

Eighth Graders Tour Court, Police Station

Eight graders from C.H.S. toured the Livonia public buildings Thursday, June 6. The classes took the excursion in connection with a unit of work on government. The eighth graders are members of Mr. Hixson's social studies classes. The trip included a tour of the FARMINGTON VETERANS' CAB Radio GR. 4-0240 Dispatch

Livonia Police Station, Court House and Court. The students attended sessions of the court and viewed several traffic cases. A new study made by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States says that high taxes do most injury to the persons who do not pay them, by discouraging business development and reducing job opportunities.

Students Receive Numerous Awards At Honor Assembly Held June 10

An honors assembly was held Monday, June 10 in the high school gymnasium. The assembly was held to pay tribute to students who had actively participated in extra-curricular activities and those who had outstanding scholastic and citizenship achievement. Master of ceremonies was Dave Stingle, a senior. The assembly was presided over by an instrumental selection by the CHS band under the direction of Mr. Nichols. Attendance awards were given by Arthur Mann, boys' counselor. Mr. Mann also honored student council members with the annual Student Council Awards. These awards went to Don Melton, Gretchen Van Camp, Elda Dossena, Darlene Hamlin, Carole Peterson, Bob Leeds, Sharon Hettis, Marie Wyss, Roy Carlson and Beverly Tucker. Miss Betty Myers, advisor of the Girls' Athletic Association, presented the awards for participation in G.A.A. Highest honors, gold pins, were awarded to Janet Van Arman, Gale Devitt, Marion Daily, Catherine Barnes, and Carole Rick. The first awards in the GAA awards were pins and letters for participation in speedball, tennis, badminton, softball, basketball, volleyball, bowling and archery. The Chess Club Trophy, a new award, was given to Jim Squair, the 1957 Chess Club Champion. Mr. Darwin Larson presented the trophy. Athletic awards were presented by the Clarenceville coaches and Mr. Nick Ianni, athletic director. The first awards were given to the track team. Mr. Leary awarded the letters. Golf awards were presented by Jack Turner. Letters were given to: included: Tony Casside, Dick Bain, Doug Wilcox and Roy Carlton. Mr. Turlo also awarded the Varsity Club paddle to president Dave Hanaford. The paddle is a new award to the president of the club. The Clarenceville baseball team, WOCL champs for the sixth consecutive year, received letter awards from Nick Ianni, coach. Mr. Ianni paid special tribute to senior members of the team, Dale Devitt, Dan Colgrove, Roy Carlton, Dave Hanaford and Leland Turnbull. "The school can be very proud of these boys," said Ianni, "for all that they have done to publicize Clarenceville."

Seniors Honored At Class Night

Annual Class Night was held Tuesday evening, June 11, in the gymnasium, to pay tribute to graduating seniors. Opening the program was a feature event involving all the graduates. The seniors were placed in a huge picture frame on the stage in groups while the narrator of the skit, Mr. Hixson, reviewed the highlights of their four years at Clarenceville. The skit was appropriately entitled, "Snaps in Snaps." Following the feature, Max Miller, principal, presented the valedictorian and salutatorian awards. The awards went to Karen Brown, Marie Wyss and Violet Paatalo, valedictorians and Donald Melton, salutatorian. Miss Brown, Wyss and Paatalo and Mr. Melton responded with speeches. The outstanding senior boy award was presented by Mr. Miller to Donald Melton. Don has been president of the student council, active in athletics and has maintained a high scholastic average throughout his years at Clarenceville. He has also participated in numerous extra-curricular activities. The GAA award to the outstanding girl athlete was made by Miss Betty Myers, GAA advisor. Miss Marion Daily received the award. Marion has been an active member of the GAA for four years. She has merited the highest number of points of any girl athlete in the last 8 years at Clarenceville. The senior boy athlete award was presented by Nick Ianni, athletic director. Dave Hanaford and Dale Devitt were dual-winners. Both Hanaford and Devitt have been outstanding athletes at Clarenceville during their high school career. Scholastic awards were presented by Arthur Mann. Recipients of scholarships were: Betty Edwards, Eastern Michigan; Marie Wyss, Madonna College; Donald Melton and Gary Gay, Michigan College of Mines and Technology; and Karen Brown, Mount Carmel School of Nursing. Kay Mann was awarded a grant-in-aid to Albion College. American Legion awards were given James Norjhan, Cynthia Beerbohm, Paul Stevenson, Russell Lawrence, and Barbara Watwood were awarded the honors. The outstanding senior girl of the 1957 class was Marie Wyss. Marie received her award from Mr. Miller. She has been a participant in the dramatics program, student council, class activities and is the valedictorian of her class. As the final activity of the evening, Dave Hanaford, senior class president, presented the giftistry to the school. The class of 57 gave the school a juke box.

Reverend Cones Addresses Seniors

Eighty-one graduating seniors attended baccalaureate June 9 at eight o'clock for the service Sunday night conducted by Reverend Chester W. Cones. Opening the program was a piano solo, "Fungue No. 16," by J. S. Bach. Miss Gail Andrews, a Clarenceville junior, was at the piano. The program featured "God of Our Fathers" by Warren. Immediately following, the group joined in song for the hymn, "All Hail the Power." Reverend Cones chose reading from St. John for the scripture lesson. The reading was followed by a vocal solo by Miss Joyce McKinney, a member of the graduating class. Miss McKinney sang "Beside Still Waters," by Bernard Hamilton. The theme of Reverend Cones' message to the graduates was "Success or Failure." He emphasized that life on earth was of life importance in relation to life hereafter, and stressed the importance of seeking God in all endeavors. Reverend Cones is minister of the First Baptist Church of Livonia. He has spoken to Clarenceville students on a number of occasions. At the conclusion of the service, the seniors marched out in procession to the music of the "March of the Priests" by Mendelssohn. This was followed by the final selection of the evening, "Pro-lude in C-Sharp Minor." Seniors and undergrads for the service were members of the sophomore class. They included: Joyce Little, Juanita Robbins, Marilyn Gay, Lois Giguere, Wanda Norrod, Roberts. The Detroit Tigers were the only American League team in 1956 to hold a winning edge over the New York Yankees. The Tigers won 12 of 22 meetings.
