

Edgewood Mothers Plan
Toy Demonstration

A toy demonstration will be given by the Edgewood Mothers Club at the Edgewood School on Tuesday evening, October 9, starting at 8 p.m.

An invitation has been extended to residents of the area to attend and inspect the large variety of toys by famous makers to be displayed. It was pointed out that the percentage of money from all toys sold will go to the club which will be used for various school projects.

Refreshments will be served.

HOUSE WARMING

A house warming was given last Saturday evening for Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cook at their home at 23264 Haynes Street. Approximately 45 were present for the occasion.

Clarenceville Methodist
Plans Parade Saturday

Members of the Clarenceville Methodist Church will participate in a parade through the area north of Grand River in the vicinity of the church on Saturday morning, October 6. The parade will start at 10:30 a.m.

Floors, cars and escorts will leave Collingham and Grand River and circulate through the streets to Independence and back again. The parade is being conducted to encourage participation in church adult and youth activities.

Eggs furnish the same kind of protein that we find in meat, fish and cheese. Two large eggs or three small eggs will give the same amount of protein as an average serving of meat.

MRS. G. T. BIRD
GR. 4-3469

THE ENGAGEMENT of Sandra Lynn Pepper to David Lee Dunham of Alameda, Michigan, was disclosed recently by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. James Pepper of 31164 Alta Loma, Farmington. David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dunham.

Sandra has attended Eastern Michigan College at Ypsilanti for the past two years and is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. Mr. Dunham is a senior at Eastern Michigan and a member of Kappa Phi Delta fraternity. The couple are planning a December wedding.

Buxom Belles
Meeting Regularly

The Farmington Chapter of the Buxom Belles extends another invitation to women of the area who would like to slim down to join the group at its next meeting.

Membership is limited to 30. There are still a few memberships open.

Trophies, prizes, songs and games are the order of the day while women watch the pounds fall off. The club is a non-profit, federated group designed to help women lose weight by group therapy.

Speaking to the group at a previous meeting has been Helen Shaw, a dietitian from a Baltimore, Maryland hospital. Mrs. Elsie Wenderlich of Farmington, a registered physical therapist, has also given individual exercises to the women.

Guest at the October 11 meeting of the group will be Jean Heron of the new Jean's Beauty shop. She will speak on new fall hair styles and make up.

Women wishing more information about the Buxom Belles group are asked to call Mrs. Betty Peterson, president, at GR 4-4850.

MR. and MRS. MAURICE JANISSE

Exchange Wedding Vows
At Our Lady Of Sorrows

Barbara Jeanne Shay of 36235 West Seven Mile Road became the wife of Maurice D. Janisse of 21400 Collingham on Saturday, September 1, with wedding vows being spoken by the couple at 9 a.m. at Our Lady of Sorrows Church.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shay and Maurice is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Janisse.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Thomas Beahan before an altar decorated with white gladioli. Organ selections were played by Mrs. Schaefer, who also sang "Ave Maria" and "This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother."

A white chantilly lace full-length tiered gown featured with a V-neck, long pointed sleeves, a Queen Anne collar and princess style bodice was worn by the bride. A scalloped fingertip veil fell from a crown with cap. She carried a white orchid bouquet surrounded by stephanotis.

The bride's sister Beverly Joan was maid-of-honor. She wore a gold full-length crystal gown and carried gold spider mums. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Anne Janisse and Miss Sydney Smith. They wore full-length ice blue crystal gowns with matching blue picture hats and carried pink spider mums.

Andre Janisse acted as his brother's best man. Serving as usher were Albert Shay and George Janisse.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a brown printed silk dress and wore a loganberry red hat and gloves, brown shoes and carried a brown purse. Her outfit was completed with a red rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a taupe sheath silk dress with beige accessories and a corsage of yellow tea roses.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Farmington, which was decorated in fall flowers by Mrs. George Purdy. A buffet style ham/dinner was served by Mrs. Ralph Purdy, Mrs. Donald Gilmore, Mrs. Samuel Howe and Mrs. George Purdy.

The couple, who honeymooned in northern Michigan, are now making their temporary home at Woodhall Lake.

A 1954 graduate of Farmington High School, the new Mrs. Janisse has been employed at the Northville State Mental Hospital, Mr. Janisse, who is self employed, was graduated from Brighton High School in 1951 and served two years in the armed forces.

Contract Bridge
Course Offered

A course in contract bridge, sponsored by the Farmington High School, will open this Thursday evening, October 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the high school.

It was pointed out that this will not be a lecture course, but one of actual play. All players are advised to bring their own cards and score pads.

The class will be divided into a beginners group and an intermediate group for those knowing how to play but wishing to improve their game. Mrs. Marie J. Boschart, Michigan's leading bridge teacher, who will conduct the class, indicated that a simplified Goren count will be used.

Further information on the course can be obtained by calling either the Farmington Board of Education or the instructor at VERMONT 6-2591.
