

Easterners Wed
By Local Minister

In order that they might be married by their friend, the Reverend Walter E. Kellison, John C. Hansen of Boston, Massachusetts, and Marie Swank of Long Island, came to Farmington to be wed on Saturday, November 16. Mr. Hansen is finance director of the Universalist Church of America.

After the ceremony, a reception for the couple was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Costello on Pine Lane Drive.

The newlyweds attended services at the Farmington Universalist Church on Sunday and on Monday started on their honeymoon, after which they will return to the east to live.

Young Couples
Dance Planned
At YWCA Nov. 30

The "Friday Nighters," a young couples' club sponsored by the Northwest YWCA, will meet Friday, November 30, at 2:30 p.m. for an evening of round, square and social dancing. The group is open to all young couples in the area. Billie Brennan of 17-203 Glastonbury, a popular caller, will be in charge of the dancing. Get acquainted mixers, games and refreshments will also be features of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. David Everhart, adult activities chairman for Northwest YWCA, will be in charge of the program.

Further details may be secured by calling Mrs. Martha Becker, executive director, at the Branch building, 17268 Redford Avenue. Call KE. 3-6226.

Last year, state and national organizations sponsored $50 research projects valued at over $13,000.00 at The University of Michigan.

Civic Assn. Heads
To Meet Nov. 29

The new board of directors of the Farmington Township Civic Association will hold its initial meeting of the season on Thursday evening, November 29, at the home of President George Steinberger of Queensboro Avenue, Franklin Knolls.

The new officers besides Mr. Steinberger are Edward Schmid, treasurer, and Mary Allison, secretary. The remaining members of the board are Arthur Bassette, past president; Charles Ghesquiere, Conrad Braseth, president of the Clarendonville Civic Association; Adolph Stolpe and Mrs. P. Schlotterbeck.

Plans for the activities of the coming year will be initiated.

A.A.U.W. To Hear

Highlighting the November 29 meeting of the Farmington American Association of University Women will be a talk by City Councilman V. O. Bates. Bates will discuss the future of the local government. Mrs. David Mills, legislative chairman, has made the arrangements for the evening's program.

The meeting will start at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. George Nahstoll, 30105 Ten Mile Road. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Robert Benjamin, chairman; Mrs. James Cavanaugh, Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mrs. Harley Gibson, Mrs. George Peacock, Mrs. D. B. Bates and Mrs. R. E. Williamson.

Botsford P.T.A.Christmas Party
Plans Now Made

Plans are now being made for the Botsford P.T.A. Christmas party to be held on Thursday, December 20, at 8 p.m. in the multipurpose room at the Botsford School.

Men are asked to bring a small gift to exchange with other men, and women to bring a gift to exchange with women. Those wishing to be also asked to bring a can of food to go in a basket for a needy family.

Traditional Christmas songs from the Clarendonville high school. Colored movies and slides of the Halloween parade held at Botsford School this year will also be shown.

The program will be concluded with a community sing and the serving of refreshments.

Men always have hope of a better world when they see the miracle of Christmas.

MR. and MRS. VEIKKO R. SANDELL

Culham, Sandell Speak
Marriage Vows Oct. 27

Saturday, October 27, the Bethesda American Lutheran Church of Detroit was the scene of a candle-light ceremony which united in marriage Miss Gertha Culham and Veikko R. Sandell, Gertha is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Culham, Sr., of Farmington, and Veikko is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sandell of Kaleva, Michigan.

Reverend Leon W. Appel performed the double ring ceremony. The bride was dressed in a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace over taffeta with a scalloped neckline trimmed with seed pearls. She wore matching gauntlets of chantilly lace and carried a white Belle topped with an orchid and streamers of staphenotis and daisies.

Ellen Culham attended her sister as maid-of-honor and wore a ballerina length dress of light green iridescent taffeta with dark green velvet trim. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids, Shirley Munding, Joyce McArthur and Ruth Sandell, wore identical dresses and carried bouquets of yellow Fug'wums.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Culham wore a dress of champagne satin. The bridegroom's wife was dressed in a navy blue tulle suit. Both mothers wore corals of pink carnations.

The bridegroom chose James Evans as his best man. Serving as ushers were William Longhurst, Clifford Culham, Jr., and Kenneth Legowsky.

