRAM POPULAR IN STATE SCHOOLS

Ninety-six per cent of Michigan's school districts took part in the federal government's special milk program last year. Michigan school children drank more than 73 million half pints of milk under the plan.

Without the system the milk might have been sold for non-fluid consumption, says Dale Butz, Michigan State University agricultural economist. And, he points out, that this would have meant a lower return for dairy farmers.

But children benefited nutritionally and they probably acquired a "milk habit" that will stay with them all their lives, Butz adds.

The school milk plan has recently been extended for another two years by Congress with only minor changes from last year. The government will reimburse the school three or four cents for each half pint served to children. When the school gets three or four cents depends on the type of hot lunch program provided. In return for the reimbursement, the school must reduce the price of milk to the children.

The school can be reimbursed for all fluid milk used in cooking, and all milk consumed by children, whether during regular school hours or not. This includes meetings, social events, and athletic contests.

Schools that have milk vending machines, and those that serve milk several times a day have the highest consumption rates.

Tardy, with Mrs. Elise Avery casting the only negative vote. The question was brought up before the Board following a discussion of the plan of Brook Hill Estates. It was pointed out that the Planning Board refused to take action on the plan because it was not presented in the form specified under the Subdivision Procedures.

A number of the Board members stated that the Procedures were too detailed and lengthy to be workable. Mrs. Avery suggested that the Procedures be allowed to stand until they could be discussed with the Planning Board.

The action at this special meeting was reversed on Tuesday, when the Board approved a motion to reinstate the Subdivision Procedures.

City officials as well as the affected property owners have expressed hope that the project can be completed this fall. It is proposed that Violet Street be paved from the northern City limits to Grand River and that Lilac be paved from the City limits to Shawnee Street.

Rescind Motion

lorney, who rendered his opinion that such action would be illegal. Gain added that he would like to hold the matter over until the next meeting and that he would explore every possible means of combating the problem.

In connection with the proposed rezoning of a parcel of land on the west side of Middlebelt Road north of Northwestern Highway, the Planning Board has tentatively recommended that the area be rezoned from Residential to Commercial subject to a commitment from the owners as to the intended type of land development planned. A similar recommendation was read from the Planning Consultants with the provisions that a greenbelt be established along the north side of the property adjacent to Franklin Knolls Subdivision. That intended use of the property be defined.

George Steinberger advised the Board that they have a letter from the adjacent property owners in Franklin Knolls voicing strong objection to the rezoning. In answer to several questions, the Board pointed out that any proposed change in zoning must first go to the Zoning Board for study and public hearing. Following the Zoning Board recommendations the proposal must go to the County before being returned for final action by the Township Board.

The Board approved a motion authorizing Justus Allen to table to prepare a proposed draft of a Township Traffic Ordinance. Under such an ordinance the Township could retain a certain portion of court costs when a case is going to higher units of government. Ingles stated that he would have the draft of the proposed ordinance available at the next meeting of the Township Board.

Action was also taken by the Board authorizing the Clerk to forward a letter to the State Highway Department requesting a footbridge across the new Farmington-Brighton Expressway at Parker Avenue.
