

Celebrate Golden Wedding Year

Mr. and Mrs. John Hackbart celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary on October 20.

After services at the Grace Lutheran Church, Sunday, October 21, a reception was held at the American Legion Hall at 15585 Beech Road and Five Mile Road.

The Hackbarts, of 20866 Rensselaer, Farmington, have two children, six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Of the six attendants at their wedding, four attended the reception. They were Mrs. Freida Rowe, Mrs. Louise Kaiser, Mrs. Emil Rust and Mr. Fred Marquardt, all of Lansing, Michigan.

Ed and Rita Moushamer of Moore Drive spent a recent weekend in Toronto, Canada, at a reunion of Rita's family.

Alta Loma Sub Happenings

Larry Henderson of Alta Loma Drive celebrated his fourth birthday on Sunday with a family party. On hand to help him celebrate were his grandparents, the R. L. Hendersons of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons and his cousins Sharon and Clifford from Birmingham and Gary, David and Jack White of Detroit.

The appointment of Jack H. Smith of Moore Drive as director of the copper division of the Business Defense Service Administration by the Department of Commerce was disclosed this week. His headquarters will be in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Smith is on loan from the Wolverine Tube division of Calumet and Hecla Inc. where he has been east-central district sales manager.

A welcome is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pell and their sons, Gregory, Gary and Bill. The Pells, who recently moved into their new home on Cass Court, are from Inglewood, California.

Peg and Loren Jenks of 31005 Alta Loma, recently returned from a combined business and pleasure trip of three weeks. They motored through Nashville, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and spent two weeks at Fort Lauderdale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Boynton. Another high spot on their trip was a visit to Cypress Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Neitert Sr. from Dayton, Ohio, were visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Dick Wright and Jeanette Neitert of Moore Drive recently. Coming up on the Sunday of the weekend in which they were here was Mr. and Mrs. E. Wright from Flat Rock. The Wrights are Dick's grandparents.

Sara Suzanne DeLong served as maid of honor for her sister. She wore an apricot colored crystal-embroidered, street length dress and carried a cascade of gold and rust colored nuns with ivy tendrils. She wore a matching feather hat.

Dressed the same as the maid of honor and acting as bridesmaid were Patricia Gibson, Blanche Thomas and Pauline Thomas. Julie Thorson, dressed in a bronze crystal-embroidered gown and carrying a nosegay of matching nuns, was the flower girl.

Serving as his brother's best man was Emil Thomas. Ushers were Rodney Hoffmeyer of St. Clair Shores, Gary Wood of Sandusky, and Leo Peres of Pontiac.

DeLong-Thomas Speak
Wedding Vows Oct. 13

At an afternoon ceremony at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church on Saturday, October 13, wedding vows were exchanged by Judith Ann DeLong of 25220 Harcourt Street, Farmington, and Arthur D. Thomas of Allen Park.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Carl Schultz before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli, carnations and nuns. Mary Carolyn Harnes played at the organ "Because" and "O, Perfect Love."

For the wedding the bride wore a gown of Italian silk and imported chintilly lace, embellished with pearls and sequins. The gown was fashioned with an Italian sabrina neckline, and princess style bodice. The bouffant skirt with its insert of lace draped to a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of French silk illusion was gathered to a Juliet cap of tulle and pearls.

She carried a cascade of stephanotis, carnations and ivy tendrils, centered with a white orchid corsage.

Blue Star Mothers

The Blue Star Mothers of Farmington Chapter 49, held their October business meeting in the Clarenceville fire hall, on Thursday 18.

President Margaret Kahrl, Treasurer Lettie McIntyre, Irene Krueger, Elta Vanderburgh, Bertha Werschim and Fern Harnage have returned from Columbus, Ohio, on Wednesday evening where they had attended the Fourteenth National Convention. They gave reports of the many activities at the convention and of their visit to the V. A. hospital at Chillicothe, Ohio, where the Blue Star Mothers of Ohio have constructed a stadium for the use of veterans at the hospital.

They also met Janet Wang from Korea. She and Mr. Wang have the responsibility of the Gospel Mission there, where the Farmington Chapter has adopted a little girl, "Blue Star."

The Farmington Mothers will visit the Dearborn V. A. Hospital on October 30, where they will serve with the W.C.T.U. women from Royal Oak, under the direction of Mrs. Mary MacDonald, chairman at the Dearborn hospital for the past ten years.

The Farmington Chapter will soon present an American flag to Brownie Troop 224. The American Chairman Irene Krueger and Mrs. Werschim will do the honors.

November 14, the Blue Star Mothers will serve their luncheon at the home of Mrs. Margaret Kahrl on State street. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m., followed by cards for the afternoon.

November 15, the regular business meeting will be held in the Clarenceville fire hall at 1 p.m.

November 20 will be Hospital Day at Maybury Sanatorium for a Thanksgiving party. Rochester Chapter 14 will assist Farmington Chapter.

Following the business meeting on Thursday, October 18, the Mothers served birthday cake with tea in honor of Elta Vanderburgh, Gladys Williams, Estelle Sjaholm, Mary Morris and Alice Mitchell were unable to be present for their birthday honors. Several pictures were taken of those attending.

The Chapter Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. Vanderburgh on December 12. Only the members attend. There will be an exchange of gifts to each member and secret prizes. The time of the party will be given at a later date.
