North Baptist Meet To Organize

REVEREND M. WALTER

Approximately 100 members of the North Farmington Baptist Church met last Sunday evening in the Farmington Senior High School to officially organize and elect officers.

Appearing on the program were Reverend Richard Cummings, Executive Secretary of the Detroit Baptist Missionary Society; Dr. Albert H. Gage, director of Church Extension of the Society; Mr. Ben Dickinson, moderator of the Covenant Baptist Church of Detroit, the parent church; Robert F. Manogue, official of the Society; Reverend Melvin R. Walter, pastor of the new church, and William Devlin, the newly elected moderator.

Refreshments were served by the ladies of the church following the program.

Contract Bridge Lessons Slated

The Farmington Senior High School will now open a series of bridge lessons, by Marie J. Bosshart, a leading bridge teacher in the state of Michigan.

A course of ten lessons from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. will begin Thursday, October 4. Early registration is advised. Players are asked to bring their own cards and score pads.

The class will be divided into a beginners as well as intermediate players group. Later on a class in duplicate bridge will be held. It was indicated.

Mrs. Bosshart teaches the point count, a simplified Goren System and all the latest rules and scoring.

This is not a lecture course but one of actual play, and is meant as a recreational and social evening as well as one to improve your play.

For further information call the Farmington High School or Vermont 6-2581.

Miss L. A. Ault

A miscellaneous bridal shower, honoring Miss Francis Kauranen of Mayfield Avenue was given by the Sunshine Sisters last Tuesday evening. She is to marry Stanley Chavey, Jr., also of Mayfield Avenue, on September 22. About thirty-five ladies, mostly from the immediate community, were in attendance and half as many more were represented by gifts. A contest was won by Mrs. Stanley Chavey, Sr. Mrs. Clinton Ault and Miss Gloria Kauranen tied for second and each received a gift. Bridesmaids were given Mrs. Charles Hoff and Mrs. Stanley Morgan.

Useful late recognition gifts were awarded Mrs. Charles Hoff, Sr., longest married lady present; Mrs. Wallace Seger, the most recent bride; Mrs. David McWhorter, soonest to celebrate an anniversary; and Francis Kauranen, the next bride. Mrs. Norman Kauranen, mother of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. Stanley Chavey, mother of the prospective groom, were each given a small remembrance.

The two bridesmaids, Gloria Kauranen and Joanne Craig, assisted Miss Kauranen as she unwrapped and inspected the gifts she received. Cake and coffee were served. An innovation, at the beginning of the refreshment period, a cake cutting contest, under the direction of Mrs. M. E. Ault, was conducted. The three youngest girls present, Francis Kauranen, Gloria Kauranen and Joanne Craig, were each given the task of cutting one of the lovely cakes. Mrs. Chavey and Mrs. Wilfred Blackney acted as judges and awarded a very pretty cup and saucer to Joanne Craig, who had most neatly sliced her cake.

Another bridal shower was tendered Miss Kauranen Friday evening. The hostesses were Miss Joanne Craig and the affair was held at the home of Miss Craig's aunt, Mrs. Stanley Chavey on Mayfield Avenue. Guests were, for the most part, younger women and girls. There were games with prizes, refreshments and numerous gifts for the honored lady.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Grattap of Mayfield Avenue were in Detroit on Thursday evening attending the rehearsal dinner for the marriage of their son, Dave Grattap and Barbara Lucas. The dinner was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas and twenty-four persons were in attendance. The couple were married in the Christian Alliance Church in Detroit at 7 p.m. Saturday, September 12.

Honoring the eighth birthday of her youngest daughter, Barbara, Mrs. John Varhol entertained at her home on Shady Side Avenue Thursday evening. Guests were Barbara's little girl friends of the neighborhood. There were games and refreshments.

Stephen Johnson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Johnson, of Parker Avenue, was tendered a celebration marking his seventh birthday Thursday evening. For the occasion about twenty little folks of the neighborhood gathered at the Johnson home.

Honoring the birthday of her husband, Mrs. Louis Jennings gave a dinner party at her home on Norfolk Avenue Friday evening. The guest list included relatives only.

The regular meeting of the Sunshine Sisters was held in the Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon. At this time plans were made for holding a mother and daughter rally in the church on Tuesday, September 25 at 6:30 p.m. Because of certain complications, the mother and daughter party had not been held last spring. A potluck buffet supper followed by a program is planned.

The W.C.S.C. of the Livonia Methodist Church held their first general meeting of the season in the church last Wednesday evening.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry McNelly in Detroit Wednesday, September 12. Mrs. McNelly will be remembered as the former Marie Bolyard, who was born and grew up on Hubbard Avenue in this community. Following their marriage she and Mr. McNelly went to California to live, but recently returned to Michigan.

Mrs. Lynn Mayhew entertained at a picnic party fashion at her home on Merriman Tuesday evening, September 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grundy and their four children of Hubbard Avenue were in Detroit last Saturday evening, September 8, attending the marriage of Mrs. Grundy's niece, Ellis Pataing and James Graham. The wedding took place in the Epiphany Lutheran Church in East Detroit.

Miss Helen Soos, who spent the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Soos, Shady Side Avenue, has now returned to school in the east.

Because of the sudden death of a younger brother, Mrs. E. W. Stange, Mayfield Avenue, and members of her family spent much of this past week in River

Great Books Group To Meet September 26

Donald V. MacDougall will be the leader of the First Great Books Discussion Group to meet in Farmington this fall, according to the Farmington City and Township Library and the Board of Education, sponsors of the group. The first meeting will be held September 26, at 8:00 p.m. in the Senior High School Library.

Mr. MacDougall comes through the Great Books Foundation and has had the leader training required by the Foundation. He is temporarily residing in Royal Oak while awaiting the completion of his new home in Willowbrook subdivision here. He is a graduate of Michigan State, where he majored in economics, and is with the Labor Relations Department of the Ex-Cello Corporation.

It is suggested that members of the book discussion group come prepared to discuss The Declaration of Independence at the September 26 meeting.

There are several vacancies in the group, officials indicated. Anyone wanting to join may do so by registering at the Farmington Library.

Rouge. Funeral services were held Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Diehle, taken seriously ill two weeks ago at her home on Shady Side Avenue and removed to Mt. Carmel Hospital, has now been transferred to Plymouth General Hospital, and is believed somewhat improved.
