Mrs. George Squires

GR. 4-4145

Walter and Hazel De Gree left Friday to visit Mrs. De Gree's sister in Cleveland for the week-end. Walter returned home Sunday but Hazel and her sister went on to visit the De Gree's daughter, Nanette. Nanette's husband is a Commander in the Navy and is stationed in Boston, Massachusetts.

Last week was birthday week in the Subdivision. Walter De Gree and George Squires celebrated the same birthday, July 12, while Pete Tomson was 10 years old on July 14.

Doug and Shirley Bloetcheer have returned from a week's vacation at Portage Lake near Ann Arbor.

The Shriners returned home from Alpena last week. They own a motel there and usually spend at least part of their summers there.

Mrs. Habicht's mother, Mrs. E. Richter, and her niece, Bonnie, came from Milan, Michigan for a four day visit last week. While they were here they visited Myra's sister-in-law in Lapeer, Michigan. June Habicht returned with them to spend some time with her other grandmother at their cottage at Diamond Lake.

Mrs. Thomson's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barron, visited with the Thomsons for several days last week. They are from Virginia. Sunday the family went swimming at a friends lake near Lake Orion.

The Clarks enjoyed a week-end of swimming at Mrs. Clark's mother's cottage up north.

Our stream turned into a river last week from all the rain. The water came pretty close to some of the homes but no damage was reported. The Redwoods new little bridge floated away but was recovered. The water came over the Rogerson's driveway cutting them off from the outside world for a while and the Newkirk's had water all around them.

The Rogersons had a family birthday dinner Saturday honoring Mrs. Rogerson's grandfather, Fred Burnside of Dubuque, Iowa, and her sister, Mrs. Ken Hamilton. Along

A neighborhood pot-luck Fourth of July celebration was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thieleman of Shadyside. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Hoelscher and family, Eugene Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ely and family, Cecil Perkins and family, Chester Orlikowski and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Nagel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fritz and family and L. P. Young and family of Livonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jagrowski of 10 Mile Road entertained with a cocktail party, in honor of their son, Gerald and his bride, Barbara, who were married in New York, June 8. The bride and groom are staying with Gerald's parents before leaving for Florida to establish six month's residence while Gerald takes pilot training with the Air Force at Bartow.

Among the many guests present was former Congressman George A. Dondero, who was responsible for Gerald's appointment to The West Point Military Academy.

I have been informed of a mistake made in our last Newsline. Frank Reader is read chairman and Mr. William Hoelscher is the president of the Woodbine Improvement Association.

Mrs. Gilbert Musselman of 10 Mile Road is in the Upper Peninsula with her family due to the illness of her father.

A welcome is extended to Herman and Nancy Trick of Briar Hill and their two children, Caroline and Jimmy, who have recently moved to Woodbine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Birnie have now returned from a pleasant and restful vacation spent in northern Michigan.

Mary and Mike Donovan are with the Robert Donovans of Wood Trail for the summer. Their home is in Barnsdall, Oklahoma.

Surviving besides her granddaughter, Mrs. Dever, is one great-granddaughter.

Mrs. L. Sauerbrei, formerly of Woodbine, has returned to her home at Zephyr Hills, Florida, after a visit here with relatives and friends.

Guys-Dolls To Hear Johnny Johnson's Band

Johnny Johnson's Quintet Dance Band will furnish the music for the Guys and Dolls Dance on Friday evening, July 19.

The first weeks litter-bug contest was won by Loraine Hawley and Richard Soop. This week's winners will compete against Loraine and Richard, and the winning couple will receive engraved gold trophies.

Dances are held at the V.F.W. Hall on Seven Mile and Grand River from eight until 11:30.

Night dips can be dangerous for swimming fans. Despite the moonlight splendor of the hour even when in a group, one can end up as a statistic in the "drowned" statistics if he is not careful, cautious authorities. Especially avoid swimming alone!

Don Rogerson's uncle, Chuck Thompson, won the boat race on Lake St. Clair Sunday. His boat, Short Circuit, was formerly the Tempo VII which he bought from Guy Lombardo. St. Clair is Mr. Thompson's birthplace and he is mainly responsible for the annual regatta, helping to initiate it in 1955. He will be racing again in the Detroit Silver Cup race on Labor Day weekend.

George and Kay Squires will celebrate their 16th wedding anniversary Thursday.

Investigate unfamiliar waters before swimming in them, advises authorities of a leading national insurance company. If possible, talk with someone who is familiar with the contemplated swimming area, they recommend. Obey any warning signs posted in the area.

Friday, July 19, is the day set for an amusing and exciting display to be held at the Hart home on 31854 Rocky Crest from 2 to 4 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

Paintings to be submitted will be from Beverly Ellis, Eileen Ranznburger, Gladys Hart, and Colleen Chadwick.

July 6 at 9:00 a.m. Bettyjo Maldonado walked up the aisle dressed in her pink net gown, shoes and hat to match, in the St. Cecilia Church in San Antonio, Texas.

She was a junior bridesmaid for Yvonne Orozco and Frank Santos wedding. The bride's parents are life-long friends of the Maldonados. The reception was held at the Menger Hotel in San Antonio.

After the wedding Loudean and Bettyjo motored to Alice, Texas where they visited Mr. Tull Hoosier, Loudean's cousin.

Sunday, July 7, Margaret Sivy was invited to Charlotte and Victor Waskowski's home for a barbeque dinner in honor of her birthday. On hand to help her celebrate were husband Len, Bev and Jim Ellis and Jim and Jean Haines.

Monday, July 8, was a hectic day for the Lohin Sheffs. Lohin and Paula started out for Women's Hospital and because of the torrential rains it took them 2 1/2 hours to get there. But happily they made it in time for little Stephen to make his appearance. The baby weighed 6 1/2 pounds at birth.

A welcome is extended to new neighbors on Rocky Crest, John and Lillian Terzano, and their three children Nancy, 7, and twins, Nadine and Norene, 4. Mr. Terzano is associated with the Sinelli Sand and Gravel Company.

The Teen Club held their last meeting at the home of Duane Custer on Rocky Crest. Their next outing is to be a swimming party at Holiday Beach. The group will meet on Friday, July 19, at 4:00 at the Al Thompson home on 31922 Rocky Crest before embarking on their trip to the beach.

Jean and Jim Haines and boys spent the week-end of July 12 visiting their friends, the James Hicksteads, at their cottage on Coldwater Lake in Coldwater. The weather was very accommodating for the outing.

It is with a sad heart we say

RECENTLY returning from a furlough at his home here at 31179 Mulford Road, Pvt. Bernard J. Sakofski has now been reassigned to duty at Fort Jackson in South Carolina. Entering the Army under the Reserve Forces Act, he received his basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.
