

McMilleon, Williams Wed at Bethel Baptist Church

At 3:00 p.m. Saturday, July 21, Geraldine McMilleon became the bride of Gerald E. Williams.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of Walled Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams of 23727 Middlebrook Road, Farmington, are the parents of the groom.

Rev. Frank B. Smith performed the double ring ceremony in the Bethel Baptist Church. Wedding cake, coffee, punch and cookies were served by Mrs. Dorothy Sovereign and her assistants.

A reception was held in the parlors of the church where white flowers, bells, and streamers were used for decorations. Wedding presents were opened and gifts were given by the bride's friends and relatives from Egan and Dayton, Ohio; Port Huron and Belleville, Walled Lake, and Detroit were present at the wedding.

The new Mrs. Williams was a student at Walled Lake High School. Gerald Williams, a 1955 graduate of Farmington High School, has been employed at the Crescent Brass and Pin Company of Detroit. He is a Sergeant First Class in the National Guard.

For the wedding trip to Lexington on Lake Huron, the bride wore a white with aqua embroidery dress. The newlyweds are now making their home at 2134 Ontario, Farmington.

YWCA REGISTRATION OPENS NEXT WEEK

Registration for the fall term of classes at Northwest Branch was opened September 4 at the Branch Building, 17268 Redford Avenue. Classes will start the week of September 29 and many will continue for a ten-week term.

A variety of classes will be offered each day including contract bridge, china painting, drawing and sketching, flower arranging, jewelry and crafts, knitting, millinery, oil painting, parliamentary law, sewing, trimmastics and bowling. Those interested are urged to enroll early as many classes are limited.

A six-week fall special in golf, starting September 11, is scheduled for 10 and 11 a.m. and both Tuesday and Wednesday. Golf classes will be held at the Sinclair Golf Center, Eight Mile and Lahser, with Ruel Olsen as the instructor.

A complete swimming program for both women and girls will be offered on Saturday mornings at Cody High School, 18443 Cathedral. Instruction will be given at the following levels: beginners, intermediates, swimmers and synchronized swimming. This program will start Saturday September 29, but registrations must be made at the Branch prior to that date.

Dancing classes, crafts and fencing are also offered during the Saturday Recreation program at Cody High School and are open to boys and girls 6 through 18 years. Classes are scheduled so that children may enroll in two or three classes during the morning.

Other classes not scheduled will be arranged upon sufficient enrollment. Further information may be secured by calling the Branch office at KE. 3-6910, KE. 3-3899, or KE. 3-6326.
