MRS. FRANCIS J. SAAM

Married Saturday
At Lady Of Sorrows

Joanne Helen DeNeis of 3153 Allison Drive and Francis Joseph Saam of 2889 Jerome, Oak Park, were united in marriage Saturday, August 10, at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of Sorrows Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Thomas P. Beahan. Wedding music was played by Miss Dorothy Menosky.

The former Miss DeNeis is the daughter of Joseph T. DeNeis and the late Helen DeNeis and Mr. Saam the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Saam.

An imported Swiss embroidered organically white gown with a scoop neckline was worn by the bride. A pearl crown held a finger tip veil of illusion in place. She carried a prayer book adorned with lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Serving as maid-of-honor was Miss Judith Dwyer of Farmington. Bridesmaid was Miss Janice DeNeis of Manchester, New Hampshire, a cousin of the bride. Both

IT'S A GIRL!

Peter and Carolyn Caulkins became the proud parents of a baby girl, Sarah Marie Caulkins, July 19 at Gaylord. Peter is assistant District Forester at Gaylord.

Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Caulkins of Power Road and Mrs. and Mr. Walter Garner of Halsted Road. Gaylord is only a short distance from Lovells where the Caulkins are spending the summer and the Gardners' summer home near Northport, so the grandparents are able to visit their children and the new baby often.
