Plan Missionary Christmas Night
The annual Missionary Christmas Program sponsored by the Women's Missionary Societies of the Southfield Community Church, 2112 Indian Street, (near Eight Mile and Inkster), will be held Sunday evening, June 9, at 7 p.m., according to Pastor, Raymond Bayne.
For several years the Women's Missionary Societies have been sponsoring this event for gathering in Christmas gifts for their several missionaries overseas so that they may be shipped in time to be received by the missionaries. In addition to many cash gifts used to secure the missionaries direct, there are many other personal and household gifts for the missionaries which will be on display and numerous items brought by the children for the children of the missionaries and for the native children in their schools.
The boys and girls of the Southfield Bible School have been saving and preparing for this for several weeks and the adult classes have been making preparation for their special projects.
The service will include Christmas trees on which the little children will hang their gifts, special music and a message through magic by Mr. Barr of the Protestant Book Organization.
The second Sunday of each month is Missionary Sunday at the church and includes the holding of a church picnic at Maybury Sanatorium by the Collegiate young people.

Family Fellowship To Be Emphasized
Three activities next week will emphasize the fellowship aspect of the Southfield Community Church, 2112 Indian Street, (near Eight Mile and Inkster), according to the Pastor, Raymond Bayne.
On Monday night the Men's Fellowship under the leadership of Frank Oaks, President, will conduct a picnic for the boys of the two inter-church league baseball teams. On Tuesday evening, the members of the Pastor's Adult Bible Class and the Awkward Age Group will hold its annual Strawberry Festival at the church. On Saturday, the church will hold its annual Family Picnic at Cass-Benton Park with races, games, prizes, dinner, and community singing.
The Vacation Bible School of the church will begin the following Monday, June 17.

Credit Buying Hinges On Family Budget
Are you managing your credit or are you letting it manage you? "One of the first things to take into consideration is the family budget," says Lucile Ketchum, extension specialist in home management at Michigan State University. Will the object purchased outlast the time you'll be making payments? Will it mean better family living by saving time, giving satisfaction or protecting health? Cost also is an important factor. It is called by many names such as a finance charge added to the purchase price; a discount from the amount of the loan you receive or interest on the unpaid balance. It will vary with different lenders and with different stores, but only one tablet daily: SMITH Rexall DRUGS 11 Vitamins plus 12 herbs. Important diet protection. 5 week supply 2.59

Troop 344 Holds Court Of Awards
Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 344 of Our Lady of Sorrows held their Court of Awards Sunday afternoon.
Moved up to second class rank were Linda Mendenhall, and Ellen Soudy. All the girls earned badges that are getting them closer to their first class rank. Julie Aho, Janice Bloom, Susan Marsh, Suzanne Harris, Patricia Hoffman, Judith Jones, Julie Ann Jack, Louise Leonard and Maureen Nolan were awarded their 5 year pins.
Mrs. George Harris, co-leader of the troop, was presented with a certificate of appreciation and a spiritual bouquet by the president of the troop, Louise Leonard, who was representing all the girls.
The girls served their mothers a strawberry shortcake dessert after the Court of Awards. Each mother received a white paper carnation, made by her daughter. Yellow and green carnations, also made by the girls were used with yellow candles for the centerpieces.
After dessert, the troop and their mothers surprised their leader, Mrs. Louis S. Leonard, with a baby shower. Many lovely gifts were given for the baby-to-be.
Mrs. Leonard is leaving the Scouts as an active leader after serving 5 years. To show their appreciation for her loyal duty, the girls and their mothers presented Mrs. Leonard with a gown and duster ensemble as a parting gift.

Credit Buying Hinges On Family Budget

when you have determined what credit costs will you be able to see whether it is worth the extra money.
Miss Ketchum has compiled a folder which answers many of the questions families and homeowners ask about credit buying. She explains how to figure the annual rate of cost on your credit purchase, discusses your credit rating and suggests other questions to consider before you decide to use credit.
