

Jr.-Sr. High PTA Elect Officers; See Film, Hear Talk On Handicap

Members of the Junior-Senior High PTA held an election of officers last week with new officials for the 1957-58 school year being selected.

Elected president was Mrs. Everett Billie. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Alastair McGaw, vice president; William Wilson, senior high father; Mrs. Ray Bodinus, senior high mother; Lee Peel, senior high father; Harold Saterquist, junior high father; Mrs. Richard Rhodes, junior high mother; Ronald Larelere, junior high father; Mrs. Henry Grinslow, president; Mrs. Clifford Meredith, recording secretary; Michael Berling, treasurer; and Mrs. James Pruett, historian.

At the meeting members of the various PTA groups attending had an opportunity to view the Oakland County PTA Council in the process of holding a regular meeting and election.

Highlight of the evening meeting was the showing of a film entitled "The Handicapped Child and His Parents." Following the film a panel from the Oakland County Board of Education answered questions from the floor on the movie and about the handicapped child's educational program in the County.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of 31196 Westhill Drive, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joan Jane, to John Joseph Kosecki, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kosecki of 7079 Palmetto, Detroit. Joan is a 1953 graduate of Farmington High and is presently employed by Detroit Milling Cutter Company. Jack is a graduate of Cass Technical High School and is employed at Chrysler Engineering.

An early fall wedding is being planned.

In And Around Springland MRS. RALPH EYERT

Arthur Schoun of Runnymede Drive is one of the first management trainees from the engine and foundry group to receive gold keys for academic achievement at Henry Ford Community College.

Mr. Schoun is a supervisor in the Foundry Division, and is a graduate of Ford Company Apprentice School. He is also a graduate from Ford Basic Management Program with Associate in Science degrees. He has been a Ford Employee since 1937.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coryell of Orchard Lake Road, have returned to their home after nearly three months vacation.

They left in January for California where they visited with their daughter, and family, the Fred Sikes, Ronnie and Steve, at Fairfax. Enroute home this month they spent a week in Cincinnati to be on hand for the wedding of son, Ralph L. Coryell, Jr., and to host the rehearsal dinner on a Friday night at the Kenwood Country Club.

The bride is the former Mary Kathryn Asquith of Cincinnati. Her flower girl, Mary Thorton, is the granddaughter of the P. H. Meyers of Quaker Valley subdivision, Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coryell, Jr., were photographed as they boarded a helicopter after the reception, destination the Greater Cincinnati Airport in Northern Kentucky, where they later enplaned for a Florida honeymoon. TV cameras recorded both the wedding ceremony and helicopter flight for the local audiences in Cincinnati.

Jim Evans celebrated his tenth birthday on Tuesday, March 26. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Evans of Ridgeway Drive.

Mrs. M. E. Ault of Mayfield Avenue left Saturday morning to spend the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas W. Roberts and her family in Monroe. On Saturday there was a celebration honoring the 9th birthday of Beth Anne, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts.

LOOKING over a few items of clothing which will be on sale at a rummage sale on April 6 are members of the Woman's Society of the First Methodist Church who are sponsoring the sale. Seated, left to right, are Mrs. A. J. McGaw, chairman, and Miss Meriah Andrews. Standing, left to right, are Mrs. W. Young, Mrs. R. Bodinus and Mrs. F. Boling.

First Methodist Woman's Society Planning Rummage Sale, April 6

The Woman's Society of Christ Church, Farmington, is rummaging fast and furiously for its spring rummage sale to be held Saturday, April 6.

The Rummage Sale will be held at the church, Grand River Avenue at Warner and the doors will open at 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. if the merchandise lasts that long.

All manner of clothing and household goods will be offered for sale including curtains, small rugs, bedspreads, dishes, pots and pans, radios, clocks and even furniture, with special arrangements made for the handling of large pieces. Records, books and magazines are also included. An additional feature will be the "coffee corner" where workers and patrons alike can purchase doughnuts and hot coffee.

Mrs. A. J. McGaw, chairman of the Rummage Sale, reports that the articles for sale will be displayed "super market" style so that shoppers may collect items from the various "departments" and then take all purchases to one of the "check-out" cashiers. Committee members assisting Mrs. McGaw are Miss Meriah Andrews, Mrs. Ray Bodinus, Mrs. Floyd Boling, Mrs. Donald Kijick, Mrs. William Young.

Everyone is invited to contribute articles for the sale and such times should be marked "rummage" and left at the church by April 4. For the unable to deliver their contributions, special pickups are being arranged by Mrs. Dan Guy, GR. 43413, and Mrs. Eugene McAdams, GR. 4908. For the most part, items to be sold should be clean and in good repair and clothing sizes marked when possible. However, there are several exceptions to this rule—radios and clocks need not be in

Normandy Hills MRS. H. F. HAMPTON GR. 42221

The plan approval and restrictions committee met at the home of Elliot Rogers last Monday evening where they reviewed a sketch of a proposed home to be built on lot 77 as submitted by Trivider Belong.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and their family report that they expect to be in their new home on Brittany Drive by the end of this week.

Mrs. Hazel DeGree is visiting her sister, Mrs. Schlobohn in Cleveland, Ohio, this week. The two ladies will drive to Wheeling, West Virginia, to visit their brother who is very ill there.

The Clark family took a trip to Columbus, Ohio, over the past weekend where they visited with Mrs. Clark's sister.

Beverly Hampton will be home this Friday from college and expects to bring a guest to spend spring vacation with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis honored Mr. Davis' father on his 71st birthday with a dinner on Sunday. There were nine guests present.

The Thomsons on Brittany Drive had as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill and children. The Hills were enroute from their home in South Dakota to their new home in Boston.

Southeast Corner News MRS. KATE ESTES GR. 4-2453

Miss Marion Shaw, daughter of the Roy Shaws of Clarencville, was home from Korea recently on a 10 day leave. She has expected to be away from home for a three year period doing missionary work in Korea. After 21 months in Korea, however, she had an opportunity to return to the States to bring back five dolphins.

A member of the Clarencville Church, she gave an interesting talk on her experiences in Korea while here. She left Willow Run Airport on March 12 for her return trip to Korea.

Nancy and Sharon Cropp took part in the Variety Show put on at Clarencville High Friday evening. Nancy did a baton solo and Sharon a tap dance number.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Estes were entertained by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Button of Dearborn, in honor of their birthdays recently.

Following dinner at the Colony House on Telegraph Road they went to a theatre in the downtown area.

Central PTA Elects Officers

Mrs. Edith Kuffel was elected president of the Central PTA for the 1957-58 school year at a meeting of the group on March 11. Other officers elected were: John Isola, teacher vice-president; Mrs. William McDonald, mother vice-president; Mrs. Robert Dennis, secretary; and J. Williamson, treasurer.

Slide pictures on many different points of interest in Europe were shown at the meeting. The pictures were taken by John Turlo a couple of years ago when he was in Europe. He is now a faculty member at Clarencville High.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by fifth grade room mothers.

It was reported at the meeting that tickets for the Variety Show to be presented April 13 are now available at a 11 Clarencville Schools. Members of the Central PTA were also given tickets. A clock radio will be given as a prize at the show.
