Student Literary Paper To Contain 35 Selections

The fourth annual 'Generation', Farmington High's literary magazine, will be on sale Tuesday, May 21.

This year the magazine will contain 35 selections by 29 student authors.

Eighteen of the contributions are poems; 10 are essays; and seven are fiction stories.

The following are the contributors and the titles of their contributions:

Audrey Allen, "It's a Fine World"; David Warriner, "Something New Under the Sun"; Nancy Hodgins, "Goodbye"; Mary Ann Oman, "The Answer"; "God's Pyramids"; Bob Dwyer, "Ode To Ivy's Prickly Sweater"; Leonard Woljyna, "Plan For Peace."

Lee Jane Larch, "Moment of Revelation"; Phyllis Grogan, "The Freshman Child"; Write And Tell Me"; "A Piece of Bread"; Jackie Gibben, "Fall in My Garden."

Judy Cook, "Heritage Of A Free Land"; Judy Wissinger, "Sunset"; "Out Of Place"; Robert Smith, "My Uncle's Inheritance"; Nancy Lind, "A Step Ahead"; Linda Kelly, "Truth"; Run, Run Run"; Marcia Marsh, "The Mystery of Rustin Town"; Gary McNeese, "Why I Laugh At Paul Viaro"; Jane McLain, "Doncha Do It"; "The Crickets"; "Shady Hollow"; Elaine Hanson, "On the Run" and "Crash Chase."

Karen Senob, "Lure Of The Lakes"; "Attention Please"; Barry Plam, "In The Mood"; Ted DeGroot, "Gung-Ho"; Jane Boyce, "What Is Important."

Marcia Moorehead, "Mirrored Imaginations"; Barry Beasly, "Value"; Shirley Blus, "Friendship"; Virginia Lamm, "My Gang"; and Cora Johnson, "Days Passed." L.J.K.

Pam Chapman To Visit Germany On Exchange Plan

Pam Chapman, FHS junior, has been chosen to go to Germany as a foreign exchange student in the AFS program. Pam is one of 100 Michigan students going overseas next summer, 11 of whom are going to be placed with a family in Germany.

Pam plans to leave for Bremen, Germany from either Montreal or New York on June 19 or 22. She will travel on one of two ships, the "Broote Beer," or the "Arosa Kalm."

Before leaving Germany next fall, Pam will join with other exchange students for a festival to be held in Bremen, Germany. She will have a few day's stay in Paris, France before embarking for the United States. M.M.

Harrison Portrait Ready By Fall

The painted portrait of Mr. G. V. Harrison, gift of the Class of '56, will be completed this coming fall and placed in the library following the '57 homecoming.

Mrs. Stanley L. Krental of Franklin is going to paint the portrait.

Mrs. Krental stated that, "Just as soon as Mr. Harrison can rearrange his schedule the sittings will begin."

Mrs. Krental said that she has always been interested in art. She studied art at Michigan State University and studied sculpturing under the direction of Mr. Julius Ayres.

For the past four years Mrs. Krental has been painting with the "Adam's Guild," a group in Birmingham.

Disc Jockey Dance To Be Held May 24

The annual disc jockey dance sponsored by the Student Council has been changed this year to the "Bermuda Bonanza." The dance will be held May 24 from 8:11-10 p.m. and the admission charge will be $30 and $35 drag.

The dress for the occasion will be different from that of other dances, Bermuda shorts will be the vogue. However, one does not have to wear them in order to be admitted.

The dance was changed from the regular scheduled disc jockey dance to a plain record dance because no disc jockey whom the committee would want could come.

Sign Up 18 For Music Appreciation Course

Eighteen FHS students have signed up for next year's proposed course in music appreciation, according to tabulation of incomplete records.

Records of approximately 10 homeomors of the total of 26 present freshmen, sophomore, and junior homeomors were available or complete.

If a greater number of students display an interest in the course it will be offered as a one semester subject next year at FHS.

Majorettes Tryouts Set

Tryouts for next year's majorettes will be held May 17. Seven girls, Ann Ridings, Marcia Marsh, Christine Clark, Joan Lesgaw, Carol Menke, Bev Hale, and Ann Lumie have shown a desire to serve with the band next year.

