In And Around Springland MRS. RALPH EVERT

Vacation time - I'm sure your column friends would enjoy hearing how you spent your vacation, or any other interesting bits of news. Why don't you give me a buzz on the phone so I can pass the word along?

Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Dobbins and their grandson, James Evans of Ridgeway Drive, spent last week visiting friends in Ohio. At Zanesville they spent a few days as guests of Mrs. Dobbins' brothers and family. Mr. Charles Atkinson, and Mr. James Atkinson and their families. They also had an enjoyable time in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Atkinson and family in Westerville, Ohio. Claudia Dobbins, the Dobbins' granddaughter, is visiting them this week. Claudia's home is in Hudson, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harmon and daughter, Patricia, of Springland Drive, recently made a week end trip to Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ardelean and family of Orchard Lake Road recently spent five days at Caseville near Saginaw Bay.

Springbrook

Mrs. V. Kirchner, GR. 4-1293

On Wednesday of this week the officers of the Springbrook Civic Association attended a meeting at the home of President Don Bowerman. Topics under discussion included: control of Dutch Elm disease, consideration of appointments of members of committees, and plans for the fall meeting of the Association.

A committee, headed by Gerry Mason has been investigating the Dutch Elm disease and a plan will be presented to deal with the problems.

The Stenslands of Crystal Court christened their new outdoor fireplace this week end with a steak fry attended by neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hagelstein, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thompson and Mr. Andy Birlheimer.

Ronny Hagelstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hagelstein of Crystal Court, arrived home last Sunday on furlough from Fort Hood, Texas. When he leaves he will go to Fort Hallbert in Baltimore, Maryland, to participate in 16 weeks of advanced training in the Army Intelligence School of Photographic Interpretation.

Mr. James Orr has joined his family at their summer home near Manistique, Michigan, following a four-week cruise. Jim joined his uncle, Captain E. B. Orr, and family on their yacht.

Their trip took them from Norfolk, Virginia, to Charleston, South Carolina. They travelled the inland waterways and made a side trip to Ocracoke Island in the Atlantic. The island is where the Pirate Black Beard was captured. The trip, for the most part, was smooth sailing except in Pamlico Sound, where they found the waters quite choppy. [Orr] is now stationed with the U. S. Navy, they terminated their trip a few days early because of approaching hurricanes.

Jim and his cousin from Grand Rapids returned to Farmington via bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Loring and children have returned to their home on Springbrook from a holiday at their summer home on Houghton Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith and children recently spent the week end in Lansing where they attended the State Convention of the American Legion. Mr. Smith was photographer for the Thomas A. Edison Drum and Bugle Corps which won the State Championship. This is the fifth year the group has won top honors.

After a long week end in Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Badalucco and children set off for a camping trip in northern Michigan. They camped in several state parks near Tawas and Saginaw, and had wonderful luck with trout and perch fishing in the inland lakes as well as the bay.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Mogle and sons, Stevie and Davy, have returned from a brief vacation. Peggy and Davy stayed at the Lancaster home in Lapeer while Bob Lancaster and his son joined Joe and Stevie for a father and son camping and fishing trip. They pitched their tent on Big Bear Lake and enjoyed three days of fishing.

Robert Lord is spending ten days at Y. M. C. A. Camp Ohiyena near Holly, Michigan.

Harriet Kirchner is soon expected home from Ford Hospital after her third season of surgery this summer. While her mother was in the hospital this time, Susie enjoyed a visit with her aunt at Lake Fondra.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hanna of Westmoreland Drive joined with

Guest Preacher To Speak At Franklin Church

Franklin Community Church Sunday. He will be Dr. Robert S. Eccles, professor of Bible at DePaul University, who is also a close personal friend of Rev. Robert Searls, Franklin's pastor. Dr. Eccles, a native of Tacoma, Washington, received his B.A. degree at the College of Puget Sound in that city, which degree was followed by a B.D. from Garrett Seminary, an M.A. from Northwestern University, and the Ph.D. from Yale. It was at Garrett that he and Reverend Searls met and became friends.

Dr. Eccles is in Michigan to be the keynote lecturer for several Methodist Camp groups. Mr. Searls will conduct the service.
