

Christian Science Lesson Topic "Mind"

How spiritual understanding of God as divine Mind opens the way to greater abilities and opportunities will be brought out at Christian Science service Sunday. Readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" will include selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." The Golden Text is from Romans (12:2): "Be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

Almey Crab Trees Available For Planting

The beautification program of the Farmington Garden Club has taken root in Stamen Acres. This subdivision has taken the lead in planting the Almey Crab tree, Farmington's official city tree. The aim of the Club's program is to distribute as many of these trees as possible to Farmington's subdivisions.

For information on one of the 200 remaining trees, call the Farmington Garden Club Roadside Chairman, Mrs. Howard L. Richards, at GR 4-5561.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith and their daughter, Catherine, were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Griffith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange, on Mayfield Avenue.

Along The Creek In Woodcreek

EMOGENE DAVIS MA. 6-1407

Three Woodcreek boys received scouting's highest award, "The God and Country Award," Sunday, February 10. The presentation was made to Dale Preuss, Dick Lam and Carter Bill by Reverend Robert Sears at the morning service of the Franklin Community Church. The boys were then proudly escorted to their seats by their parents. Troop 48, under the leadership of Dan Dugan, attended the service in a body.

Bill and Allen Dorman entertained at a Valentine square dance party Saturday night. The two sets of dancers whirled to the calling of Norm Seay and enjoyed a buffet supper afterward.

Bill Russell surprised his family by appearing early Tuesday morning of last week on a three day pass from his base near Boston. Bill has just returned from a month in Okinawa. He stated proudly that he would have liked to stay there indefinitely, particularly as they had a houseboy to do those repulsive jobs like shining shoes and clearing up.

Mr. Preuss' Browne troop had a Valentine Party for their meeting at her home last week. Each girl was given a portion of candy which she colored and fashioned into hearts, fruit or anything else her fancy could devise. The confections were proudly taken home to the parents as gifts.

Pam Weedon celebrated her 9th birthday that day and treated the Brownies to ice cream and cake. Linda Suller marked her birthday the week before with a similar celebration.

Eleanor Preuss decided that an old fashioned quilt bee was the best way to get her quilt finished, so she invited nine ladies, to a Valentine quilt bee. It was a day. When it came to the actual quilting it was discovered that none of them actually knew very much about how to quilt. Fortunately, Emma Coyle came to the rescue with some good ideas, and with her help they got the quilt well underway.

A large group of friends and neighbors enjoyed square dancing in the Norman Seay's garage Saturday night, February 9. Refreshments topped off an evening of fun.

Bob and Ruth Weaver spent last weekend visiting Bob's mother and sister in Haddonfield, New Jersey. Ruth is staying on until Monday and will go up to Philadelphia to stay with an aunt and cousin. The Weavers had a chance to see their son Bob who came up from Norfolk, Virginia, for the weekend.

Bob and Ginny Swift report a fabulous time in the York City at the "My Fair Lady" which they loved the best show they had ever seen, and also saw "Lili Abner" and "Dance T. A. K. T. E."

There was a formal dinner dance, a Gay Nineties party and dancing to Guy Lombardo's band at the Commodore, and of course shopping along Fifth Avenue.

Ginny went to a breakfast at Altman's followed by a lecture on interior decorating, a luncheon and fashion show at the Pierre Hotel, with Mary Margaret McBride present, and a luncheon at the Athletic Club, with a Japanese expert who demonstrated flower arrangements using Hawaiian flowers.

Jack was a guest of the Conrad Lam family while his parents were away.

Looking Ahead

By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON

Looking ahead and new ideas, he's free to do so. This keeps a steady flow of improvements going into American products. The consumer benefits tremendously. ALL production is shipped by the consumer's desires.

Many of the present-day industrial leaders came up through the ranks of employees. They were ambitious, industrious, enterprising—and free to work for advancement. American competition, along with our freedom to advance, has developed the finest industrial and business management in the world. American management goes through a process of "serenity" by competition. In competition management cannot survive the keen competition of our free market. The most efficient rise to the top. This means better jobs and a more secure future for employees and better products at less cost for the consuming public.

Big Job Investments
The final factor in America's record-breaking economic progress is the freedom to invest under private ownership. In industry, investment is the secret of productivity. For a hundred years there has been constant advancement in industrial machines until today we have "automation." The development and building of new production tools is expensive. A century ago a man's tools in manufacturing cost only a few dollars. Today the average job in American industry requires an investment of more than $12,000—per job! This is one of the major factors, of course, in our unmatched productivity and our unmatched living standard.

We should be reminded that the key word in each of the five accelerators of our great production is "freedom." Take freedom from any phase of our economic system and our progress would stall. For our self-preservation and welfare, we must watch carefully and guard against all encroachments on freedom in the economic life of our nation.
