YOUR CHILD AND PROCRUSTES
Procrustes is a mythological giant who forced strangers to fit his bed. If they were too long their legs were lopped off. If they were too short, their legs were stretched.
Most religions try to fit our children into such pre-determined molds. The child's personality—his mind, his "soul"—is trimmed, stretched, bent and twisted until it accepts creed and dogma. It accepts Universalism teaches that what a person IS is more important than what he professes; Universalism has no creed, no dogma.

ROSEBURG, ORE., NEWS-REVIEW: "The Hells Canyon project has become an exceptionally good political propaganda vehicle." This issue has been played out of all proportion to its economic factors. . . . Although the differences between the proposed construction plans are of comparatively minor importance, the project puts the priorities of public and private power in direct opposition to one another. . . . A knowledge of the Science of being develops the latent abilities and possibilities of men."

Christian Science Topic Selected

How spiritual perception of the true nature of man brings growth and progress will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday. Spiritual readings in the Lesson-Sermon, or "Man" will include the following from Acts (17:24, 25): "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth life unto all, and becometh rich by us."
