

Livonia Girl Performs in Roller Skating Show

Barbara Seales, 17, of Livonia, and Billy Ferraro, 19, national co-champions for the senior mixed doubled roller skating title, were among the skaters performing on Labor Day at Metropolitan Beach. They and other top skaters performed in the 27,500-square-foot rink at Metropolitan Beach.

Pamela Elliott, age seven, "tiny tot" Michigan champion, and Linda Kobane, 13, sub-novice free skating women's champion of the United States and member of an international "four-skate" championship team, also performed. Other members in the show were George Frazier, Ronald Derham and Sheron Minton, David Julien, Nancy Galbraith, Delphine Goncey, Jack and Warner Frazier, Sandra Elliott, and Linda Beaton.

Universalist Church Services Begin At 11 a.m.

Beginning Sunday, September 9, services will be held at the Farmington Universalist Church at 11:00 a.m. instead of 11:15 a.m. Reverend Walter Kellison, having returned from a vacation in Maine, will conduct the services.

The church is located on Warner Avenue just north of Grand River Avenue in Farmington. All new residents interested are cordially invited to attend.

During the summer, Universalist at young people represented the Farmington Church both at regional and national conferences. Those attending the Youth Week at Bridgman on Lake Michigan were Carol Bury, Judy Benson, Meredith and Gene Tuma, Vivian Portney, Sandra Kellogg, Reginald, Burrie, and Mike Brown. Mike Brown and Sandra Kellogg traveled to the National Conference of the N. C. L. Y. in Oklahoma. The opportunity to learn to know and to study with young folks from other areas was a big part of the Conference. Supported by the Universalist and Unitarian Churches of America, the meetings were planned and operated by the young people themselves.

Taking part in the Family Fellowship Week at Bridgman were Mrs. Irving Plum and son, Tommy; Mrs. A. D. Benson and daughter, Judy; Barbara Kellogg, Pamela Buckner and Carol Bury.

A pot luck picnic luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Harley Gibson on Halsted Road last Friday starting the new season for the Association of Universalist Women of the Farmington area. An interesting program of meetings for the coming year was planned.

The Home Study Blue Book listing courses offered by correspondence schools which meet the standards required by the National Home Study Council can be seen at most public libraries and high schools.

One-fourth of all certified public accountants acquire their training through correspondence study.

Around The Circle In Staman Acres
MRS. WILLIAM SMITH GR. 4-5292

The Staman Acres Association will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Clarenceville Fire Hall on Wheeler Street, one block east of Middlebelt and just north of Grand River Avenue.

President Jack Burke will preside over the group. All property owners of Staman Acres, men and women, are urged to attend. This includes those now living in the area and also lot owners.

Two main topics to be discussed are backlotting and speed limited signs. The meeting has been set for 8:15 p.m. Friday, September 7.

The purpose of the Association is to make Staman Acres a more beautiful, inviting and safe place in which to live. Active participation by all owners will speed this cause.

The Ronald Westfalls have been enjoying a two-week vacation, spending much of it relaxing at home. They spent some of their time in Port Huron and Holland, Michigan.

Ed and Virginia Donoghue and the two Donoghue boys spent their vacation in Chicago, touring the Museum of Science. They also drove up north to the Dells in Wisconsin, took in the capital at Madison, and boarded the "Millwaukee Clipper" for a six hour ride to Muskegon.

Marlowe and Norma Larson, with Keith and Karen, traveled to Wisconsin to visit Mr. Larson's relatives. He reports the fishing was excellent.

They stopped at Stillwater, Minnesota, for a brief stay and came home via the Straits.

The Larsons enjoy the distinction of being the only residents on Fairmont Drive.

The youngest vacationer we've heard about to date is three year old Jimmy Ellis, who arrived Sunday from a week's stay at Grandmother Ellis's home at Houghton Lake. The Ellises drove up to get their son.

New families in Staman Acres number four at this writing. The first we called on were Mr. and Mrs. James W. Currier of Staman Court. We met the youngest member of the family the first thing, three month old Blakey, the Currier's kitten. Eileen and Jim moved here from suburban Columbus, Ohio, and are just in time to start Susan, 10, and Tommy, 8, in school. Jim is with the Electric Storage Battery Company.

Next, we skipped across our own family reunion in celebration of Bob's father's birthday.

Next door to the Williams home live Pat and Jack Burke, and they were busy Labor Day rearing the house and grounds for a barbecue, fry and sweet corn roast. The occasion was a get-together of Jack's family and the group was also joined by Pat's folks.

Alice Schaefer, Rocky Crest Road, had just moved in and settled her family when she started in on the merry-go-round of entertaining. Her Pinocchio Club, composed of six members, met last week and after several exciting games were played the ladies were treated to ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Norm Schuppli honored their nephew, Richard Miller, of Detroit, with a birthday barbecue on Labor Day. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Miller and Richard's brother, Robert, and sister, Marilyn, were also present.

The day was complete with Grandma and Grandpa Miller joining in the festivities.

Al and Marian Reynolds announce the arrival of a seven pound nine ounce baby girl on Tuesday in Henry Ford Hospital. They have another girl, Susan, and a son, Jimmy.

Family Profile

The address at 21561 Rocky Crest is the home of this week's honored family. Furnished in the modern manner, it is a beautiful red brick and stone-trimmed house, and its careful landscaping reflects the quiet good taste and elegance of its owners. You would never guess that here four daughters reign supreme over the "free room," or that the lovely blonde with the softly waving hair could be Mama. Yes, the couple we are speaking about are Allan and Ina Caruthers, who moved to Staman Acres a year ago August 16. Those four girls are Diane, 9, Gayle, 7, Doris Ann, 4, and Deborah, 2.

Ina is not only a baseball fan and a Tiger rooster, but she played for three years with the Redford Women's Baseball League, serving two years as captain and playing "almost every position on the team." Allan is an amateur baseball player, too, so fair warning to the boys of Staman Acres who haven't learned yet; those Caruthers girls aren't likely to let a fly ball slip through their fingers.

Dad is an amateur hockey player and a bowler. This past year he received a trophy for his outstanding skills in local competition. A bad back has forced Allan to give up active participation in sports.

Diane and Gayle were engrossed for a time in dancing lessons,

Obituary

Mrs. Winifred A. Christmas
Mrs. Winifred A. Christmas of 28700 Independence Avenue, in Farmington Township, died Tuesday, August 28.

Mrs. Christmas was born in London, England, October 6, 1898, the daughter of William and Emma Abbott. She attended school in England and in 1920 was united in marriage to Harry Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Christmas had lived in Farmington Township for the past 34 years.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Friday from the Thayer Funeral Home with Rev. Kenneth Bohaker of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit officiating. Interment took place in Acacia Park Cemetery.

Surviving besides Mr. Christmas are two sons, Edward H. and William A. Christmas, both of Farmington. One sister also survives in England.

but while Gayle hopes to continue the same, Diane will soon start her hoped-for piano lessons. We imagine Doris Ann and Debby will provide kibitzing from the side lines.

Ina originally hailed from Pennsylvania, while Allan is a native of Detroit. He has been associated for the past 15 years with the Davis Industries of Detroit.
