

First Baptist Church Honors Congregation's Young Adults

Young people entering colleges and universities this fall for further training were honored at an open house reception Sunday evening, August 25, by members and friends of the Farmington First Baptist Church. The program was planned by Mrs. A. Russell Wright and Rollin Tinsworth, youth director.

Students studying for the ministry given recognition were David Warner, Wheaton College; Lewis McLehman, Denver Baptist Bible College; and Charles Blomster, Bible Institute of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas (Ruth Jones of Farmington) of the Bethel Seminary were also recognized in absentia.

Those studying for other professions honored were: Allen McFarland, Highland Park Jr. College; Joanne Mitchell, Western Michigan College; Nancy Mitchell, The King's College; Barry Cutts, Judy Strine, Marietta Velly, Eastern Michigan College; Barry Beals, University of Michigan; Yorke Balcom and Sylvia Gazley, Michigan State University; and Rudy Golla and Bud Jones of Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Young ladies in nurses training honored were: Jackie Burbank, Henry Ford Hospital; Lucinda Hamilton, Edward W. Sparrow Hospital; Clara Lind, R.N. at New Grace Hospital; and Evelyn Crabtree, R.N. in William Beaumont Hospital.

Although service men and women could not be present for the occasion, their names were read and recognized. Among the group are: Jim and Nancy Stevens, David Seitz, and Ron Butler, just completing service duties; Bill La Forge, Fort Jackson; Joe Whyte, Fort Bragg; Fred Smith, New River, North Carolina; Walter and Sylvia Hadding, Lincoln, Nebraska; Don Peddle Jr., Bamberg, Germany; Lee Williams, Germany; and Glen Petty, Camp Pendleton, California.

At the conclusion of the recognition period, Mr. Vernon LaForge challenged the group with the prospect of the unchanging, over-present God. Guests from Allen Park and Mrs. Lewis McLehman assisted in a brief sing-spiration.

Dr. Gordon Northrop, pastor, brought personal congratulations and assurances of interest from the local church. All these young people will be contacted monthly, receiving the church paper, "The Voice," and a note relating items of special interest from the Farmington Enterprise.

The social committee, Mrs. Joseph Erickson and Mrs. Chas. Rousseau, served light refreshments.

TOWNSHIP BOARD PROCEEDINGS

It cannot be done, the fund will go back into the General Fund.) Roll call vote, unanimous. Carried.

Motion by Westlake, supported by Brown, that this matter be received and tabled for future consideration. Carried, unanimous.

Motion by Brown, supported by Avery, that we thank Mr. Cote for bringing this matter to our attention. Carried, unanimous.

Resolution read by Mrs. Avery in re testimonial to Melody Circus: Whereas, the Township of Farmington has lacked a type of informal theatre, where citizens could enjoy the popular musical comedies and operettas, beloved by all;

and Whereas, in 1954, a group of civic-minded citizens composed of Dick Connell, Jr., John Anhalt, Frank Gerbig, Jr., John Harris and Frank Finney joined Ridge Bond in his dream of one day having an arena-like tent where the citizens of this area could relax and enjoy of a cultural program of favorite music; and

Whereas "Melody Circus" became a reality in 1955, bringing to Farmington some of the finest entertainment in an unique setting, and thus added not only to the cultural entertainment available for our citizens, but focused the attention of the nation to Farmington's advancement in the drama and theatre world, which is so often reserved for other communities;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Township Board commend "Melody Circus" for its contribution to the achievements of Farmington Township in this year of 1957, and not only wish them continuing success, but offer encouragement to those who made this endeavor possible so that they may strive to make Farmington known throughout the nation for its role in the fine arts.

Motion by Stephenson, supported by Avery, that we adopt Resolution. Carried, unanimous.
