Sub Regulations
Dear Sir:
I would like to comment on your news article covering the last Township Board meeting (January 29). The headline reads that the Board passed subdivision regulations amid protest.
This protest came from those who regularly attend Board meetings in order to protest everything. For example, when the original subdivision regulations were proposed by the old Planning Committee which those attending the

Around The Circle In Staman Acres

MRS. WILLIAM SMITH GR. 4-8292

The pinning brunch meeting for the Staman Stitches met Thursday morning, February 7, at the Belmont Road home of Mrs. Karl Boehmke. Coffee and rolls were served by the volunteers who turned out to pin cancer pads.
The duties of hostess for the sewing meet next Wednesday evening, February 13, have been graciously relinquished by Beverly Ellis; Bea Sisty, of Staman Circle Drive, has requested the meeting be held in her home, and her co-hostesses with Bev Ellis will be Gerrie Brock and Kay Durando. The group will meet at 8 p.m. sharp as usual.
Mrs. Jack Cross has requested your reporter to announce the news that the bowling-team plans are still in the making and Ray Sisty and Jack Schaefer are investigating nearby alleys for information which will be passed on to interested participants. A large number of people have shown a desire to join a mixed league composed of subdivision couples. Any would-be or accomplished bowlers are invited to contact Bea Sisty at GR 4-8320.
The phones of Barb Katterman and Joanne Smith have not been jangling constantly, but here is a place where there should be action!
The card party is planned for the Smith residence, 31838 Staman Circle Drive, on Saturday evening, February 16, at 8:30 p.m. The social committee in charge of the affair, as reported and all Staman Acresites are invited to attend. Call the Katterman residence at GR 4-8125 or Smiths at GR 4-8292.
Thoughts around the Acres are likely to revolve around the coming Sacca Dance, March 1, at Granger's Hall. The Recreation Committee expects good attendance for the festive.
The Civic Association party, and states that the orchestra is practicing square dance numbers as well as popular tunes for the evening's dancing.
Miss Randy Lutzen, daughter of Larry and Jean Lutzen, was feted by her mother at a birthday party January 22. Randy turned four years old on that day and the small fry gathered in the Belmont Road home of the Lutzens for the festivities.
Included among the party-goes were sister Sheryl Lutzen, Denny Wheeler, Debbie Waskowski, Ron
