Springbrook Civic News
 Mrs. V. Kirebner, GR. 41929 — Mrs. G. Lord, GR. 43474

The Farmington High School Cafeteria was the scene last Saturday night of a very successful square dance party. Thirty couples of Springbrook participated in the first social affair sponsored by the Civic Association. Many squares danced for the first time and several round dance mixes helped newcomers and oldsters to meet their neighbors.

Several prizes, all useful in outdoor barbecuing, were awarded to Richard Hug, Ronald Cervin, Mrs. Robert Hug, Blum, Mrs. Donald Bowerman, Mrs. Thomas Coffey, and Mrs. Paul Grand. After the Association party several groups joined for a house party. Mr. and Mrs. Ward Penn, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cervin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hug returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hug on Springbrook.

A bridal shower was given for Judy Delong recently by Mrs. Henry Harrison, Mrs. John Brandvold and Mrs. Gilbert Triswick at the home of Mrs. Treweek on Westmoreland Avenue. Gifts were brought by Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. Robert Fiske, Mrs. Perry Gardhouse, Mrs. Herbert Roy, Mrs. Elmer Rapp, Mrs. Lloyd Higglestein, Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. Elinore Goodhue, Judy's mother, Mrs. Harold Delong and sister, Sally.

Saturday a dinner party and shower was also given for Judy. Hostesses were Mrs. Douglas Eastman and Mr. I. A. Rodeheffer of Detroit.

Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Delong of Harcourt Avenue and will marry Mr. Arthur Thomas of Detroit on Saturday, October 13. Brownies and Cub Scout group activities are now underway in Springbrook. Both groups are meeting in the homes of their leaders this year because of different school hours.

Cub Scout Den 4 will meet at the home of its Den Mother, Mrs. William Groff, on Springbrook avenue Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. Brownie Troop 218 will meet at the home of its leader, Mrs. Clifford Terry of Brookview Avenue on Tuesday evening at 6:00 p.m.

Officers of Springbrook Civic Association will be meeting soon to plan the annual fall meeting. All residents will be notified as usual by mail.

FREDRIC CHRISTIAN
 "The California Story"
 SUNDAY, Oct. 14, 1956

Fredric Christian's "The California Story" will be one of the most colorful and exciting travelogues of the season. It will take us from the Bay Fisherman's Fiesta in San Pedro to many other holiday celebrations of festive California. The Solvang Danish Days brings a delightful touch of the Old World. A visit to the Indio Date Festival will show us exotic beauties, turbaned sheikhs, camel races, and dunes galore. The early history of California will unfold for us at the Spanish Days of Santa Barbara. All Long Beach will witness the Miss Universe Beauty Contest filmed beside the Pacific Ocean. A featured highlight will be the famous paintings and sculptures of the great artists. We will make other exciting visits to Disneyland, San Francisco, and the scenic splendor of the Yosemite which will be climaxed by the spectacular "Fire Fall." All this and much more is expertly filmed against the colorful scenery of California and presented in a delightful manner, making Fredric Christian's "The California Story" an exciting artistic triumph.

DR. WM. B. CAMPBELL
 "Indo-China"
 SUNDAY, Nov. 11, 1956

Dr. William B. Campbell is a man of wide background and unusual knowledge and unlimited experience who will take us to that vital Far East country of Indo-China and its three states of Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos. On this exciting trip we will see the scenic beauty of the virgin, unspoiled forests, and the historic Mekong River as well as the beautiful coast of Annam. We will visit the remote tribal peoples in the Laotian villages and have a private audience with the King of Cambodia, and be entertained by the Royal Dancers of Laos. The story of a million refugees fleeing Communist controlled North Vietnam is a part of Dr. Campbell's unusual and authentic presentation. We will also witness the blood sacrifices of the savage Mol and visit opium dens, and worldly Saigon. Part of our time will be spent in the Buddhist temples seeing their life and ceremonies. A visit will be made to the world's largest rubber plantation and to the "rice basin of the world" in Cochinchina. Elephants, festivals, golden pagodas and everywhere and always — people, people, people! This is a deeply penetrating and revealing film made by an unusual and colorful world traveler.

