

St. Edith Combines Sports, VBS

Kids in St. Edith Catholic parish in Livonia can't complain of nothing to do this summer.

The church, working with young men from St. John Provincial Seminary in Plymouth, is offering a full program of sports and three sessions of Bible school to keep them busy.

Four seminarians, Larry Delonay, John Keegan, Mike Daly and Denny Wagner, are working for the summer at the church located at 15089 Newburgh.

"We noticed last year when we were directing the Bible school that a lot of kids were just hanging around," Delonay said.

"So we decided to try the sports program."

Keegan runs a full program of games and activities from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

Activities include softball, soccer, volleyball, tetherball, kickball and basketball for the active five- to 12-year-olds, as well as some craft work and quiet games.

Field trips and special events like pet shows are part of the program, and the only costs are for craft supplies, pop and transportation.

Wagner directs the Bible school, currently halfway through the second of its three two-week sessions. The last will run from July 30 to Aug. 10. Parish members work with him as teachers.

Held each morning from 9:30 to 11:30, it involves the children four through nine years of age in singing, recreation, crafts, stories and Bible readings.

Each day presents a major Bible theme geared to the age level of the children. The cost is 50 cents per week per child, and openings for the third session still are available.

Between 120 and 130 youngsters are on hand each day for activities at the church, Delonay said. About 60 percent of them are parish children, the rest from the neighborhood.

"We're glad to have everyone," the seminarian said.

Summer Adventurous For Aldersgate Teens

The junior high group in Aldersgate United Methodist Church of Redford Township is known as Christian Adventure, and the young people are living up to their name this summer.

Their Wednesday program involves about 40 teens in a varied list of learning activities, including serving activities.

The group meets at 10 a.m. for worship, study and discussion on the theme "One World and the Creator God."

At noon there is a break for a snack lunch and then some special activity in the afternoon.

This Wednesday the teens and their counselors will head by bike from the church at 10000 Beech-Daly to Hines Park and Plymouth. On July 25, there will be a bus tour to Lansing to visit the offices of State Rep. John Markes and tour the capitol and the Michigan State University campus.

Horseback riding, a swim party and a visit to a nursing home to sing and bring fresh garden flowers to patients all are planned during August.

The program will end with a trip to Cedar Point Aug. 29. The trip has been partially financed through a car wash and paper drive earlier in the year.

To make a well-balanced summer program, the group also is helping man the Redford Township recycling station and working on the church grounds by digging out old shrubs, weeding and planting new greenery.

The young people also are assembling Christmas tree ornaments to be sold in the fall, with proceeds going to the League for the Handicapped.

All junior highs in the Aldersgate neighborhood are invited to join in the activities.

Livonia Couple Are Delegates

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Johnson of Livonia will attend the 17th quadrennial general conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church as delegates.

The conference will begin Aug. 2 in Roanoke, Va. Bishop J. Floyd Williams, the general superintendent, will preside over the week-long conference. Problems of administration, programs for the next meeting and church policies will be discussed.

Official delegates will number about 600, but it is expected that more than 4,000 persons will attend.

'One In Spirit' At Riverside

"One in the Spirit," a gospel group from Warner Southern Church at Lake Wales, Fla., will present a sacred concert in Riverside Park Church of God, 11771 Newburgh, Livonia, at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 16.

The group includes Dennis and Linda Harasty, Dennis Hines, Don Hackney and Charles and George T. Solt.

The five are on a tour of 10 states including Alabama, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina as well as Michigan.

Their program includes vocal and instrumental music and testimonials. The concert is open to the public.

St. Paul Plans Paper Drive

The Youth Group of St. Paul Lutheran Church, 20895 Middle Belt, Farmington, will hold a newspaper drive on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 20-22. A truck will be on the parking lot late Friday afternoon through Sunday evening for donations.

Larger amounts will be picked up. Interested donors should call the church office.
