Area Officials Greet New DSR Line Extension

Top officials from Redford, Livonia, Farmington and Southfield met at the intersection of Grand River and Inkster Road Monday afternoon at 4:45 p.m. to welcome the extension of the Grand River DSR bus service to this point.

Present at the intersection at 4:45 p.m. when the first bus from downtown Detroit arrived at the end of the extended line were: Leo J. Nowicki, DSR general manager; Richard Manning, Redford Township supervisor; William Brashear, mayor of Livonia; Robert Lindbert, mayor of Farmington; and Eugene Swem, Southfield Township supervisor.

This extension brings the total express service route lines to 288 miles in comparison to a total of 1,188 local service route miles, Nowicki said.

With the ever-increasing flow of Detroit's populace to the suburbs, the DSR is finding it more and more important to provide service to these outlying areas, Nowicki said.

The population of Detroit City, legal limits, in 1950 was 1,849,568. By 1956 this had grown to only 1,510,000, or a growth of 3.3 per cent.

The Detroit metropolitan area, however, which encompasses Detroit and its suburbs, had a population of 3,016,197 in 1950. In 1956 it showed a total of 3,870,000 or a growth of 21.7 per cent.

This rapid suburban growth is being taken into account in DSR planning for the future.

Friends of the Herbert Neal family who might still want to express sympathy, are asked to send contributions directly to the "Roland Neal Scholarship Fund," at the Drury College, Springfield, Missouri.

The Neal Fund was set up in honor of Doctor Roland Neal when he retired as head of the Chemistry Department at the Drury College. He served as head of the Chemistry department at the college from the year 1926-1954. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Neal also attended Drury College in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Forster of Kansas were here with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Neal, at the time of their bereavement. Kenneth E. Forster from Coytes, New Jersey spent last weekend visiting the Herbert Neal family of Rockshire Drive.

Springland subdivision residents can be very proud of their Den 14 Cub Scouts. At the Pack 109 meeting, held at the Middlebelt School on Thursday, March 7, Den 14 were awarded the "Tom Tom." The Tom Tom represents the excellence and outstanding appearance, sincerity, and attendance of the entire group.

The following boys received special awards: Wolf Badge—Jimmie McIlutcheon; and Bobby Muir; Bear Badge—Jim Evers; Webelos—Rickey Carpenter; Gold Arrow—Michael Hart; Silver Arrow—Michael Hart.

Den 14 also performed an Indian dance and enacted a skit written by Mrs. McIlutcheon. The skit was called "Indian Tales Told in Indian Sign Language." The costumes were made by the mothers.

The ankle bells and tom-toms were made by the boys with assistance of their mothers and fathers.

Mrs. Richard Carpenter who has relinquished her role as Den Mother deserves much of the credit for the awards and excellence of the cubs in Den 14. She has continued to be an aide and consultant for the members of the Den.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie O'Donoghue of 25424 Springfield Drive proudly announce the arrival of a son.

Gill Road PTA To See Movie On Sex Deviates

The Gill Road School P.T.A. will meet on Monday evening, March 18, at 8 p.m.

Officer Earl Tegples, of the Farmington Township Police, will present the film "The Dangerous Stranger," a comprehensive picture on sex deviates and the dangers they present to children.

P.T.A. officials stated that they would welcome comments from the audience to the advisability of showing the film to the children.

Since spring is known to be the most dangerous season for this type of offense, all parents are encouraged to attend this meeting.

Two From Area Pledged To U. of M. Fraternities

Two Farmington students were among a group of 321 men pledged to social fraternities at the University of Michigan on March 4.

David H. Cargill of 33917 Macomb was pledged to Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity; and John Rodney Layton of 33914 Macomb to Zeta Psi fraternity.

Pledges will be initiated into their respective fraternities either in May or early next fall. Pledging followed several weeks of "smokers," open houses, luncheons and dinners in the 42 U.M. social fraternities.
