Bible Comment:
Humility, Service Are Highest of Human Values
JESUS was the guest in the home of a prominent Pharisee on the Sabbath. Present were others who were spying on Him. And, among the company, was a man who had the dropsy. Jesus realized that these narrow-minded people, knowing His reputation for healing, were wondering whether or not He would heal the sick man. So Jesus took the initiative and asked them, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath Day or not?" They ignored His question, but Jesus went ahead and healed the man anyway. Jesus, realizing the thoughts of the company at the table, asked them a further question, "Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a well and will not straightway draw him up?" Again, they did not answer. But silence evidently did not indicate consent or approval of the line of reasoning Jesus had done. "What is the highest thing in personality?" Jesus here suggests that a very high thing—if not the highest—is humility. The more a man feels the height of great standards, the more the glory of the moral law appears to him. The less he will be disposed to overvalue himself. The finer a man's spirit the keener his perception of the more invisible is it that his attitude is one of humility toward God and toward his fellowmen. So, along with this lesson of humility, Jesus taught the lesson of kindness and service to others. Blessedness in life, according to Jesus, comes not from what we do for those who can recompense us, but in what we do for those who are in need. It is the things we do without hope of reward that constitute our real expression of what we are and what we value most.

Flash floods in Kentucky two weeks ago sent the Women's Missionary Society of the local Bethel Baptist Church in search of clothing and bedding to aid the victims. Miss Gladys Barouch, of Duane, Kentucky, a Bethel Missionary, phoned that many of her area residents had lost all or some of their possessions in the flood and to desperately in need of bedding and clothes. The Bethel Women's Group, aided by friends and other church members, at once began gathering together new and used clothes and bedding. In a day long work session, the women mended quilts and bundled the aid supplies for delivery to desperately in need of bedding and clothes. Aided by a station wagon borrowed from their son, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Dickerson drove to Kentucky with a load of blankets, quilts, several boxes of men's and women's clothes and other essentials.

THOMAS BLATTER Wins Top Catholic Scouting Award

On Sunday, February 10, Thomas Blatter, Explorer-Advisor of Troop 116 of Our Lady of Sorrows was presented with a Saint George Award by The Most Reverend Charles H. Nelligan at a ceremony at the University of Detroit.

This is the highest Catholic award for men in scouting. Blatter was the first man in the Clinton Valley Scout Council to receive this award. A total of ten men were presented the award in the Arch Diocese of Detroit.

Blatter has been extremely active in scouting. Beginning at Pack treasurer of Pack 45 he later moved up to Scoutmaster of Troop 116. After serving in this capacity for some time he then turned a new Explorer group.

Last year he was a campore director of the Ottawa District. He holds Brotherhood membership in the Order of Arrow, an honorary camping group in scout-ing.

Active in his church as well, he is an usher and a member of the Holy Name Society and Men's Club. He was also instrumental in the organization of the Catholic Youth Organization at Our Lady of Sorrows.

Photographs of the earth's bulges will be possible with specially de-signed telescopic cameras used in conjunction with man-made satel-lites.

G. S. Troop 116 Has Investiture

Ann Noor, an exchange student at Farmington High School from Indonesia, was guest of honor at an investiture ceremony held Wednesday, February 13, by Girl Scout Troop 116. The troop presented a friendship pin to Ann as she told many questions about Indonesian living conditions and schools which Ann answered, adding many interesting facts. She donned her native costume for the group. Gloria Donkhalis was invested as assistant leader and was also presented with a world association pin. Committee members, Ethel Graham, Doris Smith, and Judith Johnson were presented with Girl Scout pins. The girl members of the troop received stars for years of service and world association pins.

Precious officers, forming the court of honor, planned the investiture ceremony. They baked heart shaped cookies, made a centerpiece and prepared candle-holders for the ceremony. Denise Johnson, secretary, Kathy Warner, treasurer, Kathy Bennett, sergeant-at-arms, and Kathy Erma-ovich, Janet Missak, and Merry Sue MacIvaine, patrol leaders, composed this court of honor.

A meeting of the mothers of Troop 116 was held Monday, February 18, at the home of Ethel Graham. Following discussion of troop matters, Chick Millard presented the film on day camping and Martha Dickerson talked on scouting, giving organization, meaning, etc.
