THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE HOMETOWN INDEPENDENT BANK

1. Independent banking is a traditional part of the American enterprise system.
2. Our directors and officers are men who have a wholehearted interest in the prosperity and well-being of the community. They know its conditions and needs intimately.
3. A good portion of our depositors' funds is reinvested right here — in sound loans to the individuals and businesses of our banking area.
4. You can do business directly with the officers of our bank — they're right here to advise and serve you. (It's not a matter of decisions made from written records sent to some far off point!)
5. Whether you deposit or borrow — you benefit by dealing with this hometown independent bank.

MRS. JERRY LEWIS

Honored On 80th Birthday Sunday At Family Celebration, Open House

On Sunday, November 25, an open house was held in honor of Mrs. Jerry Lewis in celebration of her eightieth birthday. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris, 23-737 Orchard Lake Road. Mrs. Harris is Mrs. Lewis' daughter.

Spry and active in her daily life, Mrs. Lewis indulges in the culinary art of baking breads, cakes and pies, much to the delight of her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Corcoran, with whom she has made her home, at 25827 Orchard Lake Road, for the past three years.

Mrs. Lewis was born Flora Bartz in Concord, Wisconsin, in 1876. She met and married Jerry Lewis in Ottawa, Wisconsin in 1896, taking up residence in Detroit soon thereafter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis had nine children, four daughters and five sons, who are all living. Six of the children were with their mother on Sunday. A daughter, Mrs. Cliff Warner of Rochester, Michigan, and sons Clayton Lewis and William Kent Lewis, who reside in California, were unable to attend. Mr. Lewis passed away in 1948.

Of the 35 guests wishing Mrs. Lewis a happy birthday were friends and members of her family.

Daughters and their families in attendance were: Mrs. Fred Stalker of Wallace Avenue, Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris and daughter, Evelyn, grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harris of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Corcoran and family, Farmington. Mrs. Lewis' sons and their families present. Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lewis of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Lewis and daughter, Jacklyn, of Dearborn, and Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Sr., and son, Mark, of Detroit.

Friends dropping in to extend good wishes were: Reverend and Mrs. Richard Geiger, Mr. and Mrs. Jose and son, Al, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harris and daughter, Gail, Mrs. Harry Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Evert.

Mrs. Lewis received many beautiful bouquets of flowers, and proudly wore a corsage on her birthday. The guests were served a buffet luncheon in the evening.

Distribution Of New Phone Books Begins

Distribution of new telephone directories to phone users of the Farmington local calling area will be started today, Thursday, November 29, area manager for the Michigan Bell Telephone company, Robert D. Maurer, disclosed earlier this week.

A total of 13,488 directories for the area were printed this year, he said, or almost 1,500 more than were required for distribution a year ago.

Included in the Farmington book this year will be listings for Livonia, Mayfair, Northville, Southfield and Walled Lake, all communities in Farmington's local call area. This is a departure from last year's procedure, when a separate book containing these listings was distributed, Maurer said.

Maurer said that both of the old directories will be picked up at the time the new editions of the Farmington directory are delivered. He reminded customers to remove valuable papers and to copy private telephone lists from the old books in preparation for giving them up.

He called attention to the first few pages of the directory where there is information about the telephone business, how to place calls, the proper telephone numbers to call to report service troubles, or get assistance on telephone matters, and large spaces to write in fire and police emergency telephone numbers.

Farmington Hills News

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gregory of Dohany Drive entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koroly of Detroit at Thanksgiving dinner in their home.

Max Stevens of the Stevens' Brothers Heating Company and a group of other hunters are at their hunting lodge near Midland, Michigan, where they expect to remain until December 1.

Don Blouin of Dohany Drive, who has been in the hospital, is reported recovering nicely and should be home soon.

Mrs. Mary Gregory is the new Den Mother for Scout Troop 110, Pack 6, of this area.

Fred L. Bouchard of Lee Lane returned from near Alpena last week with a six-point buck. Roy Hoelt also returned from the northwoods, where he was hunting, but was unsuccessful in bagging a deer.

Heap on more wood!—the wind is chill; But let it whistle as it will. We'll keep our Christmas merry still.
