right, are: Robert Nelson, back to camera, secretary of the Temporary Subdivision League; Joseph Gregory, Farmington Hills representative; Robert Burton, president of the Temporary League; and William Cogsdill, Normandy Hills representative.

Around The Circle In Staman Acres

Mrs. Alexander Chadwick

GR. 4-6865

Easter found many of our neighbors entertaining guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis had Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Erwin of York, Pennsylvania as guests for the Easter holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Thompson and their son, Keith and Fred, spent their Easter in Indianapolis visiting the parents of both Joyce and Al. Their visit was cut short because Fred had to be back in his classes at Michigan State.

The Square Dancers in Staman Acres spent an enjoyable evening at the Masonic Temple, April 23. The dance was sponsored by Jim Ellis' Lodge.

The couples that attended were Joyce and Al Thompson, Ray and Dee Ware, Robert and Katherine Williams, John and Zora Cross, and Bev and Jim Ellis.

It is nice to see little Jimmy Ellis up and around again. Complications set in after a tonsillitis operation and his recovery was slow but complete.

Tom Ranzanberger, son of Arnold and Eileen Ranzanberger, celebrated his 12th birthday by inviting Paul Christiansen and Kenton Coules to lunch at Hudson's Georgian Room and later to see "Cinderella" at the Michigan Theatre. They also got a little shopping done between lunch and the theatre.

Glancing around this week, we noticed John Grenda, Mary Caloutte, and Al Chadwick all home for vacation. By the looks of it they all spent their time doing the same things; planting grass, trees, and doing all the odd jobs there.

wives have saved for them.

Wednesday, April 24, found four reporter busy preparing for a linen demonstration given by her sister, Elsie Rogers. She had many lovely linens on display as her guests found out.

Among the guests were Eileen Ranzanberger, Gladys Hart, Marian Reynolds, Mary Caloutte, Dolores Bradtkie, Mary Lysy, Shirley Long, Marie McIntyre, Lona Dings and her daughter, Betty Hight.

The most popular item was a turquoise beach towel with seals balancing huge balls on their noses. The childrens beach towel with a clown painted on it and a throw rug shaped in the form of a cat ran a close second.

Refreshments were served which consisted of a surprise salad, home made nut bread, and coffee.

The next meeting of the Staman Stitches will be held at the home of Zora Cross on Wednesday evening, May 8, at 8 o'clock. Her address is 31731 Belmont. The Stitches are running short of white material so would appreciate any contributions.

Sunday, April 28, was a hectic day for the Al Chadwicks. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Balogh and children, Dennis, Karen, and Beth were invited to dinner.

Their visit was cut short by the sudden illness of son, Glen. We rushed him to the doctor to find that his high temperature was caused from a throat infection.

Middlebelt PTA Student Art Work To Be Displayed

A special program is planned for the next regular meeting of the Middlebelt-Noble PTA to be held Monday evening, May 6, at the Middlebelt School.

All school rooms will be opened at 7 p.m. at which time parents will have an opportunity to visit the rooms and to see art exhibits and the manner in which children learn to be creative from the time they start children through the sixth grade. Children will also be in the rooms demonstrating the various skills they have learned.

The regular PTA business meeting will be conducted following the open house period. At the conclusion of the business meeting refreshments will be served.

SAFETY CHECK

Spring is the season when home outdoor recreational equipment is hauled from storage and made ready for use. Be sure to safety check all such equipment to make sure it cannot cause accidental injury, advises insurance authorities. This includes such items as outdoor tables, hammocks and chairs, tennis and badminton racquets and nets, children's slides and swings, croquet sets and other lawn games.

Wins Promotion In Germany

Robert B. Colbaugh, whose wife, Shirley, lives at 27800 Greening Street, Farmington, recently was promoted to specialist third class while serving with the 12th Anti-aircraft Artillery Group in Germany.

Specialist Colbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick W. Fisher, 27370 Orchard Lake Road, entered the Army in November 1955 and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. He arrived overseas in July 1956 from an assignment at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

The 21-year-old soldier attended Reish High School in Dayton, Tennessee, and was formerly employed by the Steel Door Corporation in Birmingham, Michigan.