W. EMERSON SCOTT
 "Adventure in Colorado"
 SUNDAY, Dec. 2, 1956

"Adventure in Colorado," with W. Emerson Scott, your expert-encore guide, will take us off the beaten path to beautiful and adventure-filled Colorado. The highway for our lofty adventure will be the Green River, which we carry us through a mysterious, silent, and strange world of tourists have ever seen. We will thrill as we are transported in a rubber boat over the thundering rapids and through the fantastic gorges of Dinosaur National Monument. The magnificent panoramas of Lodon Canyon, Echo Park and Steamboat Rock will greet us as silent giant sentinels of a strange world. A bouncing jeep will take us up on the summer range of the highest sheep, two miles above sea level, to an awesome land of lofty, snow-capped peaks. A never-to-be-forgotten visit will take us to the weird Great Sand Dunes National Monument where shifting, whispering sands dramatically exhibit fantastic changing moods and tempos. Mr. Scott will delight us with his pleasant and dramatic narration while taking us up thrilling canyons, high mountains, and awesome sand dunes. All interwoven with humor, drama and high adventure.

In presenting this program for 4th "Travel and Adventure Series," the Kiwanis Club of Farmington wishes to express its appreciation for the acceptance these interesting and educational travelogues have had in the past 3 years. We are grateful to you for your interest and loyal support. This has made it possible for us, as a club, to pledge the proceeds from the program to many projects that we have undertaken in Farmington.

ROMAIN WILHELMSSEN
 "Legend of the Andes"
 SUNDAY, Jan. 27, 1957

High in the Andes Mountains of South America, in Columbia, Peru and Bolivia, there is a vast untouched storehouse of legend and golden treasure. Romain Wilhelmsen and his camera will take us on an intriguing trip to the deserted coastal cities, into steaming Amazon jungles and high into the mountains. He will turn back the pages of history as he will show us pre-Incan pyramids, the tremendous stone gateway at Titicaca, and the gigantic grotesque stone statues of unknown origin. We will take an old paddle boat up the Magdalena River through almost unexplored jungles. We will muse over the treasures in mysterious and lovely Lake Guatavita. Our trip will also include a spectacular Independence Day Fiesta in the oldest city in our hemisphere and we will take a short voyage on the last of the commercial sailing ships. A grand climax will come when we discover a lost city and a culture never before known to exist! All this enchantment will be combined with charming visits with friendly natives, and the fabulous pioneers of this new frontier. Romain Wilhelmsen's pleasing personality, excellent narration and fascinating film will bring us an evening that we will long remember.

RUSS POTTER
 "Flight to the Soviet"
 SUNDAY, Feb. 24, 1957

A distinguished new name in the travelogue field is Russ Potter. His wit and charm as a radio and TV personality have endeared him to a large national audience. As the narrator and script writer of the Laguna Beach, California, Pageant of the Masters, Mr. Potter has become the favorite of hundreds of thousands of spectators from all parts of the United States, Canada and Europe. Many people have remarked that they would go to this internationally famous spectacle just to hear Russ Potter's clever commentary. Mr. Potter makes his debut in the film-lecture field with a brilliant photographic subject as "Flight to the Soviet." He made the film this past summer. It is the first professionally photographed account of what life is like behind the "Iron Curtain." It will be a warm and human motion picture with the people of the U.S.S.R. It is certain to be the most talked about travelogue in many seasons, as presented by one of the country's most outstanding narrators.

GORDON PALMQUIST
 "Germany Today"
 SUNDAY, March 17, 1957

"Germany Today" is a timely and informative travelogue that will not only take us to Western Germany, but also to the Soviet controlled section of East Berlin. Mr. Palmquist will take us on a trip to the Eastern Zone where we will see the Russian World War II Memorial, and get window shopping in the drab shops. We will see the East German people at close range. We will also visit the controversial Ruhr and its blast furnaces, have an exciting time at the Wiesbaden bicycle races, and rest at Cologne Cathedral. Being transported down the Rhine will take us past its castles, vineyards and old cities. A trip into the past will be made when we go to the medieval cities of Rothenberg and Dinkelsbühl. Our stay in Bavaria will permit us to visit beautiful cathedrals, and watch a quaint violin maker at work in the Bavarian Alps. Our ears will be pleased to hear the music of the rollicking Bavarian dances as we watch the happy natives dancing in their colorful costumes. Mr. Palmquist is a perfectionist and he succeeds in bringing to us a perfect travelogue.
