Enrollment Opens
For YWCA Classes

YWCA winter classes will begin Monday, January 14. Harriet Bowe, educational director, has announced.

The new class this term at Northwest Branch YW, 17268 Redford, is an indoor ski school which will cover the techniques of good skiing and the choice and care for equipment. Special ski trips will be arranged by the instructor, Jack Town.

YWCA classes are scheduled for the convenience of both home-makers and the woman with a job. Miss Bowe said, "Many of the classes are open to both men and women."

Registration for classes opened at each branch January 2.

Captain and Mrs. Allen Anneberg left for Crailsheim, Germany, recently where Captain Anneberg will be stationed at an Army hospital for the next two years.

Mrs. Anneberg is the former Joan Aschenbrenner, daughter of Mrs. Zae H. Aschenbrenner and the late Doctor Aschenbrenner.

The Duncan Carters are entertaining Mr. Carter's mother, Mrs. Mary Carter and a sister and niece, Mrs. Nora Nicklin and daughter Ann, from Toronto, Canada, over the holidays. Mrs. Mary Carter is on the faculty at the University of Michigan.

The Carters gave an egg-nog party in their honor on Sunday.

Dick Tupper entertained 32 of his former Farmington High Classmates and their wives at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Tupper of State Street, last week at a combined Christmas and reunion party.

The party also afforded Dick an opportunity to introduce his bride, the former Donna Rosen from Duluth, Minnesota, to his many former classmates. Dick wed the former Miss Rosen in October.

Following a great deal of reminiscing and some dancing the group enjoyed a buffet dinner.

Dick and Donna recently purchased a new home on Springfield.

Drive which they expect to move into sometime in February.

On Christmas Day the Roy D. Jones family of 3315 Oaklawn Road had a telephone conversation with Warren M. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, who is now located at the Arabian American Oil Company at Dhahran, Saudi Arabia. Though he was 9000 miles away he was heard very clearly. This call was also hooked up with another son who lives in Detroit so as to have a three-way conversation.

The Elliot Tylers, Sr., of Violet Street, entertained their sons and their wives at home for the Christmas holiday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Tyler, Jr., of Ypsilanti and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tyler of Webster Grove, Missouri. All of the Tylers gathered at the Elliot Tyler home in Lansing for a New Year's celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ayres and family of Grand River Avenue were guests at a Christmas dinner party at the William Ross home in Royal Oak. Mrs. Ross is Mrs. Ayres' sister.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bright of Royal Oak, Mrs. Ayres parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen of Connecticut, an aunt and uncle of Mrs. Ayres.

Miss Beverly Wendell is returning to her studies at Alma College Thursday, Thursday, after having spent her Christmas holiday vacation from college with her parents on Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brown and family of Grand River Avenue were Sunday dinner guests of an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence King of Detroit. Another uncle, Ed Kline of Detroit, was also present.

Mrs. Brown reported that her son Jim recently received a letter from Elaine Rowe, formerly of this area, now in Cornwall, England. She indicated that she missed skating with all of her old friends here in Farmington. Mrs. Brown said.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cizek of Glenview Drive returned the latter part of last week from a vacation which they spent visiting relatives and friends in Chicago.

The Cizeks, along with their son Cal recently moved into their new home on Glenview.

An open house will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Banfield for their 14th wedding anniversary at their home at 624 North Wixom Road on Sunday, January 6, from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

All friends and relatives have been cordially invited to attend. It is Mr. and Mrs. Banfield's request that no gifts be brought.

The Banfields formerly lived in Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Green entertained Mr. and Mrs. Roger Green and Mrs. Smith Green at dinner on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heliker and Mr. and Mrs. James Heliker were entertained at a family dinner in honor of Grace Heliker at the home of Mrs. Sarah Murray in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Green entertained Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crawford and family of Cass Lake Road on Christmas Eve. On Christmas day they entertained their mothers, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Arthur Green.

Dickie Heliker spent a few days during the holiday season with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Banfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tamm entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tolman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lasich and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Sisman at a Christmas Eve party.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Green received a plaque recently from the Green farm as a centennial farm. The farm which has been in the Green family for 100 years, is known as the Arthur Green farm, and is located on 14 Mile Road.

HOLIDAY VACATIONS

"Mrs. Grace Redner and Miss Ann Redner of Farmington spent Christmas week in Jamaica, British West Indies, staying at the Silver Seas Hotel. They returned to New York City for New Year's Eve and saw 'Most Happy Fella'."

The first wartime atomic blast at Hiroshima destroyed 62,000 of 90,000 buildings, and irreparably damaged 6,000 more. Today atomic weapons are many times more powerful.

MRS. WILLIAM CLARK

Speak Wedding Vows
At Kirk In The Hills

The Kirk in the Hills, Presbyterian Church was the scene Thursday evening, December 27, of the marriage of Barbara Joan Elchler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Elchler of Farmington and Mr. James William Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Clark of East Lansing. The eight o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Harold C. DeWindt in a setting of Christmas trees, poinsettias and chrysanthemums.

The bride's charmingly lace gown was fashioned in princess style with cathedral train. She wore her sister's fingertip length veil of illusion trimmed with chantilly lace and secured to a crown of pearls.

To complete her ensemble the bride carried white roses and Stephanotis.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. J. David Dewar of Farmington. Her raspberry red crystalite waist length gown and velvet crown of the same shade was set off by a cascade of pink poinsettias.

Bridesmaids were: Cheryl Turnbull of Oak Park, the bride's cousin; Susan Thompson of Mount Clemens; Mrs. David Beatty of Oxford; Mrs. Everett Bennett of East Lansing; Miss Patricia Nyberg and Miss Margaret Hamilton.

Their gowns were identical to the matron-of-honor's and their crowns were pink velvet. They also carried cascades of pink poinsettias.

Master David Dewar, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer. James Gross served as best man along with John Brogan, Roger Nelson, Eric Beermann, John Crawford, Frank Kroposchek all of East Lansing, and J. David Dewar, George Roberts, Wayne Sutton and George Isley of Farmington as groomsmen.

For her daughter's wedding, Elchler chose a floor length gown of mauve silk peau de soie and carried a white orchid pinned to a mauve satin evening bag. The groom's mother carried a floor length gown of amethyst imported silk and carried a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Belanger of Quail Hollow Road spent the four day New Year Weekend at Cadillac Lake. They joined friends at Snow Valley for the New Year's Eve celebration.

Family Celebrates
Girls' Baptisms

A family dinner was held a week ago Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Terreault, at Drayton Plains following the baptism of Dawn and Wendy Kidd, small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kidd of Schroeder Road.

The baptism took place at the Thoburn Methodist Church in Detroit with Reverend C. Laphew as minister. Reverend Laphew served at the baptism of Mrs. Kidd, the former Marie Terreault, as a baby and also read the marriage vows when she was wed to Frank Kidd. He also served at the baptisms of the other Kidd children, Allan, Sue and Jimmy.

Densie Terreault, the baby cousin of Wendy and Dawn and the small daughter of Arthur and Darnell Terreault, was also baptized on Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Terreault of Pontiac, grandmother of the three little girls, attended the service. The little girls were also visited by their great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Golt of Four Towns on the same day.