The girls will set up a list of requirements which they feel a majorette must be able to do. At tryouts before the entire band, they will perform as many requirements on the list as they are able to do.

The band will then judge the girls and pick those that best meet the requirements. B.L.P.

Script For Annual Spring Concert Finished

The script for the FHS May 21 spring concert, "Midway Fantasy," has been written and completed by Elaine Hanson, senior, and Barbara Clayton, junior.

The script will give continuity to the gay, colorful theme of the concert.

A featured part of three brass players, Roy Temple, Ben Ridings, and John Clark, in the band selection, "Concerto Grosso," will also give sparkle to the performance.

The FHS twirlers will also perform. M.M.

Language Classes Compete Projects

The French and Spanish I and II classes have recently turned in their semester projects. The projects were to cover any phase of France or Spain.

Miss Mary Bastianelli, instructor, stated that the projects were assigned to see how well the students could incorporate some talent in French or Spanish ideas.

The projects ranged from a Mexican mosaic to a French desert. They included ceramics, cross word puzzles, puppets, maps, a copper mobile, illustrated French fashions, and dolls.

Original poems, plays, cartoons, paintings, copper craft, and a music composition were a few of the unusual projects.

A number of sewing projects including skirts and embroidery were also turned in.

"Creative and original" were the words used by Miss Bastianelli to describe the projects.

Square Dance Planned May 18

"Swing your partner and Do-Si-Do" will be heard at the Farmington Senior High cafeteria Saturday evening, May 18, when girls of Senior Girl Scout Troop 258 present their annual square dance. The dance will start at 8 p.m.

The square dance is being given to raise funds for a proposed trip by the girls to the New England States this summer.

Tickets are now on sale and may be ordered by calling GR 4-3303. Tickets will also be sold at the door the night of the dance.

INSURED BUDGET PLAN OFFER

GULF SOLAR HEAT HEATING OIL SERVICE (HOUSEHOLD REQUIREMENTS)

NOW! Group Creditors Life Insurance—Your Family's Heating Oil Requirements for the coming season Insured by Our Budget Plan.

Gulf is always seeking new ways to make oil heating more carefree, effortless, convenient and dependable. One big convenience that thousands of Gulf customers have enjoyed for years is the Gulf Solar Heat Budget Plan by which the larger mid-winter bills are eliminated; the customer pays for a year's heating requirements in nine moderate equal monthly payments.

Now, Gulf has added a wonderful peace-of-mind feature to that plan: Group Creditors LIFE INSURANCE. It is available to every budget customer under 65 years of age. Should his death occur during the payment period, Gulf will cancel his remaining payments and supply any undervolved balance of his family's heating oil requirements for the season without charge.

There is absolutely no extra charge to the customer for this outstanding insurance protection, and no medical examination is required. Gulf pays all premiums involved under a special policy arrangement with the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

Group Creditors Life Insurance becomes effective upon the first Budget payment. Should the insured die during the Budget payment period and provided his account is current, Gulf will cancel all payments remaining and supply the balance plan described above and billed by the Gulf Oil Corporation to household customers in the States of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Kentucky only.

Even though you were a Gulf Solar Heat customer purchasing on the budget payment plan over the past season, you still must fill out the Insured Budget Plan Acceptance Form if you want this added protection.

The Group Creditors Life Insurance applies to household heating oil customers only; the insurance DOES NOT apply to apartment houses or other commercial establishments.

The Group Creditors Life Insurance offer covers Gulf Solar Heat purchased on the budget payment plan described above and billed by the Gulf Oil Corporation to household customers in the States of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Kentucky only.

—plus—

- Group Creditors LIFE INSURANCE at no extra cost to you.
- To take advantage of this offer, just complete the simple Insured Budget Plan Acceptance Form and mail it. The life insurance will become effective on the due date of your September, 1957, payment, or whenever you make your first monthly payment, whichever is later.

The Group Creditors Life Insurance protection feature is available only to customers under 65 years of age.
