

Announce Engagement Of
P. Hammond To D. Bunge

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hammond of Findlay, Ohio, announce the engagement of their only daughter, Patricia Joanne, to Donald Robert Bunge of Northville, Michigan. Mr. Bunge is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Bunge.

Miss Hammond, a registered nurse, was graduated from Findlay Senior High School and the Toledo Hospital School of Nursing, Toledo, Ohio. She is presently enrolled as a student at Findlay College.

Mr. Bunge was graduated from Farmington High School, Farmington, Michigan, in 1951 and served two years with the U.S. Army. He will receive a bachelor of science degree in biology at Findlay College in June.

A late summer wedding is planned.

Girl Scouts Plan
Car Wash Sat.

Senior Girl Scout Troop 258 will conduct a car wash this Saturday at the Pure Oil Service Station at the corner of Orchard Lake Road and Ten Mile.

Cars will be washed between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. All proceeds from the car wash will be used by the girls to help finance a proposed trip to the New England States.

The management at the service station has agreed to donate all the equipment and materials for washing the cars with the girls to provide the "elbow grease."

IT'S A GIRL

Arnold and Florence (nee Karbach) of Franklin Forest announce the birth of a baby girl, Joan Minnie, born last Thursday, May 16, at Women's Hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 5 ounces at birth.

Reports Given On Blue Star Mothers' Accomplishments During Past Year

Accomplishment reports on activities of the local Blue Star Mother Chapter during the past year were given at a regular business meeting of the group held on May 16 at the Clarenceville Fire Hall.

A report by the Americanism Committee indicated that eight American flags had been presented to as many Girl Scout Troops in and around Farmington during the past year. It was pointed out that representatives from the Blue Star Mothers had served on the March of Dimes, Blood Bank and Cancer Fund committees during the past year as well as serving at the U.S.O. in Detroit and visiting veterans at Maybury Sanatorium and taking gifts of homemade goods to them.

Irene Krueger, Mary Fox and Mary Morris were elected delegates to represent the Farmington Chapter at the annual convention of the Department of Michigan American flags in Grand Rapids from June 2 to 5. Elected as alternates were Bertha Werschin, Alice Filoot and Mable Lyons.

Mrs. Alfred Lint, Sr., and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre reported on the Club meeting for the Southwest Blue Star Mothers Past President District which they attended in Port Huron on May 14.

Announcement was made that a June luncheon and card party will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Brundie at 32640 Hillcrest on Wednesday, June 12, starting at 1 p.m. The regular business meeting of the group will be held on Thursday, June 20, at the Clarenceville Fire Hall. The revealing of Secret Pals and the selecting of new Secret Pals for 1957-58 will be conducted at this meeting. Those planning to attend the State Convention in Grand Rapids are Etta Vanderburgh, Ethel Lint, Ethel Whitefoot and Lettie McIntyre, financial secretary for the Department of Michigan for the past two years. At a special session at the convention, Mary Fox will be initiated into the Big Dipper Group of Blue Star Mothers as the outstanding mother of the Farmington Chapter for 1957.

Evangelical Church Plans Special Service Sunday

The Evangelical Free Church of Farmington is planning a special Anniversary Service next Sunday morning.

The speaker will be Reverend Peter Olson, pastor of the Evangelical Free Church of Bay City. This marks a year since the beginning of the Sunday School last May. Since that first meeting of the Sunday School a morning worship service has been added as well as a monthly youth activity. The Sunday School has grown from a group of 6 to an average of 50 with a high of 68 on Easter Sunday.

These services are held in the Middlebelt School, Ten Mile and Middlebelt Road. The Sunday School starts at 10:45 a.m. and the worship service at 11:00. The public is cordially invited.

To make a tasty topping for an angel food cake, pour 1 cup warm honey over sections of six oranges. Chill and sprinkle with chopped toasted almonds. Serve over the cake.

Local Players To Hold Annual Meeting Saturday

The annual meeting of the Farmington Players group will be held this Saturday at the old McWilliams Barn, recently renovated to provide new quarters for the Players.

A pot-luck dinner will be served to be followed by an evening of dancing. This event will serve as an opportunity to initiate the new home of the Players as well as to celebrate the successful staging of the Players most recent play "Two Blind Mice." The play, given on four nights over the past two weeks, was termed a huge success and attracted capacity audiences.

Madonna College Group To Present "Miss Jimmy"

The Drama group of the Literary club of Madonna College will present a play, "Miss Jimmy," Sunday, May 26, at 7:30 p.m. in DeSales Auditorium on the campus on Schoolcraft Road in Livonia. Taking part in the cast will be Lucille Scott, chairman, Mary Anne Watson, Beverly Nowodvorske, Shari Fitzpatrick, Janet Shripka, Roseanne Seward, Judge Bess and Dee Kopaczewski. Sister M. Raynolds is moderator.

Complete Plans For Card Party

The Silver Anniversary Benefit Card Party of the Farmington Garden Club will be held this Saturday, May 25, starting at 1 p.m. at the Junior High School gymnasium on Thomas Street.

Following the serving of dessert, cards will be played with several beautiful prizes to be given away. Because this is the silver anniversary year of the club, the two special prizes to be given will be a silver tea service and a silver pitcher.

Greeting guests at the card party will be Mrs. A. F. Grosop, president of the Farmington Garden Club. Chairman of the card party is Mrs. Walter Gaertner, first vice president of the club.

Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased from any member of the Farmington Garden Club. They may also be obtained by calling Mrs. John McCormick at Mayfair 6-2995.

Plan PTA Council Panel Discussion

Plans are now being completed by the Clarenceville PTA Council for a panel discussion to be conducted at Clarenceville High on Tuesday, May 28, at 8 p.m.

The panel will consist of representatives from the school administration, past presidents of PTA and present members of the PTA. The moderator will be a past Council president.

After brief messages by each member on the panel, the audience will form into small groups where in discussion questions can be agreed upon. These questions will then be presented to the panel members, either as individuals or the group presenting the question.

All interested parents are invited to attend the meeting. The Council business meeting will be held prior to the panel discussion and will start at 7 p.m. Officers for the coming year will be installed. This meeting is also open to the general public, it was pointed out.

BEL-AIRE DRUGS

HERE IS WHAT ONE CUSTOMER THINKS:

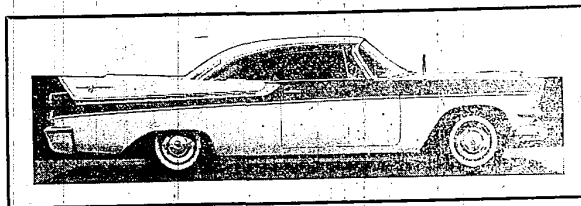

"I like filling my prescriptions at Bell Aire Drugs because of the prompt service. When my little girl was sick a year ago, I had no way of getting the prescription filled. My doctor called your Drug Store and it was delivered in 10 minutes. It gives me a great sense of security knowing we have businessmen like you in Farmington that are courteous and efficient in time of need."
