Grace Lutheran Groups Meet

A Rummage Sale will be held at the Grace Lutheran Church, Grand River at Imperial Highway, on September 23 and 29 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The sale was the main business discussed at the Grace Lutheran Ladies Guild meeting on Thursday, September 13.

All Circles of the Guild will work on the sale. Furniture, clothing, household articles, toys and miscellaneous items will be sold.

Eva Sanko, president, conducted the Guild business meeting following a pot-luck supper. Eighty women attended. Among the guests were Blanche Halboth, Florence Gren, Helen Montross, Esther Blum, Olive Dickson, Jo Douledele, Nora Steinkamp.

The Men's Club of Grace Church met on Thursday, September 6, with president Ken Bennett presiding. Dinner was served by the wives of four members: Mrs. Ken Bennett, Mrs. Elmer Hoffman, Mrs. Gus Teufel, and Mrs. Robert Resinen.

Fred Ready gave an interesting demonstration concerning electricity. The Men's Club will sponsor a fish fry on Friday, October 5 from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m.

On Thursday, September 20, a special meeting of the Usters Club will be held. Mr. John Walter will preside over the business meeting. Supper will be served prior to the meeting.

Grace Lutheran Sunday School enrolled the following children during the week of September 9: Claudia Boyle, Michael Boyle, Paulette Boyle, Wayne Boyle, Cynthia Flemming, Sandra Lee Jaynes, Douglas Kaleva, Ross Kaleva and Henry Krueger.

LEAVE NATURE BE

Leading architects are utilizing the natural advantages of hilly wooded sites to make the modern home more and more a part of its location. They deery the trend to a short built sell. Her four bridesmaids and maid of honor were in pink organza, as were her two little cousins, the flower girls. The church decorations were pure white throughout.

Charles' best man was Howard La Victoire. It was he who, after having served his stretch in the Army with Charles, persuaded him to come to Tacoma to collect, and thus was inadvertently responsible for the whole romance.

After the reception for 150 people which followed the ceremony, the young folks headed for places unknown, while Betty and Charles started home, arriving there on their thirty-third wedding anniversary, just in time to receive the aforementioned telegram from San Francisco, California.

Maxine Renfrew of Westbrook spent three days in Ford Hospital recently for minor surgery. Hubby James obligingly gave up his convention to be baby sitter, with an occasional helping hand from Marian Lam.

New neighbors Earl and Mary McDonald of 2022 1/2 Milbrook interests. Mr. McDonald, who built most of their new home, is an active member of the Calvary Methodist Church in Redford, and likes bowling and golf.

In addition to caring for children Gregory, 6, and Claudia, 5, Mary has been doing solo work in their church choir for thirteen years, sings in a ladies trio which give their services to benefits, etc., decorates cakes with a professional touch (five wedding cakes this summer) and makes all the children's clothes, plus her own drapes, slip-covers, etc.

The McDonalds own the McDonald Paint Company on Fenkell and Burt Road.

Committee members responsible for the good time had by the girls at the picnic September 8 were Dave Wingo, Art Busch, Doyle Tippett and Charles Bronson.

Betty and Charles Brown of Chenoweth Court have decided that the nicest thing about their son's wedding was the telegram they received from him and his new bride, the former Hope Pielan, three days later, which said "From our three to your thirty-three. Congratulations and love."

The Browns left for Washington Labor Day, taking the Mercury to Chicago and the Union Pacific to Tacoma. They arrived in time for the wedding rehearsal Wednesday evening, and were host and hostess to twenty people at the Lakeside Terrace.

The next meeting of the Men's Woodcreek Association will be held at the home of Bill Thompson at 28291 Salem Road, Thursday, September 27, at 8:00 p.m.

Marian Lam of Westbrook entertained forty women for the "younger" Ford Hospital Staff wife group Tuesday evening, September 11. Help was provided by co-hostess Barbara Reedy, past president of the Birmingham League of Women Voters, who was the speaker for the evening.

The happiest fall in Woodcreek last Friday morning was Aileen Dorman, when her 18-year old son, Bill, whom she thought was in Biloxi, Mississippi, walked in. Bill, who has been studying radar repair work in the Electronics School at the Keester Air Force Base, will continue his studies at the Westover Air Force Base in Massachusetts after spending ten days at home.

Don and Doris Wells arrived home from their ten days of relaxation at their cabin in Canada Creek, Michigan, to the bad news of the death of Don's father, William J. Wells, September 8. Had the circumstances been different, Doris would have enjoyed her first extended visit with friends and relatives.

John and Betty Merschak, along with daughter Elizabeth, Ann and John's mother, Mrs. M. Merschak and sister Helen, have returned from a four day visit with John's aunt and uncle, the D'Amicos in Bracebridge, Ontario. A side trip to Santa's Village was made.

Elizabeth is now teaching third grade in Our Lady of Sorrows School, in addition to continuing her studies at Madonna College.

N. Spicer Enrolls In Maine College

Nicholas G. Spicer of 23195 North Farmington Road, Farmington, was among a group of more than 200 freshmen enrolled last week end at Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine. These men represent Bowdoin's 155th entering class since the college was founded in 1794 and admitted its first eight students in 1802.

In addition to these 208 freshmen, twelve foreign students will be in residence this year under the Bowdoin Plan, college officials said.

Be philosophical about what you don't like but can't change.

Discussion Series Slated At Library

"The Democratic Dilemma" is the subject of eight weekly meetings to be given at the Redford Branch Library each Thursday night from September 20 through November 15.

Meetings will run from 8 to 10 p.m. The course will be led by Miss Anna Jung of Dearborn.

During the series the following books will be discussed: "The Troubled Air," by Irwin Shaw; "All the King's Men," by Robert Penn Warren; "Escape From Freedom," by Eric Fromm; "Essay on Disobedience," by Henry D. Thoreau, and the "Future of American Politics," by Samuel Lubell.

"Public Philosophy" by Walter Lippman, will be used as the text to discuss such topics as: "Is democracy outmoded and inefficient?" "Is freedom declining through the people's default?" "Why is three quarters of the world ready to accept the principles of Communism?" and "What Should Be Done About It?"

Those interested may register in person or by telephone at the Redford Branch Library, 21311 West McNichols, KE. 1-1129, where the course is scheduled.

There is no charge for the series. All materials to be used will be furnished by the Detroit Public Library.
