Bible Comment:

Cross of Calvary Is Sign of Triumph Not of Destruction

PIE final sacrifice of Christ oc-curred at a place called Gol-gotha, "the place of the skull." Crucifixion was a death of ig-nominy—the fate of criminals in the Roman custom of the time. This was emphasized when Christ was crucified between two thieves.

or Guined between two considerations of the special suffering was taked all the scorn and bitter; so that His enemie sould heap on Him. Over His head they I nailed an accusation in raing irony: "Jesus of Nagatwood the second of the saved others; Himself cannot save." They did not orgaine how essentially that is true, and in how mobile and it is true, and in how mobile and the second save the saved on through His secrifice just as through His secrifice just as in through His secrifice just as fice. Christ Himself had taught this very plainty when He had told the disciples that they could find life only by losing it. |

It was the Roman custom callevales somewhat the suffering of those crucified with vinegarism mixed with gall. But Christ reduced to drink in He had sought for this sarrifes. He would are for this sarrifes. He would are

He would get lis relief from God now, not from any human agency. The hours of Calvary were the darkest in human history. But healing and inapiration, Today when countless human beings are undergoing a new Calvary of humanity, may we not find hops in the Cross of Christ, as a symbol of, irlumph, not of desiruction?

apholstered part is also semi-detached from the wood.
Color-wise, there seems to be a tendency to show a lot of neutral background colors with vividly intense colors such as red and orange as accents.

A current trend to very low dining tables and chairs is explained by Miss Shipley as good for casual snacking, but for main meals, not to functional. Along with fad furniture styles such as this, she points out that furniture is not bought today as it was 50 years ago. Then furniture was bought for a lifetime of use, but today's homemakers tend to change their turnishings often and can afford to swing along somewhat with the current trend.