After the ceremony, a reception was held for approximately 150 guests at the V.E.W. hall in Detroit. The couple left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and later returned to their new home in Livonia.

The bride was a graduate of Farmington High School and was graduated from the Detroit Business Institute, where she was a member of Alpha Iota sorority.

The bridegroom is a 1951 graduate of Kaleva High School and is now employed with Michigan Bell Telephone.

Over 800 interested parents were in attendance last week at the Senior High open house.

James Geiger, school principal, welcomed parents, with Don Peck, her president of the student council, acting as master of ceremonies.

The Girls' Glee Club rendered two selections under the direction of Mr. Peck.

C. R. Carlson, American Field Service representative, spoke on the functions of that organization, after which Barbara Place, a local student who visited Turkey on the exchange program, spoke of her experiences there. The Indonesian exchange student, Mr. Noor, presently at F.H.S., on the exchange program, spoke, as did a Philippine exchange student attending school in Livonia.

Acting as guides during the open house were members of the Student Council. Mothers of numerous students acted as hostesses and served refreshments.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Year

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Smith of Detroit were honored on their golden wedding anniversary at the home of the Ford Buckner's on Brookdale Avenue, Farmington, recently. Mrs. Buckner is the Smiths' daughter.

Eighty-five guests, including friends and relatives, were present for the celebration. The tables were decorated with two golden trees trimmed with 100 gold-plated silver dollars. The traditional golden wedding anniversary cake carrying out the table color scheme of gold was served.

A buffet lunch was served to guests, including parties from Detroit, Milford, Trenton, Dearborn and Rochester.

Library Friends Hold Annual Meet

The annual meeting of the Farmington Friends of the Library was well attended last Tuesday, despite the change of location of the meeting to the cafeteria of the Junior High School due to the open house in the Senior High School.

President John T. Cook, Jr., reviewed the accomplishments of the organization for the past year. Receiving the report with interest were members of the District Library Board, all of whom attended the meeting.

Mrs. Leona Stidwell, program chairman, introduced C. Goddard Smith, president of the District Library Board, who gave an illustrated talk on the status of the new library, and how it might be more readily achieved. Mrs. Clarence Stoll and Edw. and Mosman also gave talks on library work and its value to a community.

Harold Whiting and Mary Allison, who were elected to be the new directors of the Friends, and Mrs. Kenneth Lachmann were elected to a three-year term to fill the vacancy created by Mrs. R. M. Griniger.

Refreshments were served by a committee of Mrs. Harold Whiting, Mrs. Leona Stidwell and Mrs. R. M. Griniger.

C'ville High PTA
Meeting Features
Panel Of Parents

Parents of students attending Clarendonville High School discussed the role of the student in the home, and the role of the parent in the regular meeting of the High School PTA held Tuesday, November 20. The views of parents were aired in a panel discussion moderated by Richard Hixon, Clarendonville faculty member.

The panel discussion was a follow-up of a previous discussion held by students on the role of parents in the home, community and school. Panel members included Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Hanford, Mrs. George, Mr. Laurason, Mr. Mann and Mr. Johnson.

Following a symposium, questions from the floor were invited. Panel members as well as members of the audience discussed the topic and stated their views on the matter.

The regular business meeting was held following the panel discussion.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

WOMEN'S CLUB

The Farmington Women's Club will meet Wednesday, December 5, at 2:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Rayle, 34458 Oakland.

A Christmas program will be held.

The holiest of all holidays are those kept by ourselves in silence and apart, the secret anniversaries of the heart when the full tide of feeling overflows.

Two Local Women
To Have Best Oil
Paintings Shown

Oil paintings done by students in the Northwest Young Women's Christian Association oil painting classes will be hung on public exhibition at the Detroit Edison branch office, 21600 Grand River, the week of December 3 to 7.

Among those from Farmington who have paintings hung are Mrs. Glady Hart, 31654 Rock Crest and Mrs. Leroy Taggart, 21309 Colgate.

More than 40 paintings will be displayed. Still lifes and landscapes comprise the majority of them, and some will be for sale. The paintings have been produced under the instruction of Mrs. Elsie Deehan, 16534 Trinity, who teaches four art classes at the Northwest YWCA. Mrs. Deehan is a member of Palette and Brush and also the Michigan Water Color Society.

All students in Mrs. Deehan's classes are amateurs, and many of them have been in her classes since they were begun at Northwest Branch four years ago.
